"Friend, Sweetheart, Wife."

Was the beautiful sentiment chosen by a well known young man, to be inscribed within his fiancee's ring. Friend sweetheart, wife—combine the three, or choose one from among them and I will show you the ring for presentation Dainty solitaires for the woman who is satisfied with nothing but the "correct thing."

An elegant line of seals and initials for the men Solid, substantial, economical rings for the boys and girls. "Everybody's" ring the solid gold oval or band, in all sizes; broad flat, broad full oval; or the neat, refined Tiffany, a narrow, thick ring, well hing fully as much as the others, but lacking their ostentation

It isn't the material that goes into your repaired watch that results in a perfect job, it is the Know How that does the business, any bungler can buy the fine kinds of material that I use in repairing; but skill is the most valuable material that can be used in watch repairing; and the bunglercan't buy it. I sell my skill for what it is worth and it will cost you less than bungling at lower prices.

Plans are being perfected for extending the Kearney and Black Hills railroad, from Callaway to Gandy. A private company is back of the project, which constructs its road and collects the bonds proposed to be voted in aid of the construction, but the N. P. R. R. is the power behind the throne. Arnold and Gandy are to be congratulated upon the favorable prospects of railroad connection with the rest of the world in the near future.

Collection of Taxes by Distress.

As the county treasurer has already placed in my hands a number of distress warrants in force collections for the year 1899, personal property tax and as he intends to continue until all personal taxes are paid, I would urge all who have not paid their 1899 taxes to come in at once. If these taxes are not paid AT ONCE I will be forced to collect by distress and thus add cost to the tax payer. This is no scare notice for distress warrants are being issued.

The ladies of the Presbyterian Church will serve dinner on Thanksgiving day, from one to three o'clock, in the building formerly occupied by Wm. Penn & Co. Corn Stalk Disease.

Dr. A. Peters, state veterinarian, in 1898 report, in treating on corn stalk disease in cattle says:

"We have concluded that the best method of prevention is to feed a grain ration to cattle in the morning before turning them into the fields, or to allow the stock to have access to a hay or straw stack." But adds "that the only safe method is to cut the stalks and feed them in that form."

TREATMENT.

He says, "In most cases the disease is so far advanced when discovered, that treatment is useless, but if noticed in time, I would advise drenching with epsom salts in half pound doses every few hours until they act."

O'Neill to North Platte.

It seems that the connection of the old Sioux City, O'Neill and Western railroad with the Union Pacific railroad at North Platte, Neb., which the Credits Commutation and Combination Bridge companies fought for during the six years of the Pacific Short Line receivership, which included a costly campaign in congress of the United States, is about to be secured by the Great Northern. The Short Line is owned by J. Kennedy Tod & Company, and operated by the Great Northern as a part of its Wilmar and Sioux Falls. The negotiations for the connection are said to be entirely in the hands of the Union Pacific and Great Northern officials.

The new relations which have been established between the Union Pacific and Great Northern were a condition precedent to taking up the project, but now that arrangement for the alliance has been concluded, the prospect that the extension from O'Neill will be constructed next year is bright.

Word from St. Paul today was that building the line had been under consideration for more than a week.—The Frontier (O'Neill).

Would it not be a good business proposition for our business men to look after this project, and see that if this line is built that Broken Bow is included on the route?

Notice!

The county board of supervisors will meet on Tuesday, Dec. 4th 1900 for the purpose of transacting general county business.
J. B. OSBOURN, Co. Clerk.

Josh Wood returned from Kearney Saturday. Mr. Wood had almost recovered from his recent sickness. The attending physician pronounces it a new disease, which is contagious every four years, and which is called dyspepsia of the pocket, superinduced by a mania from reading the Omaha World Herald. Followed by a severe attack of election fever which produces expanded portions of the guessing ability and generally reduces a man's height from six to ten inches when recovered and compels them to give their trousers several rolls to prevent dragging or bagging at the knees. Several citizens of Sumner had a slight attack of this new disease.—Miller Gazette.
