CONGRESS IS IN SESSION

Much Business Will Be Transacted Despite the Shortness of Time.

MANY BILLS ABOUT AGREED UPON

War Revenue, Army Reorganization, Oil-Margarine and Shipping Subsidy Measures Will Be Given Right of Way—The President's Message.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 3.—The leaders of the house are preparing to press with great vigor the important business of the short session of congress, which convenes today. Already considerable preliminary committee work has been done on the important measures—the bill for the reduction of the war revenue taxes, the army reorganization bill, the river and harbor bill and several of the appropriation bills—and the legislative mill will start under a full head of steam. The army reorganization bill is considered particularly urgent owing to the possibility of its meeting strenuous opposition after it reaches the senate and it is the intention of the leaders to get it out of the way at the earliest possible moment. It will be reported probably on Tuesday and will be taken up at once unless after further consultation it is decided to let the legislative, executive and judicial appropriation bill, which also will be ready on Tuesday, in ahead of it. The democrats will caucus on the army bill on Monday and the indications now are that they will offer as a substitute for the permanent reorganization measure a bill extending for two or three years the present law for a provisional army.

The bill to reduce the war revenue taxes practically has been completed by the republican members of the ways and means committee and it will be submitted to the full committee on Tuesday unless in the meantime a caucus of the republicans should be found advisable. Some of the republican members are not satisfied with the list of articles relieved from taxation by the bill and if too much opposition becomes evident when the house convenes on Monday the leaders probably will call a conference or caucus for the purpose of adjusting and harmonizing differences.

On Thursday the Grouse oleomargarine bill will come up as a special order, under the rule made at the last session. It imposes a tax of 10 cents a pound on oleomargarine, butterine or other manufactured butters colored in imitation of butter. It has strong backing from the dairy interests and while it will meet with warm opposition from the interests that are antagonizing its passage, when it reaches a vote its passage is regarded as a foregone conclusion. Two days, it is thought, will suffice for its consideration.

Saturday, under a special order made last session, will be devoted to eulogies on the life, character and public services of the late Representative Harmer of Pennsylvania, who for several years enjoyed the distinction of being the member holding the record for longest continuous service and therefore entitled to the soubriquet, "Father of the House."

No business will be transacted at the session today beyond the probable reading of the president's message, owing to the deaths of the late Representative Daly of New Jersey and the late Representative Hoffman of Delaware, which occurred during the recess. Their deaths, as well as the deaths of Senators Davis and Gear, will be announced immediately after the roll is called and the house will adjourn at once out of respect to their memories.

Mr. Frye expects to get up the shipping subsidy bill on Tuesday and if not on that day then on Wednesday and in doing this to have the Spooner Philippine bill displaced. This will be the beginning of the important work of the session and upon the success or failure of the scheme may depend much of the future course of proceedings for the entire session. In order to accomplish this result it will be necessary first to get the consent of the republican committee on order of adjournment of the senate on Monday afternoon. Mr. Frye said today that he had already conferred with a majority of the members of that committee and that he felt assured he would have no difficulty in securing their assent to the proposed change.

River and Harbor Reports. WASHINGTON, Dec. 1.—The river and harbor committee today heard Colonel Robert, Lieutenant Colonel Haines and Captain Rieche of the engineer corps concerning the works under their charge along the Gulf of Mexico and the mouth of the Mississippi. A considerable portion of the time was devoted to Aransas Pass, Tex.

Coal Drops Out of Sight. HUNTINGTON, W. Va., Dec. 3.—The steamers Tom Dodsborough and Volunteer, both Pittsburgh towboats, collided twenty miles above here this morning. Almost thirty coal boats, containing 500,000 bushels of coal, sank. The loss is $100,000.

Liecum's Remains Ashore. SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 3.—The body of Colonel Liecum was taken from the transport Thomas today and carried, under military escort, to the Presidio, where it will be conveyed to Washington.

Would Like to Be Senator. ST. PAUL, Minn., Dec. 1.—Attracted to the city by Senator Davis' funeral and incidentally by the fact that a successor to that statesman will have to be elected within a few weeks, many members of both houses were about the hotels discussing the possibilities. The field of probable candidates is large, but all such await the action of Governor Lind as to an appointment for the brief vacancy till the legislature can act. It will be for a term of six weeks.

TWENTY KILLED IN A WRECK.

Trains on the Mexican Road Crash Together Like Mighty Battering Rams.

SAN ANTONIO, Tex., Dec. 3.—A terrible wreck, in which a score of persons were killed and about sixty hurt, occurred on the Mexican central railway on Thursday afternoon between Tomancha and Symon, fifty miles south of Juarez. The first news of the disaster reached here today. Edward Rieche, a citizen of San Antonio, was at the scene twenty minutes after the engines crashed together. The place where the wreck occurred is in a valley at the foot of two immense hills. At the time both trains were running thirty miles an hour. One of the trains had on board a construction crew numbering 150 men. The other was a freight train of fifty-five empty cars. Three engines and about forty cars were piled up forty feet high. Two Americans, train employees, were forced to flee to avoid being lynched. The names of the killed and injured are not obtainable. This is said to be the most serious wreck that has ever occurred in Mexico.

EL PASO, Tex., Dec. 3.—Details of the collision on the Mexican Central are meager. Engineer Ross and Fireman Reeves and Harverson of the freight train were killed. Most of the dead and wounded were Mexicans, who were riding in the cars next to the engine. It is now said the collision was on the main line near Jimulco between a freight and a passenger train and that it caused the death of eleven persons and injury of twenty. The freight was a doubleheader.

AS TO WEATHER FORECASTS.

Prof. Moore Holds Virginia Court Opinion Was Commendatory.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 3.—Prof. Moore, chief of the weather bureau, has made a statement in which he calls attention to the recent decision of the United States court of appeals at Richmond, Va., involving the responsibility of a vessel master for damages by rain to a cargo of rice discharged on an unsheltered wharf at Charleston, S. C., when the bureau had predicted rain. He says that contrary to widely published comments the decision clearly stated that where the storm warnings are brought to the attention of vessel masters, it is their duty to take cognizance and observe them, though the court said the ordinary predictions of rain, snow and moderate change of temperature are less reliable than almost anything of which the general public is expected to take cognizance. Prof. Moore contends that the decision was a commendation instead of a condemnation of storm warnings. The bureau, he says, considers that one out of every five forecasts of precipitation has failed of verification, while there has not been a destructive marine storm anywhere in the United States in over six years that was not preceded by the danger warnings, or a severe cold wave of which farmers were not given timely warning.

THOUSANDS SEE KRUGER

German Common People Testify to Their Sympathy for Him.

COLOGNE, Dec. 3.—Thousands of people waited today in the vicinity of the Cathedral hotel to catch a glimpse of Mr. Kruger, who, when replying to the deputations of Bonn students in the afternoon, described the educational progress of the Transvaal, thanked the students for their kind welcome and shook hands with each. Afterward he appeared upon the balcony, where he was loudly cheered from below. Having rested for half an hour, he went into the vestibule of the hotel, which was crowded with visitors. Here, replying to a deputation from the Pan-German league, wishing him success, he referred to the close relationship between the Boers and the Germans. It is expected that Mr. Kruger will remain here until Wednesday.

American Shoes in Egypt.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 3.—Consul Shumann at Mainz says in a report to the state department if American shoe manufacturers studied closely the requirements of the trade in Egypt they ought to be able to conquer that market with ease. He says that they certainly could be able to offer a better and cheaper shoe than the Swiss manufacturers, who now practically control the shoe trade of Egypt, having driven French goods out of the market.

Women May Bathe Unseen.

SANTIAGO DE CUBA, Dec. 3.—The new public bath for women, built by the sanitary department, was opened yesterday and 300 girls and women took advantage of the opportunities offered. Heretofore women of the lower class have been in the habit of bathing in a cove without protection, and have been frequently interrupted by men, who stole their clothing.

Wheeler Will Save His Arm.

WYOMORE, Neb., Nov. 28.—Conductor E. E. Wheeler, who was so injured at Table Rock last week that it was thought his arm would have to be amputated, will pull through and save his arm, although the muscles above and below the elbow were ground to a pulp.

Bolomen Surrender.

MANILA, Dec. 3.—One thousand more bolomen have surrendered to Captain Grove of the Thirty-third infantry, at Vigan, island of Luzon.

Receipts and Expenditures.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 3.—The monthly comparative statement of the government receipts and expenditures during November, 1900, shows the total receipts to have been $48,344,514 and the expenditures $41,278,660, leaving a surplus for the month of $7,065,854. The receipts are itemized as follows: Customs, $18,550,296, a decrease over November last year of $654,121; internal revenue, $27,559,159, an increase of $3,865,995; miscellaneous, $2,238,958, a decrease of $1,812,842.

A RANCHMAN MURDERED

W. H. Fullhart of Custer County Found Dead Near His Home.

SKULL WAS CRUSHED BY A BLOW

Was a Well-to-Do Old Soldier and Lived Far from Town—Smythe and the Railroad Cases—Miscellaneous News in Nebraska.

BROKEN BOW, Neb., Nov. 28.—The lifeless body of W. H. Fullhart, was found Saturday on his ranch eighteen miles northwest of Anselmo. The sheriff, county attorney and Drs. Talbot and Day went to the premises of the dead ranchman to ascertain the cause of death. The body was taken to Anselmo, and an inquest was held. The man's skull was broken apparently by some blunt instrument. The body was a mile from the house and near it a sled, on which were two rolls of fence wire with which he had been building fence. No horse was attached to the sled, but the harness was found in the barn, on which was blood on the tugs, throat latch and snaps of the lines. Fullhart was an old soldier living alone and was supposed to have quite a sum of money. He had about forty head of cattle and fifty head of horses. He has a sister living in Indiana, in whose name he had his business. He lived alone except when he kept a hired man, and was very eccentric. There is no clue to the murderer except the man who worked for him last year. From that it is inferred that that was the date of his death.

Smythe and Railroad Cases.

LINCOLN, Nov. 28.—Attorney General Smyth came down on business connected with the action of the State of Nebraska against the Union Pacific Railroad company, which was begun by him to recover $600,000 claimed as a penalty for violation of the maximum freight rate law. Referees in this case were recently appointed by the supreme court have begun to take testimony in Omaha and it is expected that they will present their findings at either the last sitting in December or the first sitting in January. While here the attorney general asserted that he would probably ask the court for a rehearing on the Board of Transportation and Irrigation cases and also the case of the state against the bondsmen of ex-Treasurer Bartley.

Contests Legislative Seat.

BROKEN BOW, Neb., Nov. 28.—Joseph Pigman, the republican candidate for the legislature in the Fifty-sixth representative district has filed contest proceedings against James D. Ream, as freedom candidate. The vote cast at the last election of the office of representative was not the full vote of the district. McKinley and Bryan received in Custer and Logan counties 5,100 votes, while Pigman and Ream's vote only amounted to 4,395. The closeness of the vote is the cause of the contest, Ream's majority being but nineteen according to the official canvass. The grounds of the contest is errors and mistakes made by the judges and clerks of election.

Smallpox at Wallace.

WALLACE, Neb., Nov. 28.—Wallace people are very much alarmed by the fact that smallpox has broken out here. So far five cases have been reported—three in town and two in the country. The county physician has been sent for and immediate steps will be taken by the authorities to prevent a spread of the disease. The malady is in light form so far.

Think He Smothered.

ASHLAND, Neb., Nov. 28.—Reports from Memphis tell of the sudden death at that place of Judson McCoy. Sunday afternoon about 2 o'clock McCoy's body was found near Herman Harrison's barn. The theory of his death is that while intoxicated he had fallen against a refuse pile with his head down and smothered to death, as he was in that position when found.

Cornstalk Disease.

TAYLOR, Neb., Nov. 28.—There has been a great loss of cattle in this county from cornstalk disease, many farmers losing eight or ten head in one day. The Abbot ranch reports a loss of twenty-five. Hides are being sent to market by the wagon load. Horses seem almost free from the disease, only a few head having been lost.

Shoots Father in Back.

BRAINARD, Neb., Nov. 28.—L. Van Doren, a farmer residing three miles west of here, was accidentally shot in the back by his 11-year-old son. The boy was handling a rifle inside the house, his father being in the yard some distance away. The ball passed through the door and struck Van Doren, who is now at the point of death.

Has Faith in the Sugar Beet.

TECUMSEH, Neb., Nov. 28.—For experimental purposes Hirschel Hellig, a young farmer of this county, raised seven acres of sugar beets last season. He had but little better than half a stand, but nevertheless the crop netted him a little over $25 per acre. He will plant twenty acres the coming season. His beets were marketed at Ames. Mr. Hellig is an enthusiast in the raising of sugar beets and he hopes other farmers will take hold of the proposition now before them tending to the location of a factory in this community within the next few years.

FARMERS WORKING THE FARMERS.

Selling Cheap Watches Under Bogus Guarantee at Fancy Prices.

GRAND ISLAND, Neb., Dec. 3.—A stranger has been selling farmers of this vicinity three-dollar watches for ten dollars and giving the guarantee of local jewelers that they would keep the timepieces in repair. The facts became known last Saturday, when a farmer entered the jewelry store of August Meyer and wanted his watch repaired, incidentally mentioning that Mr. Meyer had guaranteed the watch for such and such a length of time. Mr. Meyer was somewhat surprised, as he had never handled such a timepiece, and was still further stunned to have the patron pull a piece of paper from his pocket—a written guarantee—which the farmer stated his (Meyer's) agent had given him. It developed that the fakir had first come to Grand Island and posted himself upon the different jewelers, could talk of all of them and thus impress the farmers that he was genuine.

Kearney Suffers Two Disasters.

KEARNEY, Neb., Dec. 3.—Kearney suffered its second disaster last week by the burning of its gas plant. If the Standard Oil company's tanks should now be destroyed the citizens would have to resort to tallow candles.

Tuesday the canal pipe, which supplied the electric light plant, burst and the flood from the lake wrecked the lighting plant, causing a loss of $50,000.

Friday evening an attendant at the Kearney gas plant was doing some work around the big gas tank or reservoir, when the escaping gas became ignited by the lantern which he carried, and in a few minutes the entire reservoir was burning. The fire company responded quickly, but was unable to do anything save protect the surrounding buildings. The damage is considerable, but is covered by insurance.

Gov. Dietrich's Appointments.

LINCOLN, Neb., Dec. 3.—Governor Dietrich says that he has decided to appoint Dr. Kern of Wood River superintendent of the Asylum for Incurable Insane at Hastings. He announced also that in his inaugural address he would probably advocate the creation of a State Board of Control to have charge of state institutions. Concerning the minor appointments in the state institutions Governor Dietrich said all applications for such positions should be made to the superintendents selected. The inaugural ball will probably be given in the Auditorium January 3.

Poisonous Corn Fodder.

BURWELL, Neb., Dec. 3.—Farmers and ranchmen in this vicinity are greatly wrought up over the fact that dozens of cattle are dying from what is said to be a poison in the corn stalks and nearly all the farmers are compelled to yard and close feed their cattle. Hundreds of acres of corn stalks will have to be cut and burned, as that is the advice given by the veterinarians that have examined the matter. The price of straw and hay has advanced about $1 per ton in the last week, for all cattle will have to be wintered in that way.

Gun for Grand Army.

PLATTSMOUTH, Neb., Dec. 3.—The commander of the Grand Army of the Republic post in this city has received a letter, through Congressman Burkett, from Brigadier General H. R. Buffington stating: "I have the honor to inform you in compliance with your request the commanding officer at Fort Mifflin, Philadelphia, Pa., has this day been instructed to turn over to you one 42-pounder gun." The cannon will probably arrive here before the first of next year.

Sudden Death of Lou Larson.

EMERSON, Neb., Dec. 3.—Louis Larson, village marshal, was found dead in an alley adjoining Dentelsohn's saloon here. He was alone and apparently died from some internal injury or from heart failure. There were no bruises or external injuries to indicate that he had been waylaid and assaulted. Nevertheless the people here are suspicious of foul play and Corner Rubel of Allen has been telegraphed for and an inquest will be held.

York County's Corn Crop.

YORK, Neb., Dec. 3.—Corn huskers are in great demand and as soon as one job is finished a dozen farmers are ready to employ them. It is a common sight to see girls, young women and even matrons shucking corn. Cribs are filled to overflowing and corn is piled in driveways on the ground. The weather has been fine for shucking and farmers hope to be through before cold weather sets in. York county corn is of good quality and good yield and at the present prices is a money-making crop.

Heavy Transfer of Land.

GOTHENBURG, Neb., Dec. 1.—C. W. Wiggins and Foster & Fouché of Ames have just completed a deal by which they become owners of some 2,240 acres of grazing land about ten miles south of this place. This is to be used for a sheep and cattle ranch and will be one of the largest in this part of the state.

State Capital Notes.

LINCOLN, Neb., Dec. 3.—Treasurer Meserve today issued a call for warrants registered from 60,931 to 61,370. The aggregate is $50,000 and will be payable on December 8. The meeting of the state officials-elect scheduled for December 14 was postponed until December 14, because of the absence of Charles Weston, who is now in Wyoming. It is estimated that the backers of the Minnesota football team lost in the neighborhood of $5,000 on the result of the game in this city. Most of the wagers were on scores.

Would Follow Good Example.

Now that the courts have sustained the validity of the ordinance in Philadelphia prohibiting the distribution of advertising handbills and circulars in the streets and in vestibules and on the porches, there is a general demand on the part of newspapers in interior Pennsylvania cities for similar ordinances. If littering the streets of Philadelphia with loose paper is a bad thing, it is argued to be quite as bad for the streets of other cities, though they may not be so large.

WHY MRS. PINKHAM

Is Able to Help Sick Women When Doctors Fail.

How gladly would men fly to woman's aid did they but understand a woman's feelings, trials, sensibilities, and peculiar organic disturbances.

Those things are known only to women, and the aid a man would give is not at his command.

To treat a case properly it is necessary to know all about it, and full information, many times, cannot be given by a woman to her family physician.

Mrs. G. H. CHAPPELL.

afician. She cannot bring herself to tell everything, and the physician is at a constant disadvantage. This is why, for the past twenty-five years, thousands of women have been confiding their troubles to Mrs. Pinkham, and whose advice has brought happiness and health to countless women in the United States.

Mrs. Chappell, of Grant Park, Ill., whose portrait we publish, advises all suffering women to seek Mrs. Pinkham's advice and use Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, as they cured her of inflammation of the ovaries and womb; she, therefore, speaks from knowledge, and her experience ought to give others confidence. Mrs. Pinkham's address is Lynn, Mass., and her advice is absolutely free.
