Where? At my door. At the Eagle Grocery. What in the world is it, my dear? It is at the Eagle Grocery, a mammoth stock of Groceries, and at the lowest prices you ever heard of. The Eagle has been reading the papers and kept posted on what was being offered for sale. They don't say anything about Terbacker and Candy, and other good things like that. It is not pickle dishes you want now, it is Candy. The Eagle has 2,000 pounds of candy for sale cheap. Everybody is invited to call and get my prices. The Imbroglio of Life.
A man's life is full of crosses and temptations. He comes into this world without his consent, goes out against his will, and the trip between the two extremities is exceedingly rocky. The rule of contraries is one of the important features of the trip. When he is little the big girls kiss him, and when he is big the little girls kiss him. If he raises a large family he is a chump, but if he raises a small check he is a thief and fraud and is shunned like a Chinaman with the seven year itch. If he is poor he is a bad manager; if he is rich he is dishonest; if he don't give to charity, he's a stingy cuss and lives only for himself; if he dies young, there was a great future ahead of him; if he lives to an old age, he has missed his calling. He is introduced into this world by a doctor, and to the next world by the same process. The road is rocky, but man likes to travel it—Myrtle Point Enterprise.

To California in a Tourist Sleeper.
In no other way can you go to California so quickly, so comfortably, and yet so economical, as in a tourist sleeping car.
The tourist cars used for the Burlington Overland Excursions are models of comfort and convenience, high back seats and double windows. They are lighted by gas. The heating arrangement are admirable and the bed furnishings are clean and of good quality.
The Burlington Excursions leave Omaha every Tuesday and Thursday and go through to San Francisco and Los Angeles without changes or delays of any kind. You can join them at Lincoln, Hastings, Oxford, or any other station at which the train stops. The route is through Denver and Salt Lake City, past the finest scenery visible from car windows anywhere on the globe.
An experienced excursion manager is in charge of each excursion party and a uniformed porter accompanies each car.

A Social Event.

Monday night, at the residence of M. M. Parkhurst and wife, in Ross Valley, guests to the number of forty assembled, all prepared for a good time, the occasion for the event being the departure of their son Thomas for Oklahoma. The evening was agreeably spent in music, singing and agreeable conversation.
At midnight a grand oyster supper was served by Mrs. Parkhurst, assisted by Mrs. Mary O'Brien. After supper all repaired to the parlors for the final greetings, which were indulged in both to Mr. and Mrs. Parkhurst and their son. Thomas is a model young man, having been reared in this neighborhood from boyhood. He took with him as a partner in the enterprise E. M. Mosely, a sober and industrious young man. While we regret the loss to our community of such citizens, yet we have never doubted the wisdom of Father Abraham. Go west, young man. SCRIBER.

The Reward of Truth.

During his second successful campaign for the republican ticket for governor of Michigan the late John J. Bagaley spoke one evening at Kalamazoo. He was a good business man, but a poor public speaker. At the beginning of his remarks on this occasion he alluded to his lack of oratorical gifts. After he had finished a man pushed forward, grasped his hand warmly and said: "Governor, I have been a life long democrat, but at the coming election I shall vote for you."
"Thank you," replied the governor much gratified. "May I ask the particular reason for your change?"
"Because you are the first speaker on either side in the campaign that I have heard tell the truth. You said when you began you couldn't make much of a speech and by jinks you can't.—Harper's Magazine.

BIG PRIZES AWARDED DAILY.
When you have made out your list all on the line on the bottom of this advertisement, and send to us with a stamped addressed envelope, stamp of your country will do, then if you are awarded a prize you can if you desire get the prize by becoming a subscriber to the Woman's World. We shall award a prize to every person who sends the name of 25 birds, and our gifts will be as follows: For the best list, received each day, a Gold Watch; for the next best solution, a Gold Piece; and for all other correct solutions, prizes of good value. These prizes will be forwarded daily, you will not have to wait a long time in uncertainty before you know the result. There is no element of lottery in our plan, it makes no difference whether we set your solution late or early in the day. All you need to mail this advt. to us, and on the day it reaches us, if your list is the best, you shall have the Gold Watch, or if second best, the beautiful Tea Set, and so on. We guarantee that we will award you a prize. There is absolutely no opportunity for deception on our part—we cannot afford it. We want to get 1,000,000 well satisfied subscribers, and for that reason we don't want you to send any money until you know exactly what prize you have gained by answering the puzzle. As soon after 4 p. m. each day as possible, the examiners will judge the lists to the best of their ability, and will designate the prize. We will write to you at once notifying you what prize has been awarded you, then if you are satisfied, you can send your subscription to The Woman's World, and your prize will go by return of mail carriage paid. To a person of narrow ideas it seems impossible that we should be able to make such a gigantic offer, but we have the money, brains and reputation, we know exactly what we are doing, and if we can legitimately gain a million subscribers by this grand idea, we know that this million of well pleased subscribers can be induced to recommend The Woman's World to all friends, thereby building up our circulation still further. We are willing to spend $5,000 in this contest in building up a big subscription list, and when this money is spent we reserve the right to publish a certification that the contest has been discontinued. Don't delay until it is too late. The contest will continue until July 1st, 1901.

We give a bonus prize of $250 independent of all others, to the person who sends in the list gotten up in the best and handsomest manner. Our committee will decide and award all prizes, but the special $250 prize will be awarded in September, 1901. Any bird's name found in the dictionaries accepted.
