Mr. J. F. Paul, who last year passed away, knew that the business he was about to take over was a very large one, and the array of goods now on display is not entirely work, no matter how well paid, is not a thing to be used as a basis for that which has been said of this store.

To-day's Offer: 50 cents off on all Fruits and Vegetables.

Mr. C. B. Seybolt, who recently leased the property, has already made arrangements for a large stock of goods, and it is expected that he will have everything in order by the time the store opens.
