Tableware Quality

In Silverware the true criterion is quality.

Silverware with quality is here in abundance, the kind that wears as well as it looks, with prices as low as quality is high.

Don't forget the wedding in the spring.

You may delight your friends with a selection from my comprehensive stock.

In the meantime why not commence at home and beautify your own table.

It isn't the material that goes into your repaired watch that results in a perfect job, it is the Know How that does the business, any bungler can buy the fine kinds of material that I use in repairing; but skill is the most valuable material that can be used in watch repairing; and the bungler can't buy it. I sell my skill for what it is worth and it will cost you less than bungling at lower prices.

The claim of the other cough medicines to be as good as Chamberlain's are effectually set at rest in the following testimony of Mr. C. D. Glass, an employee of Bartlett & Dennis Co., Gardner, Mo. He says: "I had kept adding to a cold and cough in the winter of 1897, trying every cough medicine I heard of without permanent help, until one day I was in the drug store of Mr. Houlehan and he advised me to try Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and offered to pay back my money if I was not cured. My lungs and bronchial tubes were very sore at this time, but I was completely cured by this remedy, and have since always turned to it when I got a cold, and soon find relief. I also recommend it to my friends and am glad to say it is the best of all cough medicines." For sale by J. G. Haeberle.

A series of meetings was begun at Custer Center last Monday night by the pastor, H. E. Myers, who reports good meetings and an excellent prospect for a successful revival.

At a meeting of Co. M last Saturday night, Hugh Kenyer was elected 2nd lieutenant, N. T. Gadd first sergeant, Harry Wright and Fred Stack corporal and Sam Dorris lance corporal.

The snow last Thursday and Thursday night was the heaviest had this season. The wind drifted it badly and in places it is four to six feet deep. It was probably six or eight inches on the level.

As we go to press the Fullhart murder case is still in progress and the court room is crowded. Only 27 of the 108 witnesses have been examined. The trial will run into next week in all probability.

Mrs. L. E. Town, eight miles northeast of Westerville, near Weisert, died yesterday morning of child birth, age 39 years. The deceased leaves a husband and seven children to mourn her death.

The Loup City, North-Western says the attorneys of Sherman county have petitioned the judge to indefinitely postpone the February term of the district court. Their action was taken for fear of introducing smallpox in their town.

R. T. Baker, of Custer Center, has rented the U. L. Ward farm and the Briggs farm adjoining for the ensuing year. Mr. Baker is a good farmer and substantial citizen, and will make a success of it if anybody does in his community.

Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Blackwell gave a 6 o'clock dinner in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Crowther, Tuesday eve, who are here on a visit. There were fourteen present and an elaborate dinner was served and a good time was enjoyed by all present.

Company M. gives their second annual military ball on Friday night, February 22, 1901. This is the anniversary of one of Company M's hardest fought battles during the war with Spain and later with the Filipinos. A grand time is expected.

Saturday morning the thermometer registered 23 degrees below zero at Haeberle's. That is the coldest this season, but the day following was calm and the bright sun soon changed the condition of the atmosphere making the weather very comfortable through the day.

Ned Savage came over from Sargent Friday, returning Saturday. He found the snow badly drifted on the route and most of the way, there was no sign of a track ahead of him. One track had preceded him part way but the tracks had been drifted full of snow in the worst places.

The greatest danger from colds and la grippe is their resulting in pneumonia. Reasonable care is used, however, and Chamberlain's Cough Remedy taken, all danger will be avoided. It will cure a cold or an attack of la grippe in less time than any other treatment. It is pleasant and safe to take. For sale by J. G. Haeberle.

With this issue of the REPUBLICAN we again have sent out a number of sample copies containing part of the evidence in the Fullhart murder trial. All who want the remainder of the trial and the official paper of Custer county will be accommodated by filing their request before next issue. Subscription price only one dollar per year.

Mr. Pittaway, a representative of the Independent Line Telephone Co. of Broken Bow, was in the city this week soliciting subscriptions to extend a telephone line to this place from Comstock via Round Park. The company contemplates putting a line also, from Round Park to Ord giving us direct connections with our capital city. We understand that Mr. Pittaway met with fair success while here, and the chances are good for the line to come. It is certain to do so if the proper encouragement is given and we simply say this: It should be—Arcadia Champion.

Perfume Wards Off Cholera. The cholera repeatedly during the last century visited London and Paris, but at no time was there a death from that disease among the operatives of the perfume factories.

Many Translations of Bible. During the century the Bible has been translated into more than 350 languages, which nine-tenths of the human race can read.

A Convincing Answer. "I hobbled into Mr. Blackman's drug store one evening," says Wesley Nelson, of Hamilton Ga., "and he asked me to try Chamberlain's Pain Balm for rheumatism with which I had suffered for a long time. I told him I had no faith in any medicine as they all failed. He said: 'Well if Chamberlain's Pain Balm does not help you, you need not pay for it.' I took a bottle of it home and used it according to the directions and in one week I was cured, and have not since been troubled with rheumatism." Sold by J. G. Haeberle.

A Church Accepts Parker Statute. The Kraus statue of Theodore Parker, made in 1885, is still a source of trouble. It was first rejected, with many protests, by Parker's friends, and was retired from view, but it has now been accepted by the First parish (Unitarian) of West Roxbury, Mass., and will be set up in front of the church of that congregation.

Women's University Club. The Women's University club of New York is the latest organization among college graduates. The alumna of the various colleges have planned an organization with the object of building a club house such as those enjoyed by men. Seven hundred women graduates were present at a meeting held, and the success of the scheme seems assured.

Negro Laughs at Everything. Scott Owens, an aged negro who resides near Navasota, Tex., laughs at everything that is said to him, no matter how serious the communication may be. Sometimes he throws himself on the ground, and there wriggles with uncontrollable merriment. When the spasm of laughter is over, he gravely gets on his feet and looks as solemn as a statue.

Stone-Trees in Arizona. A petrified forest, covering an area of 100 square miles, has existed for centuries in Arizona. Thousands and thousands of petrified logs strewn the ground and represent beautiful shades of pink, purple, red, gray, blue and yellow. One of the stone-trees spans a gulf forty feet wide.

Bust for Cincinnati Schools. A marble bust of Mrs. Christine G. Sullivan, the Ohio educator, is being made by C. T. Webber, the sculptor, for the Cincinnati public schools. It is the gift of several members of the National Educational association and the Southern and Ohio Teachers' associations.

Couldn't Count the Haeber. A Maine man sent his small son out to count the new brood of chickens which had hatched out that day. When the boy returned he said: "I counted them all but one, daddy, and that one was running 'round so fast I could not count him!"

Literature in Ordinary Letters. The poet Swinburne recently said that if early in life he had made it a rule to answer only such letters as came from friends and relatives his contributions to literature would have been augmented by the addition of at least three volumes.

Our First Savings Bank. The first savings bank established in the United States was in Philadelphia, which opened Dec. 2, 1816. It is said that the first deposit made in this bank was the sum of 3s, handed over the counter by a boy. This bank was entitled "The Savings Fund Society of Philadelphia." The first bank of this kind established in New York was chartered Nov. 25, 1816, and went into business July 3, 1819.

Patience Better than Argument. If men wound you with injuries, meet them with patience; hasty words rattle the wound, soft language dresses it, forgiveness cures it, and oblivion takes away the scar. It is more noble by silence to avoid an injury than by argument to overcome it.—Beaumont.

Tramping Cures Consumption. A Dayton, O. man claims that he has conquered consumption by leading a nomadic life. Twenty years ago his doctor told him he could not live six months. Then he set out to roam over the country. After all these years of wandering he claims to be cured and has returned to his home.

Fails to Cure Consumption. Recently an institution was opened in Belgium for the alleged cure of tuberculosis by the exclusive raw meat diet. After a trial of a few months the experiment was abandoned, as it was found that there was no efficacy in the Richee cure.

Individual Cost of Government. Each inhabitant of France pays annually 17s. 6d. for the support of the government, while each Italian contributes 16s. 8d. If Germany and Belgium the cost is 12s. 6d. per head of the population; in Austria 11s. 8d., and in Great Britain 8s. 4d.

Communicate from Ship to Land. Wireless telegraphy is used on the steamers crossing the English channel by the use of Marconi telegraphic instruments, enabling parties on the boats to hold instant communication with those on shore.
