The verdiot in the Fullhart case pablic expected it would be for the reason the evidence produced by the state was all sircumatantial. But the circumstances were against the prisoner and he did not attumpt to disprove any of them nor offer The jury had but one alternative and that was to say be was guilty able reason why be bad the catt he had traded one of them or why Menary of Merna for a saddle desth, there would have been som grounds for the jury to doub whether he was the guilty party
But there was not a cintilla of evi dence to disprove the state' dence. His lawgers did all the evidence in bir favor, they no doubs feel thankful that the verdiet wa not for the death penality.
