Take a Look At Your Watch

Has your watch got the sulks? Come and use my eye glass and see what the trouble is.

If you have some difficulty in holding the glass on your eye, or in finding the watch trouble after you get it there, perhaps I can help you.

I have had many years' experience in repairing watches just like yours. No charge for this experience. I merely charge for my work—nothing for the experience. Cleaning, $1.50; mainspring $1.00; other repairs equally low.

It isn't the material that goes into your repaired watch that results in a perfect job, it is the know how that does the business. Any bungler can buy the fine kinds of material that I use in repairing; but skill is the most valuable material that can be used in watch repairing; and the bungler can't buy it. I sell my skill for what it is worth and it will cost you less than bungling at lower prices.

Married.

LARSON-GOVIER.—At the home of the bride's parents, in Swiss Valley, Custer county, Nebraska, at 3 p. m., February 24th, 1901, by Rev. Richard Bellis, Mr. Alfred Larson and Miss Lula Perle Govier, both of Gothenburg, Nebraska.

After the ceremony, the large company of friends, did ample justice to the wedding dinner prepared for the occasion, which was duly appreciated by all. The young people were the recipients of many beautiful presents.

YOUNG-SHORES.—At the home of the bride's parents in Dry Valley, Custer county, Nebraska, at 7 o'clock p. m., February 24th, 1901, by Rev. E. Bellis, Mr. William A. Young of Dannebrog, Howard county, Nebraska, and Miss Lula Shores of Weisport, Nebraska.

The words being spoken which made of "twain one flesh," the company retired to partake of the wedding supper which gave ample proof of painstaking and a high degree of proficiency in the culinary art. After supper songs of praise were sung by the Spease brothers, and others, which greatly enhanced the enjoyment of the evening. The presents were beautiful and useful. Presentation speech by Mr. Taylor, and response by the groom, in a very happy and feeling manner, showing great appreciation of these tokens of respect and affection.

Revival Meetings.

The revival meetings at the Methodist church continue with increased interest and power. Evangelist Barker is evidently sent of God to do the special work he is now engaged in. His preaching is of rare attractiveness and power, and crowds flock each night to hear the word as he declares it. Up to the present time all indications point to the coming of a great revival in Broken Bow. Some have been converted and others are inquiring the way. Meetings are being conducted every evening, and also at three o'clock in the afternoon. Next Sunday afternoon a meeting will be held for men only. Rev. Barker will preach at this time and music will be furnished by the male quartette. All the men of the town are cordially invited to attend this meeting and bring a friend with them.
