A Most Liberal Offer.
All our former readers should take advantage of the unprecedented clubbing offer we this year make, which includes with this paper The Iowa Homestead, its special Farmers' Institute Edition and The Poultry Farmer. These three publications are the best of their class and should be in every farm house. To them we add, for local, county and general news, our own paper, and make the price of the four one year only $1.50. Never before was so much superior reading matter offered for so small an amount of money. The three papers named, which we club with our own, are well known throughout the west and commend themselves to the reader's favorable attention upon mere mention. The Iowa Homestead is the great agricultural and live stock paper of the west; The Poultry Farmer is the most practical poultry paper for the farmer, while The Special Farmers' Institute Edition are the most practical publications for the promotion of good farming ever published. Take advantage of this great offer, as it will hold good for a short time only. Samples of these papers may be examined by calling at this office. [SEAL.] Jan 10 01

All you need is to mail this Advt. to us, and on the day it reaches us, if your list is the best, you can leave the Gold Watch, or if second best, the beautiful Tea Set, and so on. We guarantee that we will award you a prize. There is absolutely no opportunity for deception on our part—we cannot afford it. As soon after 4 p. m. each day as possible, the examiners will judge the list, and we will write to you at once notifying you what prize has been awarded you, then if you are satisfied, you can send your subscription to The Woman's World, and your prize will go by return of mail carriage paid. To a person of narrow ideas it seems impossible that we could so easily make such a gigantic offer, but we have the money, brains and reputation, we know exactly what we are doing, and if we can legitimately gain a million subscribers by this grand idea, we know that this million of well pleased subscribers can be induced to recommend The Woman's World to all friends, thereby building up our circulation still further.
