

Custer County Republican.

VOL. XIX.

BROKEN BOW, CUSTER COUNTY, NEBRASKA, THURSDAY, APRIL 11, 1901.—EIGHT PAGES.

NO. 43.

You have an old clock on your shelf or stowed away in some dark garret, that perhaps hasn't ticked the time of day or night for many moons.

It may have good works that only need a little oil and brushing to make it just the thing for a kitchen clock.

Use the phone or drop a postal card and I will send for it.

If there is any life left in your old clock I will revive it and bring it home in good order, at trivial expense.

Local Mention.

J. S. Lyons of Merna, made this office a business call Tuesday.

Glen Johnson of Ansley, was a visitor Tuesday. He has rented his residence property to Ben Hutton.

B. Grover of Elton, was a friendly caller at this office Monday.

C. S. Osborne was called to Ravenna Saturday evening by the serious illness of his little girl, Berdie.

The A. O. U. W. of this city have arranged for a lodge entertainment and banquet on Tuesday night, April 23.

Miss Verda Thorpe is at home again, after completing a six months term of school last Friday week at the Oxford school house in Lillian township.

Dan Lewis will commence the erection of a dwelling house on his property on the west side of the creek in a few days. W. A. Thompson has the contract.

Ras Anderson has resigned his position as traveling salesman for Doering Co., and bought an interest in the Broken Bow Abstract Co. to which he will devote his time.

The REPUBLICAN is pained to have to announce that Robert Farley's wife of Milburn died last week. She was sick but a few days. The cause of her death was heart trouble. Her remains were laid to rest Sunday.

R. N. Norcutt is at New Helena building a barn for I. D. Bell.

N. B. Predmore of West Union, made this office a pleasant call Saturday.

Miss Cora Thompson and Mrs. Seavers, of the South Loup, were visiting friends in the city last Saturday.

Ed. Roysse, secretary of the State Banking board spent Friday and Saturday in the city, looking after his private business. He returned to Lincoln Saturday night.

A. F. Elliott, who for some time has been in the employ of the B. & M. R. R. at Bridgeport, Neb., writes us to change the address of his paper to Torrington, Wyoming. From this we infer that the company has moved him farther west.

The ladies of the Christian church received at their Easter Fair Market Saturday, $111.69. Sixty-three dollars and fifty cents of the amount was taken in for meals served at dinner and supper. They report their expenses light, so they will have a very nice margin clear.

G. T. and John Robinson, of Fleming Valley, were in the city with hogs Monday, for which they received $5.40 per hundred. With hogs at $5.40 and steers at $4.50 the occupation of the calamity bowler has ceased to be profitable and the wave of prosperity guaranteed in the event the republican party was returned to power is no more ridiculed by the populist press.

Rev. J. R. Wood of Mason City, was a friendly caller at this office Friday.

S. H. Reed of Merna, was a pleasant caller at these headquarters last Thursday.

Wilson & Drake has their new awning erected over the front of their store, which improves the appearance materially.

Miss Lena Caywood was given a reception at the home of Willis Cadwell last Friday night by her young associates, prior to her leaving for California.

MARRIED:—At the Presbyterian Manse, Broken Bow, January 25, 1901, by Rev. E. J. Statom, Mr. Samuel K. Davis of Tuckerville, Neb., and Miss Fanny Rue Hunt, of Georgetown, Neb.

E. H. Steward, formerly of this county, who moved back to Barnesville, Ohio, made this office a friendly call Monday. Mr. Steward arrived here Wednesday of last week, and will remain, possibly, a month visiting with former acquaintances and neighbors.

Mrs. A. T. Sims and daughter Bertha, of Berwyn, were social callers at this office Saturday. They report that the school entertainment given there Friday night, at the close of Miss Mary Geeseman's school, was quite a success. Mrs. Sims says that Miss Geeseman taught an excellent school, and that the patrons were highly pleased with her work.

No other article used in the domestic economy of the household has so many enthusiastic friends among the house-keepers of America.

No other article of food has received such emphatic commendation for purity and wholesomeness from the most eminent authorities.

The great popularity and general use of the Royal Baking Powder attest its superiority.

When you want good groceries you have to go to Bowen's.

L. W. Wilson returned from a trip to Omaha Friday evening.

Taylor Flick returned Tuesday evening from a ten days business trip to Hutchinson, Kansas. He says the farmers there have quit trying to raise spring wheat and are sowing winter wheat instead and are prospering. He thinks the farmers of Custer County would profit by following their example.

J. S. Baisch has rented his store building to Mike Scanlon of the north side who will move his restaurant in Baisch's building as soon as it can be remodelled, repaired and made ready for occupancy. We are informed that Mr. Baisch will engage in the saloon business in Madison. His family will remain in Broken Bow.

G. E. Cadwell, who left here a few months ago with a view of locating in California, made a trip west including California, Oregon and Washington, back to Utica, Ill., where we understand he has engaged in the fine stock business with his father. We will not be surprised to see Ed back to his Custer county ranch in a few years at most.

The second anniversary of chapter S. of the P. E. O. Sisterhood of this city was very fittingly celebrated on Friday evening, April 5th, at the home of Mrs. J. W. Salisbury. After indulging in a feast of good things the hostess, with her usual grace and dignity of manner, presided as toast mistress, and the following toasts were responded to: "Our Organization," Miss Alexander; "Points of the Star," Miss Beal; "Our Nephew," Mrs. Hunter; "The Absent Member," Mrs. Adamson; "Our Baby Sister," Mrs. Wilson. Most of them were written in poetry. All were bright and witty and were received with enthusiasm. Miss Hunter established a reputation as a poetess in delivering an original poetical personation of the Chapter, which was a unique combination of wit and wisdom and very clearly gotten up. After an hour or two of jolly, social fellowship the guests departed, taking with them memory of a very delightful evening.

G. W. Kiser was up from Grand Island last week. We understand that he is thinking of going into business at Merna.

Miss Lena Caywood left last Saturday morning over the B. & M. for San Diego, California, to visit the family of Rev. J. S. Hadden formerly of this city. She may conclude to remain indefinitely. Miss Caywood is one of the Broken Bow high school graduates, an earnest Christian worker in the church, Sunday school and B. Y. P. U. and she will be greatly missed by her many friends.

David Hall of Ansley, was arrested last week and brought before Judge Armour on the charge of perjury—a result of the saloon fight at the village election. From what we have been able to learn, it seems that Hall was challenged at the polls and swore in his vote. It is claimed by the prosecutors that he was not a legal voter in the village election. The case is set down for hearing May 1. He gave bond for his appearance and was released.

H. L. York of West Union, and Highland Brim of that vicinity, were interested parties in a law suit last Friday before Judge Armour, by a jury. The case was one in which H. L. York had filed complaint against Brim for shooting one of York's horses. The case was prosecuted by County Attorney Kirkpatrick and N. T. Gadd. The defense was represented by attorneys Scott and H. J. Shinn. The jury brought in a verdict of acquittal, which threw the cost of the suit on the county. But, as it was one of those misadventure cases that there is no appropriation to pay, the jury and witnesses have only their trouble for their pay. The horse in question had a wound on the hock joint, and Brim acknowledged shooting to scare away the horses from his hay stack, but the evidence did not establish that the wound on the horse was a bullet wound shot by Brim.

Mrs. E. H. Dalbey arrived in the city Saturday, from Iowa.

Will Roberts lost one of his fine mares last Saturday. He had refused $300, for the team.

Judge and Dorr Sullivan were called to their Iowa home Monday night, by the receipt of a telegram announcing the death of their father.

Broken Bow has been anything but "dry" this week. It commenced raining Monday afternoon and has rained every day since. At this time, 2 p. m. Thursday it is raining hard. We have not had so much moisture, at this season of the year for ten or fifteen years.

The Sequel of the Old Males convention given Tuesday night in the opera house, under the auspices of the Ladies Library Association was well attended notwithstanding the unfavorable weather. The entertainment was very much enjoyed by all present.

Carry Layton and wife returned Tuesday morning from Oklahoma where they have been several months, boring wells through rock such as have to be contended with in parts of Oklahoma was not as profitable business as Carry had anticipated.

E. H. Dalbey, the gentleman who recently established a cigar factory in this city has now five men and boys employed and expects soon to increase the number to ten. He is manufacturing fine cigars and there is no doubt but there will be a good demand for them as soon as they are introduced.

Mr. Olsen, who formerly lived two miles east of this city, arrived in the city Tuesday evening from Norway, where he went some two years ago with the intention of remaining. He was married while gone to a young woman. He expects to buy property and remain here in the future.

Another Nebraska Heroine.

Miss Lizzy E. Cottman of Harrison Nebr. last Monday rescued her pupils from being carried away by a flood at the risk of her own life. The White river had overflowed its banks and was carrying trees, bodies of dead animals and all the debris of a flood before it. The first intimation the teacher and pupils had that the water had surrounded the school house was by a move of the building. On opening the door the teacher saw the predicament they were in. While a large boy waded out to call the neighbors to help rescue the pupils Miss Cottman waded through the water waist deep to a horse that was lariat, that one of the children had come to school on. Rescuing the horse she took him to the building and fastened the rope to it and the other end to the saddle. She led the horse the length of the rope and for three quarters of an hour argued the horse to tug against the current, as she stood in water almost to armpits thus retaining the building in place with its precious prisoners until relief came to their rescue. Both the building and children were saved.

A Correction.

We noticed two typographical errors in the figures last week in our report on the city election.

J. A. Harris's majority in the second ward was 32 instead of 4 and Mrs. F. M. Rublee's total vote for member of the school board was 251 instead of 201.

Dead Letter List.

The following is the dead letter list, for the week ending April 9, 1901:

William B. Smith, Willard M. Gaines, Garrett Manners, Stephen A. Gilbert, Dorcas Jounsen, William Hill, Miss Daisy Ward.

Parties calling for the above, please say advertised.

L. H. JEWETT, P. M.
