

Anselmo.
(Too late for last week.)

H. K. Atkisson was a Broken Bow visitor Monday.

L. Wilson and F. Jaquot of Merna, were in town Tuesday.

Gracie Lewis and John Amick went to visit relatives at Red Cloud Sunday night.

High mass was celebrated in Moore's hall Sunday, by Father Flanagan. A large crowd was present.

Several business and residence buildings are being painted, which improves the appearance of the town very much.

Bianche Atkisson, Mr. Goar and Jessie Scott went up to the Scott ranch in Blaine county, Monday, returning Wednesday.

Quite a hail storm struck this vicinity Monday night, doing considerable damage in the way of breaking windows, beating down gardens etc.

Sunday evening a Children's Day program was given at the church. The church was nicely decorated and a very good program rendered. A large crowd was present, many not gaining entrance. Anselmo needs a larger church.

Three merry loads of Sunday school children went up to Hoosier valley Sunday morning to participate in the Children's Day exercises there. A good program was given, a bounteous basket dinner was spread and an altogether enjoyable day was spent. If you want a good sociable time go among the Hoosier valley people.

The ball game played here last Friday, by the Broken Bow and Anselmo teams, was a very close game, resulting in a tie until the end of the ninth inning. One more inning was played to decide the game, in which the Broken Bow team gained one score, consequently they went home feeling pretty good over the result of the game.

Ryno.

Ryno, June 26, 1901.

C. G. Empfield is building a frame granary, a wagon shed and a frame milk house.

Conley and Reeves have killed six or eight coyotes; shot several and dug some out.

Corn a fair stand, but cultivating delayed on account of rain. Some promising fields of wheat and millet, others destroyed by insects.

Weather hot, mercury up to 98; no rain since Saturday, when we had two showers in succession, nearly two inches fell in fifteen minutes.

Ortello News.

Messrs. Waddington and Whittle were Broken Bow visitors on Saturday.

Mac Johnson was over from Merna the first of the week looking after business.

Mr. J. B. Osbourn accompanied by Mr. Johnson, of Broken Bow, was on our streets one day last week.

Geo. Hughes, E. D. Beals and wife, J. M. Fodge and wife attended the M. W. A. memorial services at Merna on Sunday.

Mr. A. L. Deal, a former Ortelloite, but now of Lincoln, is shaking hands with old friends here this week. Alvia seems as jolly as ever.

The ground has dried out so that corn cultivating is now being pushed with vigor. Corn growing rapidly, will be as high as usual by the 4th, notwithstanding the cold backward weather.

The rye harvest promises to be a big one, and a large acreage is out. The wheat has made a wonderful growth in the past two weeks and if the "festive bug" will let it alone it will make the accustomed yield.

(Too late for last week.)

G. O. Joyner was in Broken Bow Monday.

S. Waddington shipped hogs this week.

Sam McGinnis shelled corn for Mr. Hill Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Embree made a business trip to Lincoln county last week.

F. L. Beals, Mrs. M. J. Beals and Miss Bridges spent last Sunday at Budd Dailey's.

Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Empfield returned to Ortello Sunday and were receiving congratulations.

Mrs. S. Waddington spent a few days last week at Hoosier, with her daughter, Mrs. Marion Cooper.

Five and a fourth inches of rainfall here last week. Some of the farmers are wishing "it wouldn't rain any more at present." Corn is very weedy and too wet to cultivate.

Rev. Bradley filled his appointment here Sunday evening, and preached a splendid sermon to the young people. Rev. Bradley's sermons are always interesting and instructive.

Mr. W. S. Weldon, cashier of the First National Bank of Winterset, Iowa, in a recent letter gives some experience with a carpenter in his employ, that will be of value to other mechanics. He says: "I had a carpenter working for me who was obliged to stop work for several days on account of being troubled with diarrhoea. I mentioned to him that I had been similarly troubled and that Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy had cured me. He bought a bottle of it from a druggist here and informed me that one dose cured him, and he is again at work." For sale by J. G. Haebler.

The Scenic Route to California.

Don't make a mistake and select any other route than the Burlington when you go to California at the time of the Epworth League meeting in July.

The Burlington with its connections from the Scenic Line of the world. It takes you through the very heart of the Rockies, past all the glorious mountain scenery of Colorado and Utah.

Come back by way of Portland, Seattle, Tacoma and Billings. Costs a few dollars extra—and it is worth it.

Beautifully illustrated folder giving full information about this, the greatest holiday opportunity ever offered, will be mailed on request. Tells what there is to see on the way to the coast, where to stay in San Francisco and the places in California which you cannot afford to miss. J. FRANCIS, General Passenger Agent, Omaha, Neb.

What's Not Going West this Summer?

Haven't you heard about the low rates to Colorado and Utah offered by the Burlington Route?

They are the lowest ever made—so low that it is almost cheaper to take advantage of them than it is to stay at home.

In effect all summer long—from the first of June until the middle of September.

See the local agent—or, if you prefer, write to J. Francis, General Passenger Agent, Omaha, Neb., enclosing with your letter six cents in stamps for "Colorado," a 72-page book, handsomely illustrated and full of interesting information about the cool resorts in the mountains.
