

Custer County Republican.

VOL. XX.

BROKEN BOW, CUSTER COUNTY, NEBRASKA, THURSDAY, JULY 11, 1901.—EIGHT PAGES.

NO. 4

Local Mention.

The county board convened in adjourned session Tuesday.

R. E. Brega, of Callaway, was a friendly caller at this office on Tuesday.

See W. D. Blackwell at Farmers Bank for Fire, Cyclone and Tornado insurance.

Wilmot Brandenburg and wife are the happy parents of a boy, who made his appearance at their home last Monday.

Mr. Edward Coffman of Theford, was in the city several days last week visiting with the family of his uncle J. A. Farrell.

Ramah Ryerson and Herbert Watis have bought out Al. Bockhacker's news stand. The Republican predicts success for the boys.

Editor Wisely, wife and two children, of Ansley, were city visitors Monday, returning Tuesday. Mr. Wisely attended the Editors' meeting Monday night.

Those who wish to take teachers to board during the institute which will begin July 22, so report to the county superintendent, giving the number that can be accommodated, prices, etc.

Rev. S. W. Richards left Monday night on a month's vacation, accompanied by his daughter, Lottie. Their objective point is Donaldson, Minnesota, where they will visit Rev. Richards' oldest sister.

Walter Smith's boy, of Georgetown, was thrown from a horse, the 4th, and sustained a fracture of one of his fore arms. Mr. Smith is a brother-in-law of John Cavenee, and recently came here from Guthrie, Iowa.

Col. V. C. Talbot and family came down from Halsey Wednesday of last week to spend the 4th. Monday morning the colonel started out on an inspecting tour of the several militia companies of the state. His first stop was at Aurora.

The 4th was quiet in Broken Bow. A number of the Sunday School children had a picnic in the Monk grove in the north part of town, but otherwise the day was more quiet than Sunday usually is. All the young people who were able to get away celebrated at some one of the towns in the county. Ansley drew the largest number as it was the more easily reached by the railroad. Fully 800 went to Ansley.

Sheriff Armstrong has a fine supply of what is supposed to be liquid goods, stored in his office at the court house. He seized sixteen boxes at the depot on Wednesday night before the 4th, on papers issued by Judge Armour, on application of County Attorney Kirkpatrick. The night agent, Lafayette M. Carstensen, was arrested for handling the goods unlawfully, as express agent. The preliminary trial of the case will be held before Judge Armour on the 17th.

Monday of last week, Rihon Ramsey, of Ansley, and a daughter of L. H. Parker made application to Judge Armour for a marriage license. As the girl stated that she was only sixteen years old the judge refused to issue the license without the written consent of the parents. They left with the supposed intention of securing the written consent of the parents, but to the present time they have not returned home. It is probable that they went further north with the hopes of finding a magistrate who is not so strict in his adherence to the law. We understand the parents claim the girl was not yet sixteen.

Rev. L. G. Brooker, a former Evangelical preacher, who worked in the southwest part of the county several years ago, committed suicide at Kearney, Wednesday morning of last week, by shooting himself. He had recently returned from Oklahoma, where he had been preaching. He was arrested by the sheriff of Hall county, on complaint of Miss Harriet G. Longmate, of Grand Island, who charges him with being the father of her illegitimate child. When the sheriff had made the arrest he left his prisoner with the view of getting some one to guard him, and Rev. Brooker improved the opportunity to end his own existence.

Samuel VanBuskirk, of Merna, was a city visitor Tuesday.

Those desiring a good business education, attend the Broken Bow Business college.

Judge G'Schwind John Johnson and Harry Day went to Grand Island to celebrate the 4th.

Those who attend the Broken Bow Business college next winter will certainly lose no time.

A. K. Humphrey and wife are visiting at Callaway this week, with the family of Chas. Humphrey.

H. L. Ormsby returned last night from his three weeks' vacation in the north. His aunt Mrs. Blodgett accompanied him home.

About three hundred of the citizens of Broken Bow went to Ansley to celebrate the 4th. The Broken Bow Band was among the number.

J. A. Kellenbarger and wife, of Merna, were city visitors Saturday. Mr. Kellenbarger attended the meeting of the Stock Growers' Association.

C. H. Jeffords and wife, Miss Anna Amsterny and ye scribe attended the old settlers meeting held in Lindley's grove near Anselmo yesterday.

U. L. Ward has leased the Grand Central barn formerly run by Brons Lee. Will Great has leased the Richardson barn which Ward vacated yesterday.

J. F. Bryson, of Upton, was a friendly caller at his office today. He reports the spring wheat in his vicinity will be very light from various causes.

M. M. Parkhurst, of Rose Valley, was a friendly caller Saturday. He reported the spring wheat practically destroyed in his vicinity by the chinch bugs.

William and Harry Kellenbarger of Dale, were in the city Saturday. They each filed on a quarter section of government land located in the Kellenbarger pasture.

J. M. Kimberling left last night for a two or three weeks visit with relatives in Iowa. He will visit at Des Moines, Marshalltown, Knoxville and Mto while gone.

F. E. VanAntwerp was a friendly caller at this office Monday. He came over to bring his son Allie back to the summer school, who went home to celebrate the 4th.

Tom Wright and A. H. Burks, publishers of the Chronicle and Citizen respectively, drove up from Ansley Monday afternoon to attend the Editorial Association.

G. B. Mair and Roy Barnard, publishers of the Callaway Courier, came over Monday to attend the meeting of the Custer county publishers held in this city Monday night.

Dr. W. E. and Mrs. Talbot are the proud parents of another boy who was born to them on the 8th inst. The Dr. kindly remembered the newspaper boys with Dalbey's best cigars.

A telephone is in successful operation from Atkinson's ranch, near Anselmo, to the Tierney ranch, a distance of twenty-four miles. The line includes the Kellenbarger and other ranches along the route.

E. H. Dalbey, promoter of the Broken Bow cigar factory, treated the members of the Custer County Editorial Association, Tuesday night, to a box of his best ten cent cigars, which was very highly appreciated by those who indulge in the weed.

G. N. Rawson will leave in the morning on an outing to the Black Hill country. Last year he spent his vacation in Chicago, but it is too hot there for comfort and he will try the mountains again for a change. He will visit Hot Springs Deadwood Spearfish and other points of interest. He expects to be gone about a month.

Legal rates will be the prices charged for all legal notices published in the Republican as well as all other newspapers in Custer county in the future. This is a class of advertising that has been done for one-fourth to half the legal rates in this county, while the publishers have been competing with each other for this class of printing and doing the work for less than they could afford. The officials and others who furnish this class of printing have invariably, as far as we have been able to learn demanded and received all the law allows them.

Old Settlers Meet.

The old settlers meeting of the northwest quarter held at Lindley's grove yesterday was largely attended and a pleasant time was enjoyed. The program was a good one and the music, speeches, papers and recitations were all good. The Lindly grove is one of the finest in the county and is an ideal place to be on a hot July day.

Resolutions were passed thanking J. M. Fodge, president, and G. O. Joyner, secretary, for the excellent program they provided. The officers elected for the ensuing year were C. H. Jeffords, president; J. M. Fodge, Jas. Lindley and Sam Luce, vice presidents; G. O. Joyner, secretary; Mrs. H. K. Atkinson, historian. For lack of time we are unable to give a personal mention of those who participated. The program as published, was in the main carried out with several additions. The Republican expects to publish one or more of the papers read, in the near future.

Wedding Bells.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Conrad, of this city, was the scene of a pretty wedding Wednesday evening, July 10, 1901, when their daughter, Miss Emma E. Conrad and Mr. Allen E. Faidley were joined in the holy bonds of wedlock, Rev Knight, of the M. E. church officiating.

The house was appropriately decorated with cut flowers, and a panel of lace and green foliage decorated the side of the room where the bridal party stood.

At precisely half past seven the party marched into the room to the strains of a wedding march played by Miss Mabel McMurphy and the young couple were pronounced man and wife in the presence of a large circle of friends and relatives. Miss Edith Armstrong acted as bridesmaid and Mr. Wilber Holcomb as best man. The beautiful Methodist Episcopal ceremony was used in which the bride and groom knelt during the last prayer, which made it very impressive.

After congratulations were offered an elaborate supper was served, the bride cutting her own cake.

The bride wore an elegant gown of white silk and carried a bouquet of bride's roses, and the groom wore the conventional black. The bridesmaid was dressed in white Paris lawn and the best man in a black suit.

The young people are well known in this vicinity and a host of friends join the Republican in wishing the young people a long life of joy and happiness.

Among the out-of-town guests present, was Miss Irene Faidley, of Denver, Colo., the sister of the groom.

The happy couple left on the 6:30 train Thursday morning for a few days' visit with relatives in the eastern part of the state, after which they will go to Denver, the beautiful Queen city of the west, to spend a fortnight of their honeymoon. They will be at home to their friends after August 1st.

Following is a list of the presents received:

Water set, linen table cloth, lace curtains and two handsome gold pieces, the brides parents; nut set consisting of cut glass nut bowl, solid silver nut picks and cracker, Miss Irene Faidley; moquette rug, Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Ormsby and Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Cox; water set, Mr. and Mrs. P. M. Towseley; linen towel, Mrs. Maupin; fancy cake tray, Ida Griswold and Eva Caywood; fancy perfume, John Marshall; stand cover, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Hutchinson; fancy match holder, Mrs. Eastham; silver berry spoon, butter knife, and sugar shell, Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Thompson; centre table cover, Mrs. Hall; glass dish, Clarence Towseley and Florence Burk; glass table set, Edith Armstrong and Wilbur Holcomb; silver butter knife and sugar shell, Roy

Thompson, Central City; pair vases Sarah Snyder; glass set, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Swan; towel and napkins, Mrs. Hagadorn; white center piece, Mrs. Hutchinson, and decorated table set, Mr. and Mrs. Willis Cadwell and others.

Church Services.

CHRISTIAN CHURCH.

The following is the Endeavor program, Sunday, July 14, 1901: Subject, "Individual Work for Christ," Acts 8, 26-40. Special talk by Prof. Gunn and Chas. Beal. Reference and short talks by members. Special music for the occasion E. E. Daggett, leader. Those that were absent last Sunday missed a treat. Brother, Jas. A. Whitehead gave a very interesting and instructive talk on Religion and Patriotism; also Prof. Gunn gave a short address which was very much appreciated. A good attendance is expected for Sunday, July 14. A cordial invitation is extended to all. Services promptly at 7 o'clock.

UNION SERVICES.

Union meetings will be held in the park at 7 o'clock Sunday evenings during the hot weather. There will be special sacred music—quartettes, solos, etc., and sacred music by the band. Rev. H. E. Myer will preach next Sunday evening. Other pastor's taking their turn later. The young people's societies can arrange to hold their meetings in their respective churches at 8 o'clock. Let everybody come to a cool, pleasant place to worship next Sunday night. Bring Pentecostal Hymns No. 2.

Lecture and Entertainment.

A lecture by Rev. E. M. Wheelock, of Austin, Texas, on "Trusts and Monopolies," will be delivered by J. C. L. Wisely, editor of the New Era, at the Broken Bow opera house, on Monday evening, July 22, 1901.

The question of Trusts and Monopolies is the all-absorbing question of the hour. It is of vital importance to you. Come out and get some new ideas on this subject. You cannot afford to miss this lecture, as it alone will be worth more than the small admission fee.

After the lecture Mr. Wisely will recite about twenty selected poems by the most celebrated authors. See the bills and you will find that a rare treat is in store for you if you come. Remember the date and come. You'll not regret it. Admission: Adults 25c; school children 15c. Seats on sale first of next week at Bowen's and Haerberle's.

Among the poems Editor Wisely will give after the lecture, Monday evening, July 22, will be Markham's celebrated "Man with the Hoe," which made its author famous. 11.

Letter List.

The following is the dead letter list for the week ending July 9, 1901:

Mr. Fred Cheney, Mr. Mat Durlin, Mrs. Anna Emerson, Mr. O. T. Lewis.

Parties calling for the above will please say advertised.

L. H. JEWETT, P. M.

The Broken Bow Equality Club will meet at Mrs. Chas. Jeffords, Friday, July 12, at 8 p. m. A full attendance is desired. MISS JULIA WILLIS, Sec'y.
