SUMMER SCHOOL NOTES.

The Literary society will give another program Friday at 2 p. m. All are invited.

Teachers are beginning to make final preparations for examinations.

Miss Pearl Cosner of Meria was a visitor Wednesday.

Remember the lecture Friday evening at M. E. church by Rev. E. A. Knight. Every body invited to attend.

The literary society gave a good program on Tuesday afternoon, July 2. A number of visitors were present.

Rev. Myers was a visitor last Tuesday. He conducted devotional exercises and made an interesting and helpful talk.

Students are still coming in from different parts of the county. The enrollment has reached 100.

Our janitor, Mr. Bailey, contacted the high temperature of our rooms Wednesday morning by giving the halls a gentle wetting.

The school was favored by a lecture on the blood by Dr. C. L. Mullins Tuesday morning. He also gave some practical suggestions on other subjects.

Atorney J. E. Dean's address to the teachers yesterday morning was one of those talks that places in the heart a desire to be the most that their faculties will permit them to be.

Reading is receiving a new inspiration in the hands of Prof. A. P. Vanier. Reading should receive the attention of all. It is one of the neglected studies in our public schools.

Debate for Friday p. m. is, resolved that England is waging a just war in South Africa. As this is a question of vital import to England, much depends upon the debate.

The 4th of July broke into the work somewhat last week. School was held on Saturday to make up for it. A number of the students celebrated at Anselmy and as a consequence some were present in body only on Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Taylor visited during chapel exercises Wednesday morning. Mr. Taylor rendered a cornet solo that carried the minds of the students away from their hard problems for a time.

The next lecture under the auspices of the summer school will be given in the M. E. church on Friday evening, July 10th by Rev. E. A. Knight.

The lecture delivered by Rev. Doggett on the evening of June 25 was very instructive and much appreciated by the students. The subject was "The world of books and how to get the most out of them."

Repulsed, But Not Discouraged.

The ball game between Anselmy and Broken Bow Tuesday, resulted in a victory for the visitors. The home club was at a disadvantage at the start from the fact three new players had to be broken in. Will John one of their best players, was at Seward on a visit and his place could not be filled. Up to the 7th inning the game was decidedly one-sided. The score stood 1 to 9 in favor of Anselmy. A better game was played from that on and at the close of the last inning the score stood 8 to 12 for Anselmy.

The boys felt their defeat keenly as it was their first this season, but they are not discouraged. They feel that when they are able to get the original nine together they will be able to cope with all comers.

Broken Bow and Brewster will play in this city tomorrow.

Burn the Bugs.

At a meeting of the Business Men's Association here today, a resolution was adopted recommending that farmers burn their fields of grain, lot worth cutting to drive out the chinch bugs, and that they should plow ditches around their corn fields and drag some heavy object along said ditch twice a day, morning and evening, to protect their corn. A further resolution was adopted appointing F. M. Rublee a committee to have Prof. Bruner come here and experiment by inoculating the bugs. P. F. Campbell, of Georgetown, was present at the meeting and made some valuable suggestions and gave the resolutions a hearty support.

Stock Growers Meet.

The annual meeting of the Stock Growers' Association, of Custer and adjoining counties, was held in this city Saturday afternoon in the court house. There was a good attendance and a lively interest manifested. The minutes of the association and executive committee since the organization were read by Secretary Reneau, in order that the new members might know more of the work of the association.

The election of officers resulted in the re-election of W. A. George, president; L. H. Jewett, vice-president; S. K. Warrick, treasurer, and I. A. Reneau, secretary; the following persons were elected to the executive committee: L. H. Jewett, H. B. Andrews, F. M. Currie, J. A. Keilenberger and Mr. Black, of Thedford.

The report of the treasurer showed a balance of $125. The expense of the association, the past year including the capture of three cattle thieves was only $119.15. Speeches were made by several present. L. H. Jewett was called upon to report the work of the executive committee since the organization of the association. He told of the reported cattle stolen from F. M. Currie last winter and of the steps taken by the committee to have the guilty parties apprehended by sending the sheriff and county attorney to Taylor county where the alleged stealing had been committed. He stated that an investigation proved the sixty-five head of cattle had not been stolen but possibly some of them were. The sheriff found where one of the cattle had been killed for beef, the beef was located and three suspected parties arrested and brought to Broken Bow where a confession from the parties was secured. They were tried in Blain county and convicted and sentence suspended on good behavior in the future. He told of the conviction of Ed Hoagland who implicated others with cattle stealing, but that the parties were not prosecuted because of the unreliability of the evidence that could be secured. Mr. Jewett said the work of the organization had a salutary effect on cattle stealing and that the organization should be increased in numbers and enthusiastically supported.

S. J. Lonergan, formerly a large cattle owner in Colorado, was called out to give his opinion on the benefits of such an organization. Mr. Lonergan stated that prior to the cattlemen organizing for protection in the west that a great many cattle were stolen and that seldom the criminals were caught. The organization by the concert

A WORTHY SUCCESSOR.

"Something New Under The Sun."

All Doctors have tried to cure CATARRH by the use of powders, acid gases, inhalers and drugs in paste form. Their powders dry up the mucous membranes causing them to crack open and bleed. The powerful acids used in the inhalers have entirely eaten away the same membranes that their makers have aimed to cure, while pastes and ointments cannot reach the disease. An old and experienced practitioner who has for many years made a close study and specialty of the treatment of CATARRH, has at last perfected a treatment which when faithfully used not only relieves at once, but permanently cures CATARRH, by removing the cause, stopping the discharges, and curing all inflammation. It is the only remedy known to science that actually reaches the afflicted parts. "SNUFFLES" the GUARANTEED CATARRH CURE" is sold at the extremely low price of One Dollar, each package containing internal and external medicine sufficient for a full month's treatment and everything necessary to its perfect use. action on the part of its members and vigorous prosecution stopped the stealing. Another advantage as the result of organization was in shipping rates. Shipping rates were so high that as many as 35,000 cattle were driven out of the country in one season to market. The organization enabled the stockmen to pool their shipments and saved $50 a car over previous rates and shipped 300,000 head. He thought by pooling their shipments they could employ an inspector to pool their shipments and saved $50 a car over previous rates and shipped 300,000 head. He thought by pooling their shipments they could employ an inspector to pool their shipments and saved $50 a car over previous rates and shipped 300,000 head.

Judge Sullivan said they have a very close organization in the western half of the state, and that cattle trailers were driven out which made it more of a necessity for an association for self protection in central Nebraska. He thought a brand book should be had in which all the brands of the members of the association were given, so as to assist in finding strays. He also favored the members pooling in purchasing bulls with a view of making a saving.

J. A. Keilenberger, of Merna, thought one of the principal benefits to be derived from the organization would be in finding strays.

S. K. Warrick stated a case in which the efficiency of the stock inspector at South Omaha was tested. He said that J. D. Haskell had a steer stray from his herd and found it with the cattle of a near neighbor. He left the animal there and had the neighbor ship it with his own cattle. The inspector discovered Haskell's brand and had the price of the steer with-held and sent to him. Mr. Warrick read a clipping from the Drovers' Journal, at South Omaha, which we here append, showing the successful operations of the inspectors and the number of stolen and strayed cattle were caught up on the Omaha markets and the money for them returned to the rightful owner.

ESTRAY CATTLE RECOVERED.

(South Omaha Drovers' Journal)

April 13, 1901.

Chief Brand Inspector, Claude L.

Talbot, returned yesterday from Rapid City, where he attended the annual meeting of the Western South Dakota Stock Grower's Association. Both the South Dakota and Nebraska associations have arrangements with the Wyoming association whereby the Wyoming inspectors look after the South Dakota and Nebraska cattle as well as their own. Every hoof of cattle coming into the South Omaha yard, whether as grassers or as finished corfed beeves passes under the scrutiny of the inspectors and shippers are held to a rigid account. It is practically impossible for a shipper to get paid for branded cattle he does not own, and it is this splendidly organized system of brand inspection that has done more to make cattle rustling on the ranges both dangerous and unprofitable than any other single agency.

During the year ending March 31, the inspectors' books that 12,018 carloads, 318,919 head of cattle from the states of Nebraska, Wyoming, South Dakota, Colorado and Montana were examined for brands. They were divided as follows:

STATES.	CARS.	HEAD.
Nebraska	3,909	107,068
Wyoming	2,826	74,602
So. Dakota	2,710	62,294
Colorado	1,780	48,000
Montana	800	20,000
Total	12,015	318,919

Of this number inspector Talbot and his assistants recovered 4,564 strays to the value of $153,808.03. Included in these strays were 59 calves, 163 bulls, 2,963 steers and 1,349 cows. The average amount received for each animal recovered is shown in the following table:

States	No. Strays	Amount.	Avg.
Nebraska	519	$19,250.03	$37.09
Wyoming	1,864	66,915.16	35.83
So. Dakota	2,136	74,640.85	34.17
Keys Pahaska	40	1,483.69	37.09
In Dispute	15	518.28	34.55
Total	4,564	$159,808.03	$35.00

Heartburn.

When the quantity of food taken is too large or the quality too rich, heartburn is likely to follow, and especially so if the digestion has been weakened by constipation. Eat slowly and not too freely of easily digested food. Masticate the food thoroughly. Let six hours elapse between meals and when you feel a fullness and weight in the region of the stomach after eating, indicate that you have eaten too much, take one of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets and the heartburn may be avoided. PURE extracts at J. C. Bowen's.

It isn't the material that goes into your repaired watch that results in a perfect job, it is the know how that does the business, any bungler can buy the fine kinds of material that I use in repairing; but skill is the most valuable material that can be used in watch repairing; and the bungler can't buy it. I sell my skill for what it is worth and it will cost you less than bungling at lower prices.
