

POPULIST CONVENTION.

The populist county convention met in the opera house Monday, July 22, and was called to order by J. R. Dean, chairman of the county central committee.

Secretary Hakes read the call W. J. Taylor was elected temporary chairman and E. R. Purcell, secretary.

On taking the chair, Taylor made a speech and expressed how exceedingly anxious he was that the populist party would win this fall and urged harmony.

The chair was authorized to appoint the usual committees. While this was being done Judge Sullivan was called out to entertain the audience which he proceeded to do in usual way.

The votes against Armstrong and for House were from: Ansley 10, Arnold 3, Berwyn 7, Broken Bow 1, Cliff 4, Delight 1, Elk Creek 5, Myrtle 1, Sargent 8, Westerville 8.

Had the Judge remembered the old adage against the man throwing stones, who lives in glass houses, he would not have referred to Deavers appointment to office, by the republicans so soon after leaving the fusionists.

On motion of Shinn the rules were suspended and M. E. Schnoring nominated for the office of treasurer by acclamation the vote prevailed but several nays were recorded. The same motion was made for the nomination of Armstrong, but several protested and the regular order was followed. On the informal ballot, Armstrong received 164 votes and L. House, 48 and Ira Foster 15.

The votes against Armstrong and for House were from: Ansley 10, Arnold 3, Berwyn 7, Broken Bow 1, Cliff 4, Delight 1, Elk Creek 5, Myrtle 1, Sargent 8, Westerville 8.

For Ira Foster. Hays 2, Victoria 13. Armstrong was declared the nominee by acclamation with several nays recorded.

The informal ballot on recorder brought out the names of C. H. Jeffords, A. F. Norton, Jason Evans, Clyde Carlos, Jas. Leonard, Dick Miller, C. G. Empheld, V. J. Steady, Jas. Forsyth, Mr. Manley, J. C. Hutt, Scott Cooper and John Haney. The second ballot resulted in 66 for Evans, 22 for Empheld, 19 for Norton, 19 for Miller, 18 for Forsyth, 21 for Leonard, 14 for Carlos, 10 for Jeffords. On the third ballot Evans received 149, Empheld 30, and Leonard 21 and Evans was declared the nominee.

For county superintendent, the names of Tooley, Adamson, Gunn and Murry were brought out on the informal ballot. The vote was Tooley 70, Murray 73, Adamson 48, and Gunn 25.

Murray was nominated on the fourth ballot by a vote of 182 to 36 for Tooley.

For the office of county judge were, J. R. Dean, A. C. Towle, Jesse Gaudy, C. R. Mathews, H. J. Shinn, R. E. Brega, E. Taylor and Mr. Pinkley, who were brought out on the first ballot. The vote on the informal stood, Dean 107, Towle 55, Gaudy 21, Mathews 11, Pinkley 10, Taylor 5, Brega 5, Shinn 4 Messrs. Shinn, Mathews and Brega declined to be candidates.

Just before the first informal vote Fred Cummings, of West Union, stated he had a "roar" to offer and he demanded as a personal right to make it before any further nominations were made. He proceeded to state that he would not support Dean, if nominated and gave as his reason, that during Dean's four years as county attorney, drug store saloons, at Sargent and West Union were run right along and gambling in connection and that in all that time Dean did nothing to prevent it. He further stated that, one boy who was only fourteen years old then, formed the habit of drink under Dean's administration, was laying at his door step the night before he had intoxicated had over him from snubbing at the saloon drug stores that were allowed to operate through Dean's failure to enforce the law against them.

Judge Sullivan followed Mr. Cummings and stated that while Dean possibly was negligent in that line of his duties as county attorney he believed he was better qualified to fill the office of county judge than either of the other candidates and as very deep and intricate questions of law often were brought before the county judge it was very important that the judge should be a lawyer.

Jesse Gaudy, became nettled at Sullivan's advocacy of Dean and made a warm speech in favor of his own candidacy. Among other things he stated that he held certificate signed by Judge Sullivan, M. McShand, Harry O'Neal and others the examining committee who admitted him to the bar, stating that he was thoroughly conversant with common law. He argued that was a sufficient evidence of his qualifitions for the position to which he aspired.

Dean was given an opportunity to answer the charge of Cummings. He stated he did not remember of anyone complaining to him, as Cummings had stated against the drug stores in question. Ben Miller stated that just such little speeches as Dean had just made elected Judge Armour four years ago. The second ballot Dean received 124, Towle, 44; Gandy, 8; Ream, 13; Miller, 20; Taylor, 3; Brega, L. Dean was declared the nominee.

For the office of county clerk, on the informal ballot the vote stood J. B. Osbourn, 146; Hakes, 24; Scott Cooper, 18; Florin Jacobs, 20; J. D. Ream, 5; and Guy Livermore, 5. The informal vote was made formal and Osbourn declared the choice of the convention.

For surveyor, Lamb, Gandy and Koon were the leading candidates. Lamb received 159 votes; Gandy, 47, and Koon, 9. Lamb was declared the nominee.

For coroner, Hakes, Mullins, Corrothers, Gandy, Whalley, Glassey, Dr. Pennington, Dr. Day, and Dr. Downing were remembered with complimentary votes on the informal ballot. Dr. Hakes declined for himself and Dr. Mullins. The charge of horse play was made by someone for voting for republicans and democrats for coroner. Judge Shinn denied the charge that Dr. Day was a democrat, and that he was not only a populist but wanted the nomination. On motion of Shinn, Dr. Day was declared the nominee for coroner by acclamation.

CONTINUOUS ADVERTISING.

Why a Successful Merchant Keeps Everlastingly at It.

One of Boston's big department stores recently published the following in the midst of its large display ads, in the Sunday local papers:

"Many customers have said to us: 'Why do you advertise continuously? We always come to your shop when we want to buy goods.' We believe that is true of thousands of our patrons, particularly the large number who have charge accounts, but we wish to increase this large list, and our announcement of new articles and fabrics opening frequently are intended as a source of information from time to time of what is particularly new and desirable, as well as what is exceedingly reasonable in price.

Many hats have to be disposed of at a great loss on account of excessive stock, injudicious buying or change of fashion. At such times the prices quoted are so very low that we want the information of these opportunities known far and near, both to our regular customers and the great public.

"So, if you read our advertisements in the light of valuable information about our store you can send messengers or come yourself, confident such may be relied upon, and if you are made a satisfied customer we have accomplished our purpose, for a satisfied customer is the best advertisement known."

"Something New Under The Sun."

All Doctors have tried to cure CATARRH by the use of powders, acid gases; inhalers and drugs in paste form. Their powders dry up the mucous membranes causing them to crack open and bleed. The powerful acids used in the inhalers have entirely eaten away the same membranes that their makers have aimed to cure, while pastes and ointments cannot reach the disease. An old and experienced practitioner who has for many years taken a close study and specialty of the treatment of CATARRH, has at last perfected a treatment which when faithfully used not only relieves at once, but permanently cures CATARRH, by removing the cause, stopping the discharge, and curing all inflammation. It is the only remedy known to science that actually reaches the affected parts. In other words, this business concern keeps continually before the public because it has something to say in a business news way every day in the year.

The amount of capital invested in these great shopping emporiums is large, but it is an absolute necessity that the goods purchased be turned over as quickly and as often as possible. It has been demonstrated that periodical advertising will not do.

It is all very well to talk about regular customers who would visit the store whether the concern advertised or not, but how long, think you, would they continue in the role of regular customers?

It is safe to say ninety-nine of every hundred shoppers gain their information about a merchant's wares from the newspapers. The enterprising and successful shopkeeper is perfectly well aware of this fact, and he would as soon think of trying to do business on the "once in awhile" advertising plan as he would of attempting to make a success by opening his shop whenever he happened to feel in the mood to transact business.—Fourth Estate.

During last May an infant child of our neighbor was suffering from cholera infantum. The doctors had given up all hopes of recovery. I took a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy to the house, telling them I felt sure it would do good if used according to directions. In two days time the child had fully recovered. The child is now vigorous and healthy. I have recommended this remedy frequently and have never known it to fail. Mrs. Curtis Baker, Bookkeeper, Ohio.
