d egation by townships:

It is recommended that the township primaries be held on Friday or Saturday, August 2nd or 3rd, 1901. It is also recommended that no proxies be allowed, but that the sickness. delegates present cast the full vote to which the township is entitled.

It is also recommended that the various townships comprising the supervisors district, in which as election is to be held this year elect delegates to the supervisor's convention, to be called later.

It is also recommended that the township committeeman be elected to hold his office until the close of the general election in 1902, and and that term of each future committeeman commence immediately after the general election.

ALPHA MORGAN, D. M. AMSBPRRY, Chairman. Secretary.

In order to save expense we would suggest to the populists the next time they authorize the court house contingent to name their ticket without the formality of a convention.

There is nothing like a fellow that can carry water on both shoulders, unless it is the fellow who can work the divisionists and anti-divisionist and draw pay from both committees and get a fat job thrown in from the fellow he works last.

Jud Kay is being talked of as candidate for recorder of deeds on the republican ticket. 'Mr. Kay is one of Custer countie's successful farmers, a man of good education, a good citizen and should he the be choice of the convention is worthy of the hearty support of every loyal republican.

The members of the ring will eav that their convention was the most harmonious and enthusiastic ever held, but they will say nothing about the sore spots from every locality and the number of delegates who went home with the avowed intention of doing all in their power to prevent the election of several of the candidates.

that there are hable to be a number under a republican administration. of candidates before the republican We would further suggest that convention. The party in Guster Custer county has several marriagcounty desires only men for office able young men who have been adwho are worthy and well qualified vertisizing for life partners. The best are wanted.

Jason Evans, the pop nominee for recorder was compelled by the convention to deay that he had promised the deputyship to six persons already and he further pledged himself not to make A. B. Hartley his deputy, the man to whom he owes most for his nomination. No reference was made to the pledge be had made to Glassey, who it is currently reported has rented his farm, subject to Evans election.

Qualification is not a prerequisite for office in the populist party, as was plainly demonstrated in the selection of their candidate for recorder, V. J. Stedry, C. G. Empfield, Jas. Leonard, Clyde Carlos, Abe Norton, J. R. Forseyth and C. H. Jellords, sither whom were minently qualified for the position had no more show than a rabbit. Their names were not on the slate. But they say Jason can get a deputy than can do the work.

The populist county convention followed the example of the demo- strong protest by Fred Cummtags, cratic convention of Ohio by ignoring the "peerless leader" and his of either in their resolutions. Jesse Gandy has come to the parting to ways with the populists threatens land influence to the democratic party in the future. Jesse has determined on stumping the county with the view of showing up the machine methods of the leaders of the pop party. His subjects will be: Judge Sullivan the political Czar, Third Term, as inconsistant with popism. Courts being lowered to the level with ward politicians Populists who ride on railroad passes, who pose as reformers. The practice of insulting respectably citizens in populist conventions such as A. C. Towle, to grin a political victory over them.

The populist convention could not have done the republican party a greater favor from a political standpoint than they did when they turned down J. J. Tooley, J. E. Adamson and Geo. D. Gunn, for county superintendent. They are men of experience and mature judgment and either would have commanded the respect and votes of their party. Mr. Tooley was especially strong and would have received a large yote from republican and democrats. Instead of selecting one of the men who are eminent educators they nominated a single young man, who himself says has been a resident of Custer county twenty three years," and is not known outside of his immediate neighborhood, except by the teach ers in the summer school two years ago, which did not increase his popularity.

> The Republican's political prognoglications two weeks ago, of what would be done at the county convention were verified Monday, except in our predictions of J. J. Tooley's nomination. We thought his popularity was so great that the power of the ring would not be sufficient to defeat him, but in that we were mistaken. The pledge Schneringer could not be spared.
