

The reason American glass is displacing the European product is too transparent for comment.

The "barbaric proof" safe that was robbed of $30,000 is first cousin to the "fire-proof" building that burns.

That mother who punished her boy by making him wear his Sunday clothes ought to be arrested for imposing cruel and unusual punishment.

Those Gould children who tried to run away from home and millions have furnished another proof of the fact that few people know a good thing when they have it.

American roads must improve greatly before this country can hope to match French feats with horseless vehicles. Some day we shall have highways such as are enjoyed in Europe.

The public appetite for great universities has led too many institutions which have an honorable and useful work to do by being frankly small colleges to deck themselves out with cheap pretense of laboratory practice, advanced courses and scholarly research which are of no serious advantage to the real advanced scholar.

A marriage like this Herron-Rand affair, exploited as this has been through the newspapers, is, for one thing, calculated to cause a boom in the bogus marriage market.

The Review of Melbourne, Australia, suggests that as the fire companies take measures to minimize their risks by preventing fires or extinguishing them quickly, so the life companies should take measures to minimize their losses by promoting the health and prolonging the lives of their policy holders.

Not long ago, according to the Fargo Call, the wife of a North Dakota farmer gave a dinner to the wives of fifteen other farmers living in the neighborhood.

At 5 years of age boys are mainly taller than girls, but the girls appear to equal them at the seventh year, and continue thus up to and including the ninth year, after which the boys rise again above the girls for two years.

The origin of the tiger as an emblem of Tammany is said by W. C. Montayne, a coffee and spice dealer in New York, to date from the time when William M. Tweed, then foreman of "Big Six" fire company, took a fancy to a picture of a royal Bengal tiger in the store of Montayne's father in the 50's.

In Cleveland a well known woman, intelligent and rich, has divorced her husband and married her coachman.

The average Chinaman possesses a remarkable memory. He will learn to make himself understood in almost any foreign language in less than half the time it requires an intelligent Englishman or American to make himself understood in any of the many Chinese dialects.

drunken nor cruel, who in return for her kindness is willing to do the best he can to make her life agreeable.

The present very general discussion of the modern girl and her prospects in life takes on a new and interesting turn in the argument now advanced by some ladies that a girl who takes a husband accepts a serious handicap in the effort to achieve her ambitions.

Curious Origin of a Phrase Used All Over the Civilized World.

Every one has heard and most people have used the phrase "he has a skeleton in his closet."

She was the wife of a nobleman who lived in his castle in the south of France. She and her husband were outwardly on the most loving terms.

"Know, my friend," she said, "no one is happy. Every day I am forced by my husband to kiss this grinning death head, which is that of a gentleman who was my husband's rival and whom I would have married had not my parents willed otherwise."

The most costly state funeral which has ever taken place was perhaps that of Alexander the Great.

A woman never knows how old she is getting until she goes to a milliner's and tries on hats.

SMALL BOY AND THE HORSE.

acts that Stamp the Human with the Badge of Nobility. What nuisances these small boys are sometimes. The streets are full of them. They play tricks upon us. They mob our tall hats. They steal up behind us and placard our backs with "I am blind," or "Wanted to buy 100 rats."

For our part, we like small boys. We can get along with their pranks. We can endure the noise they make, muddying footprints on the carpet, pillow fights in the morning when we would like to sleep, the new suits all bedraggled and muddied with holes in the knee, the stubbed toe that must be washed and done up, bedlam in the house in general.

Would we trust that boy? Surely we would with uncounted money. His frank, honest face, his eyes speaking sympathy and kindness, intelligence and pent-up fun and life, were an index of his character and natural bent that were unmistakable.

Earthquakes have their pitch, and if persons living in lands of seismic disturbances will build their houses out of tune with mother earth's shivers they will be comparatively safe.

THE RHYTHM OF EARTHQUAKES.

By means of his "horizontal pendulums," as he calls them, he has ascertained the pitch of earthquakes, and so advises that buildings be out of tune with them to insure protection.

Mr. Milne has made yet another discovery, and says he has demonstrated that the interior of the earth is neither hollow nor liquid, but is marvelously rigid, even more rigid than cast steel or the finest glass.

As he says, vibrations do not travel rapidly through gases or fluids, and very much more rapidly through dense materials. They travel through glass as quickly as through any substance scientists know of, but through the earth's interior they travel two and one-half times as fast as through glass.

The Toad in the Rock.

Of late days I have noted, says a recent writer, a considerable number of reputed cases of the occurrence of live frogs and toads in what were alleged to be solid rocks.
