A convention of the republican leagues is to be held in Lincoln August 27

W. A. George, the republican candidate for county treasurer, was a city visitor Monday.

The republican ticket is meeting with favorable comment by the voters of Custer county.

Hall county has voted $100,000 bond for a new court house. The court house is badly needed.

Gov. Savage has issued a proclamation calling upon all citizens to observe Monday, September 2nd, as labor day.

The Republican has no desire or inclination to make a personal campaign against the populist nominees for the county offices, nor is it necessary. We will feel absolutely secure when we have fully informed the voters of Custer county of the good qualities of the republican candidates and instructed the people on the principle that actuates and maintains the party and promotes the prosperity of the country.

The name Sullivan is to the Beacon as a red flag is to a mad bull. While H. M. Sullivan was a republican, the Beacon let no opportunity pass to roast him. Since the Judge has become a pop and holds the best office in the district the Beacon looks down its nose and says nothing. But now the Beacon's opportunity has come. The Judge has a brother that is a republican and his name is R. D. He has been nominated by the republican party for sheriff, and he can expect to have to bear the brunt of the Beacon's editorials through this campaign as the name Sullivan to the Beacon is as bitter as gall. Last week was roast No. 1.

"There is a strong sentiment against third terms. It is an intelligent sentiment and is strong enough to defeat any candidate that shocks the sensibilities of the people by attempting to be elected to an office the third time." - Beacon.

Are we to infer from the above that the Beacon is not supporting J. R. Dean, the pop nominee for judge. He is the only man on the pop ticket that has held two terms of office in the county that now seeks a third term. It has not been many years since the Beacon supported H. H. Hiatt, with all the vigor at its command, for a third term, and he was elected solely upon the Beacon's support. But whether the Beacon intends to support Mr. Dean for a third term or not, the above quotation was not intended for Mr. Dean. We infer it was intended for Judge Armour, the people's choice for county judge and who was unanimously endorsed by the republican county convention. Had the republican convention believed that Judge Armour was not the choice of the majority of the people for that position he would not have been chosen. The republicans of Custer county seek to serve the best interests of the public in all of its transactions. When they have a man eminently qualified for a position and his nomination is demanded by the public, they do not allow a few ring leaders of the party, dictate to the contrary, as was done in the nomination of the populist ticket. The republican party is the author of civil service reform and instead of turning down one for performing his duties faithfully and honorably they practice the opposite. No merchant, farmer or banker, turns off their trusted employes simply because they have been loyal and faithful one, two or ten years, for a new and untried man in his place. Judge Armour has been faithful and true to the trust confided to him and for that reason his re-nomination was demanded by republicans, populists and democrats and they will see to it that he is re-elected with an increased majority. But the pop nominee for judge has no grounds to crow over Judge Armour on the third term twaddle. Both have served the county two terms.

The opposition papers hope to prejudice the voters of Custer county against the republican nominee, J. G. Lewis, for county superintendent, by insinuating that he is a "non-resident." The grounds for the insinuation is that while he attended college at Grand Island for four years, and last year when he taught at Miller, he was not residing in Custer county. Neither was Congressman Neville in North Platte while he was residing in Washington, nor was Church Howe residing in Nebraska the four years he has been counsel at Sheffield, England, but their citizenship remained where they formerly resided. Every year, with one exception, Mr. Lewis has voted in Broken Bow and his vacations have been spent in Custer county, either teaching or other work. He has always regarded Custer county his home, since he, with his parents, located on their homestead in this township twenty years ago. If he was a resident of Custer county when he came home to vote, he certainly is eligible to hold office. But should he have lost his residence by his forced temporary absence, as is claimed by the opposition, he has been a resident of the county long enough since he came to Broken Bow the 1st of June, to have regained it. The law only requires 40 days residence in the county to establish a residence. More than that time had elapsed since he came back to Custer county after he closed his school at Miller. Again, the law provides that the intention of the party determines his eligibility. As he had not been absent from choice, but for the sole purpose of gaining a collegiate education and afterwards teaching where he could get a position, it cannot be claimed he had lost his residence unless he had so elected. This he did not do. His competitor not only attended school outside of the county, but also taught outside of the county as has Mr. Lewis. Mr. Murray may or may not have taxable property in the county. But that does not better qualify him for the position of county superintendent. No doubt there are hundreds of men in Custer county who have more taxable property than Mr. Murray, yet are not qualified for the office of county superintendent. What we claim for Mr. Lewis is that he is eminently qualified for the office for which he has been nominated. That his qualifications have been tested for the past three years as instructor in Custer county's summer schools or institutes. That he is a young man deserving of recognition because of his noble character and splendid ability. That he is a resident of the county and had been forty days prior to the date he was nominated and that he is eligible to fill the office for which he has been nominated. With these qualifications in his favor no intelligent voter will be influenced to vote against him on the groundless insinuations of the opposition.

Let us see. "Let us see. They have pardoned Bartley and Bolin. They have burned up the penitentiary and let several convicts escape." - Beacon.

The above would sound very well if true. "Let us see" how much truth is in the statement when applied to the republican administration. Bartly has not been pardoned and the chances at the present is he never will be. He was paroled for sixty days by Gov. Savage, on certain representations of which the public will know in detail soon. The terms of the parole are such that will when made public meet the approval of every fair minded man in Nebraska regardless of his politics unless his political prejudice over balances his judgment. If those conditions are not complied with, least in part, Gov. Savage is the man who will see that Mr. Bartley is remanded back to the pen on the expiration of his parole to remain their, while he occupies the executive chair.

The charge "they have burned up the penitentiary" is too silly to require notice. Everyone knows that there could be no reason from a political or financial stand point that such a conclusion could be held. Further the author of the above squib knows, as does every other one who reads the newspapers that the burning of the penitentiary was accidentally caused from a defective wire constructed and used by the fusion administration. The Beacon from the same hypothesis would say that J. B. Osborn, the populist county clerk burned Ike Rencan's house on the reservoir hill last winter. Does the Beacon so charge the county clerk, when it caught from a delective flue. "And let several convicts escape." From this we are led to infer that republican guards at the penitentiary have been careless and failed to perform their duty.

The facts are that the guards from whom the convicts escaped were "hold over" fusionists, who had not been discharged by the republican administration. These escapes were employed in the bakery department of the penitentiary, and were under Tom Slattery, the guard on duty at the time of their escape. This man Slattery was a hold over pop. He had strict orders not to give them any opportunity to escape. While he was eating his meals he was instructed to have those under his charge sit on the opposite side of the table that he might continually have them under his eye while they were on duty. Yet he let them escape. This being true, pops, who are responsible for Slattery's appointment to the position of guard are guilty, and not the republicans. Their escape may have been an accident or it may have been intentional, but in either case the republican party is not the guilty one. We are inclined to the charitable view and do not charge Mr. Slattery with a premeditated crime. Yet if a crime was committed the fusion party and not the republican party is guilty. As for Bolin, the Omaha city treas-
