

The Ansley Citizen.

From present indications it looks very much like the republicans will make a clean sweep this fall.

According to the statement made by treasurer Schneringer, the republicans had paid every cent of county indebtedness and paid every dollar of the running expenses of the county government with a seven mill levy.

The Beacon is trying to prejudice the voters against Dan Sullivan by stating that if he is unsuccessful in the coming election that he will dispose of his property and move back to Iowa. Nothing is so low and contemptible for this Beacon. Truth is an unknown virtue with it.

Even the populists admit and acknowledge that Geo. W. Dawsey made one of the most conservative and fair minded members ever elected on the county board. Elect him county clerk and you will have an efficient and accommodating officer who will attend to the interests of the people, regardless of politics.

Callaway Courier.

The fusionists are pretty hard pressed for campaign material in Nebraska this fall. It is no wonder that the recent burning of the Norfolk Asylum for the insane, is considered a sort of godsend. The yellow papers all claim it is the carrying out of a republican scheme to burn up all the state buildings.

After all the wind that has been expended by the pop papers on the county superintendent question, it seems that the only fault they can find with the republican candidate is that he was at one time a populist and that he taught school outside of the county. These are very serious charges, and they ought to be investigated.

The pop papers tell us that, having turned the county over to the republicans clear of debt, a seven mill levy is enough to pay the running expenses of the county hereafter. The republicans will undoubtedly manage to get along with a seven mill levy. But the pop papers assured us five years ago that they had the county out of debt. What have they been doing with a fourteen and eighteen mill levy ever since? It looks like an acknowledgement that the republicans can run the county on half what the pops required.

Ansley Chronical.

The republican board of Supervisors have run the county on 7 mills this year. This is just half the amount of what the populist board required to run the same county business.

For the last ten years with the exception of 1896, the republicans of Custer county have made rapid gains. The gain this year will put the republicans in control of the county government.

The people's money could not be placed in safer hands than those of Walt George, a republican candidate for treasurer. He is not only competent, but is a shrewd business man and a prosperous farmer.

The republican candidate for sheriff, R. D. Sullivan, has all the qualifications to make a good sheriff. He is also a man of good character and highly respected by his neighbors. This is not fulsome flattery but obvious facts. Vote for Sullivan.

The Beacon says it isn't right to vote against a candidate because of his religious belief. The Beacon has reference to Mr. Murry, the populist candidate, who is a Catholic. Now, the Beacon is the first newspaper to mention the matter of Murry's religion. No republican newspaper has attempted to make capital out of it, neither is it the intention of any republican to do so. If the voters of Custer county want a Catholic at the head of the county schools, Mr. Murry is as good a Catholic for the place as any.

C. O. Lind, Chairman of the board of supervisors, is the republican candidate for register of deeds. Mr. Lind was elected to the board as a republican in a populist stronghold which goes to show how he is regarded at home among his neighbors. Since he became a member of the board he won a reputation for business ability in conducting county business. His honesty and gentlemanly manners have won for him a host of friends, in all political parties who will cast their votes for him regardless of politics, because he is an honest, straightforward business farmer, who will conduct the office in the interest of his constituents.

J. A. Armour is again before the people of Custer for the office of county judge. During the last four years Mr. Armour has served the people faithfully and has attended to the business of his office with far more accuracy than he ever did his own business affairs, which is saying a good deal. No fair minded, unprejudiced man ever sat upon the bench in Custer county. He has discharged the duties of his office in a manner that has won the admiration of even his political opponents. His character is above reproach, his honesty has never been doubted, and as a judge, before whom justice is meted, there is no better man anywhere to be found than Mr. J. A. Armour.

The Chronicle has followed closely the uncalled for attacks and personal thrusts, made by the Custer County Beacon upon the candidacy of Prof. J. W. G. Lewis, republican candidate for county superintendent. Week after week the columns of that newspaper are stuffed with misleading statements and cruel insinuation, purposely to poison the minds of the reading public and leave, if possible, the indelible impression that Mr. Lewis is not the man, either by nature or education, to hold the position of county superintendent. The Beacon is claiming that Mr. Lewis is not a resident of Custer county. Now such a claim is utterly false. Mr. Lewis has been a resident of this county for twenty years. Several times he has been out of the county teaching school, as so many others do who follow that profession, but his home has always been in Custer county. Another bomb thrown at Mr. Lewis is that he was once a populist and left that party because he did not get the nomination for superintendent. This is also a campaign lie. Mr. Lewis was born and raised a republican and cast his presidential vote for William McKinley. To those not acquainted with Mr. Lewis, such false claims by that newspaper which has maligned so many good men, might have a tendency to mislead, while as a matter of fact Mr. Lewis is not only a good republican but is an excellent citizen. He is an exceedingly bright young man, finely educated and free from all bad habits. As an educator he is already a leader in his profession. The office of superintendent would be ably filled by him and we have no doubt but he will be the one who will fill it.

It Happened in a Drug Store.

"O e day last winter a lady came to my drug store and asked for a brand of cough medicine that I did not have in stock," says Mr. C. R. Grandin, the popular druggist of Ontario, N. Y. "She was disappointed and wanted to know what cough preparation I could recommend. I said to her that I could freely recommend Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and that she could take a bottle of the remedy and after giving it a fair trial if she did not find it worth the money to bring back the bottle and I would refund the price paid. In the course of a day or two the lady came back in company with a friend in need of a cough medicine and advised her to buy a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. I consider that a very good recommendation for the remedy." It is for sale by J. G. Haeberle.

"For three days and nights I suffered agony untold from attack of cholera morbus brought on by eating cucumbers," says M. E. Lowther, clerk of the district court, Centerville, Iowa. "I thought I should surely die, and tried a dozen different medicines but all to no purpose. I sent for a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and three doses relieved me entirely." This remedy is for sale by J. G. Haeberle.
