

Round Valley Items

(Too late for last week)

Alfred Larson is now milking around buying calves and heifers. Ole E. Oleson shipped a carload of sheep to Omaha, last week. The Johnson boys are now threshing in the valley. They are rustlers. Adolph Larson lately sold eighty two year old steers for $30.00 per head. Wm. Sargent sold some very nice yearling steers for 22 dollars per head. N. K. Lee has put down a new hydraulic well for Oscar Engelsfeld. He had good success.

In his O'len writes to his father that after he had made a visit to his old home in Minnesota he weighed 254 pounds. He marked the bridge over Nebraska when they reach there.

A nephew of the Engelsfelds arrived last week from Illinois. His name is Henry O. Anderson. He will stay with Oscar this coming winter, while they make a visit to his old home in Norway.

The ball game and shooting match between the valley boys and Oohen and Victory boys was won by the valley boys as the other team lacked some of their best players. They had a nice sport for the time they kept on.

Joe McCaslin and Edie Barns of this vicinity were the principals in a somewhat romantic wedding that took place Monday September 30th in the forenoon. It was an elegant, well planned and well carried out. Rev. Clinton performed the ceremony which united their lives in the middle of the public road by George Myers' house in Swiss Valley. May luck and happiness always follow them so bright and successful as it did in this event—all will be well.

Redfern News

(Too late for last week)

Mrs. Speece is visiting in Kansas at this writing. Jas. Chittick was in this vicinity one day this week.

Mrs. William Bain is having a siege with rheumatism. Meetings are still in progress at Beebe chapel with good results.

Joe Miles repaired wells for W. H. Latin and D. E. Young this week.

The Greenfield school has had three holidays recently on account of funerals in the district.

Cameron, the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Dowe died Wednesday, October 9th, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Greenfield, Mrs. Lowe's parents. Cholera infantum was the cause of his death, which was very sudden. The funeral was held Thursday, and the remains buried in the Ledt cemetery. We extend to the bereaved relatives the sincere sympathy of the entire community.

DIED—At her home on Redfern Table Thursday October 4th 1901. Mrs. Earnest Schneider. This was a very sudden death as Mrs. Schneider was in usual health until the day of her death, when she was stricken with apoplexy which resulted fatally in a few hours. She leaves behind a husband and six small children—three boys and three girls, to mourn her death. A short service was held at the house Monday, October 4th, after which the remains were removed to the Catholic church in Oconto, where services were conducted by the priest, and the remains were laid to rest in the Catholic cemetery. The relatives have the sympathy of the entire community.

Oconto News

F. D. Atkisson's sale was quite well attended by our neighbors last week.

School began Monday, with an enrollment of 33—Miss Ashbaugh teacher. Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Baker went to Broken Bow Saturday, returning Sunday.

Ryno

Weather cold and disagreeable since last writing, premonition of an early and severe winter.

Died at Ryno, Frank the grey horse, aged about twenty years, a better never had a line drawn on him.

M. Conley, H. G. Denzel and several others marketed hogs last week they were fortunate as the bottom has dropped out of the market.

Four of the Peterson family are down with Typhoid fever. They now have good medical attendance and a good nurse and hopes are entertained that they will recover.

J. H. Smith informs us that he received notice by the phone of a fright from the cattlemen in Broken Bow who have cattle in his pasture that two had died of Tuberculosis and a number more sick, this was news to Smith as he informed us yesterday that the cattle are all healthy and in fine condition.

Hunters are notified that the law will be strictly enforced against those who trespass in the Ryno neighbourhood roaming over the fields endangering the life of men, beast and children on the way by paths to and from school, and to stockmen looking after their cattle, all are exposed to their reckless shooting, killing little birds as a thing did "can't call him a man" near Ryno crippled a turtle dove then threw on the road to die in its misery; a word to the wise should be sufficient.

Ash Creek

Come out to the ball game Saturday afternoon. D. L. Herriek marketed a load of hogs in Oconto Tuesday.

Some have commenced husking corn report from 10 to 25 bushels per acre.

Broken Bow Fortunate.

At last Broken Bow is to have another real first-class show visit us. Something we have not had for some years. On Thursday, October 31st, Wood & Ward's big company will present at the opera house their successful comedy "The Two Merry Framps." This company plays only five towns in Nebraska en route to Butte, Montana. They appear at Boyl's theatre, Omaha, October 26, with Lincoln, Hastings, Grand Island, Broken Bow and Alliance to follow. The company numbers 20 people, and carry all their own scenery, etc., and as the reserved seats will be only 50 cents, our theatre goers will get more than the worth of their money.

THE HOME GOLD CURE.

An Ingenious Treatment by Which Drunkards are Being Cured Daily in Spite of Themselves.

No Nauseous Doses. No Weakening of the Nerves. A Pleasant and Positive Cure For the Liquor Habit.

It is now generally known and understood that Drunkenness is a disease and not weakness. A body filled with poison and nerves completely shattered by periodical or constant use of intoxicating liquors, requires an antidote capable of neutralizing and eradicating this poison and destroying the craving for intoxicants. Sufferers may now cure themselves at home without publicity or loss of time from business by this wonderful "Home Gold Cure" which has been perfected after many years of close study and treatment of inebriates. The faithful use according to the directions of this wonderful discovery is the most obstinate case, no matter how hard a drinker. Our records show the marvelous transformation of thousands of drunkards into sober, industrious and upright men. Write Cure Your Husband's Drunkenness to your Father. This remedy is in no sense a nostrum but is a specific for this disease only, and is so skillfully devised and prepared that it is thoroughly soluble and pleasant to the taste so that it can be given in a cup of tea or coffee without the knowledge of the person taking it. Thousands of Drunkards have cured themselves with this priceless remedy, and as many more have been cured and made temperate men by having the "Cure" administered by loving friends and relatives without their knowledge in coffee or tea, and believe to-day that they discontinued drinking of their own free will. Do Not Wait. Do not be deluded by apparent and misleading "improvement." Drive out disease at once and for all time. The "Home Gold Cure" is sold at the extremely low price of One Dollar, thus placing within reach of everybody a treatment more effectual than others costing $25 to $50. Full directions accompany each package. Special advice by skilled physicians when requested without extra charge. Sent prepaid to any part of the world on receipt of One Dollar. Address: Dep. E 177, EDWIN B. GILES & COMPANY, 2330 and 2332 Market Street, Philadelphia. All correspondence strictly confidential.

"Stitch in time saves nine" and a dose of BALLARD'S HORE-HOUND SYRUP at the beginning of a cold will save you many weary hours and even days of distress and harassing cough. Price 25 and 50 cents. Edna McComas Broken Bow and Merina.
