

Custer County Republican.

VOL. XX.

BROKEN BOW, CUSTER COUNTY, NEBRASKA, THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 14, 1901.—EIGHT PAGES.

NO. 22.

COUNT YOUR FINGERS

—and you count the weeks left for Christmas selecting and buying.

Five—that's all, and here let us give you a reason for each week, why you should buy your Christmas presents here.

We give you goods which always please.

We engrave all goods free of charge.

We exchange goods before or after presentation.

We give you a guarantee that GUARANTEES.

We sell only the latest and best in design and workmanship, at prices never more than elsewhere.

Graduate of Chicago Ophthalmic College.

Moved to Realty Block.

School Books,

Tablets

—AND—

School Supplies,

—AT—

J. G. Haerberle's:

Market Report for Today.

| | |
|----------------------|---------------|
| Wheat | 55 |
| Barley | 35 |
| Oats | 32 |
| Corn | 45 |
| Eye | 40 |
| Butter | 15 |
| Eggs | 15 |
| Potatoes, per bushel | 1.10 |
| Onions, per bushel | 1.00 |
| Chickens, per pound | .09 |
| Hogs | 5.20 |
| Cows | $2.00 @ 2.50 |
| Steers | $3.00 @ 4.00 |
| Turkeys, per pound | .15 |
| Straw, per cwt. | .15 |
| Hay, New, per ton | 4.50 |

School books and supplies at Ed. McComas's.

Moved to Realty Block.
A. E. Anderson.

For all fresh cuts or wounds, either on the human subject or on animals, BALLARD'S SNOW LINIMENT is excellent; while for corn-busters, sprained wrists, barbed-wire cuts and sores on working horses, it cannot be to highly commended. Price, 25 and 50 cents. Ed. McComas, Broken Bow and Merna.

1900 Personal Tax.

Kindly pay them. I do not want to issue distress warrants, but this tax must be paid by December 1, 1901. M. E. SCHNEIDER, 11 14 St. County Treasurer.

"I have used Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and find it to be a great medicine," says Mr. E. S. Phipps, of Potosi, Ark. "It cured me of bloody flux. I cannot speak too highly of it." This remedy always wins the good opinion, if not praise of those who use it. The quick cures which it effects even in the most severe cases make it a favorite everywhere. For sale by J. G. Haerberle.

Local Mention.

Fancy Gift Books at Ed. McComas's.

Busts at Bowen's. They are beauties.

For Kodaks supplies and Kodaks go to Ed. McComas's.

W. P. Henman, of Ash Creek was a city visitor Saturday.

Al Bookbaker spent several days at home with his family last week.

Moved to Realty Block.
A. E. ANDERSON.

John Myers of Upton, was a friendly caller at this office Saturday.

John Mulvany, of Mason City was among the city visitors Saturday.

David McGugin and Jas. Dare, of Walworth were friendly callers Saturday.

W. J. Rice and H. B. Myres, of Cliff took in the ratification Tuesday night.

Will sell my feed or take one hundred head of cattle to winter, 11-14 St. JESS GANDY.

Money loaned on improved farms, JAMES LEDWICH, 7 18 St. Broken Bow, Nebr.

N. B. Predmore of West Union was in the city Saturday. He made this office a friendly call.

FOR RENT—A new 4 room house with one acre of land, 4 dollars per month. One half mile from square. G. N. RAWSON.

MARRIED—at Broken Bow November 7, 1901. Judge Armour officiating. Mr. Charley Tullis to Miss Lottie Foster both of Oconto Neb.

MARRIED—at the Baptist parsonage November 14, 1901, by Rev. S. W. Richards, Mr. Charles W. Gaston of Milburn, Neb. and Miss Effie A. Bridges, of Milburn, Neb.

The church social given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Apple last Friday night was a very pleasant affair. The attendance was large and a good time was enjoyed.

Remember the date of the Guild Fair is the 11th and 12th of December. Aprons for young and old are being made, also there will be on sale useful and fancy articles for Xmas present.

G. E. Richards of Havelock assumes the management of Foster & Smith lumber yard. W. L. Rule goes to Lincoln Neb. to take charge of a wholesale office for a large lumber and cedar post firm.

M. F. Gilbert, of Berwyn township was a friendly caller Saturday. He is one of the many of his district that are sorely disappointed as well as surprised that Jules Haumont was not elected supervisor.

S. Edwards of Arnold was a welcome caller Friday. He left Saturday for Colorado where he goes to look after his interests in that locality. He is 78 years old and is as spry as most men are at sixty.

WHITE'S CREAM VERMIFUGE removes the unhealthy tissue upon which worms thrive; it brings and quickly, a healthy condition of body where worms cannot exist. Price 25 cents. Ed. McComas Broken Bow and Merna.

Charley Collins surprised his Anselby friends by quietly dropping in on them Monday. It was reported several weeks ago that he had been killed and at first some of the superstitious thought that it was his ghost walking around on the streets and kept rather shy of him—Anselby Citizen.

Frank Norton is one of the pops who takes a logical view of the political land slide. He says he has taken a back seat now. Instead of coming to town Saturday in his buggy and fine clothes he says he puts on his old cap and hitches out to the lumber wagon and drives to town. He thinks republicans are entitled to the front seats.

There is probably no disease more distressing and annoying than piles. TABLER'S BUCKEYE PILE OINTMENT is daily curing cases of years, standing and itching and bleeding piles. The cure begins on the first application, a little perseverance makes the cure complete. Price, 50 cents in bottles. Tubes, 75 cents. Ed. McComas, Broken Bow and Merna.

Eastman's Kodaks at Ed. McComas's.

WANTED—Improved farms for sale. WILLIS CADWELL.

Room for 3 more college students at Mrs. Eva Martin's one block southeast of public square.

Rev. S. W. Richards has accepted an urgent invitation to deliver the address at Merna on Thanksgiving day.

Dave Sims of Arnold, accompanied by a brother from Iowa, were over last night to visit their brother-in-law, Wm. Herbert, who is very low.

MARRIED—Jonte—Wickham: at the brides home in this city. Mr. George L. Jonte and Miss Myrtle Wickham, November 3 at 2 p. m. Rev. H. E. Myers officiating.

Never try to coax a cold or cough use the remedy that unfailingly conquers both. BALLARD'S HOREHOUND SYRUP the great specific for all throat and lung troubles. Price, 25 and 50 cents. Ed. McComas, Broken Bow and Merna.

The attention of our readers is called to our special offer of the life of William McKinley, by Murat Halsted, and other prominent men, and the REPUBLICAN for $1.50. We furnish both for the retail price of the book. Send in your order at once.

The Mullen Representative is the name of a new paper started at Mullen by Edgar Phillips, who recently sold the Tribune of that place. The Representative is republican in politics, neat and newsworthy and every respect worthy the support of the people of Hooker county.

W. E. Swingle and Alvin Daily of Milburn were business callers at this office yesterday. They are the promoters of a telephone line from Milburn to Anselmo. The line is complete to Anselmo and are extending the line from New Helena to Merna. They expect to make other extensions before spring.

The officers of the company are C. A. Snyder, president, W. E. Swingle secretary and Alvin Daily treasurer. The Republican will print their certificates of membership.

Dr. Hanna of Anselby, was among the loyal republicans in attendance at the republican rally.

Dr. Robertson, coroner elect, and Jas. Fairfield of Mason City, were among the rejoicers Tuesday night.

S. L. Cannon and wife, of Westerville, came up to attend the republican jollification meeting Tuesday night.

Mrs. John Campbell and Miss Purdy Allen of Weisert, attended the republican jollification meeting Tuesday night.

W. C. George and wife, Joe Pigman and wife, and H. W. George were up from Georgetown Tuesday to attend the jollification.

Wm. Montgomery, of West Union, was over Tuesday night to attend the republican ratification. His wife accompanied him.

H. C. Stuokey of Lexington, came up to jollify with the republicans Tuesday night. Mr. Stuokey was for a long time a resident of Custer county, and six years ago was defeated for treasurer.

D. V. Joyner is said to be booked for deputy treasurer under Walt George. Mr. Joyner was for a time deputy under treasurer Bedwell. His experience, as well as his being an excellent accountant, well qualifies him for the position.

Walt George had his best set of harness stolen off his ranch Tuesday night. A party of movers who camped near the house are suspected of being the guilty parties. Sheriff Armstrong is in pursuit at this writing.

W. L. Rule, who for the past two or three years has been in charge of the Foster & Smith lumber yard at this place has accepted a more lucrative position with the same firm at Lincoln. He went to Lincoln last night to assume his new duties. Mr. Rule has made a host of friends while here who regret very much to see him leave. Mr. Rule is a thorough business man and has had long experience in the lumber business. The Republican wishes him success in his new location. His family will not move for several weeks.

W. E. Swingle and Alvin Daily of Milburn were business callers at this office yesterday. They are the promoters of a telephone line from Milburn to Anselmo. The line is complete to Anselmo and are extending the line from New Helena to Merna. They expect to make other extensions before spring.

The officers of the company are C. A. Snyder, president, W. E. Swingle secretary and Alvin Daily treasurer. The Republican will print their certificates of membership.

Dr. Hanna of Anselby, was among the loyal republicans in attendance at the republican rally.

Dr. Robertson, coroner elect, and Jas. Fairfield of Mason City, were among the rejoicers Tuesday night.

S. L. Cannon and wife, of Westerville, came up to attend the republican jollification meeting Tuesday night.

Mrs. John Campbell and Miss Purdy Allen of Weisert, attended the republican jollification meeting Tuesday night.

W. C. George and wife, Joe Pigman and wife, and H. W. George were up from Georgetown Tuesday to attend the jollification.

Wm. Montgomery, of West Union, was over Tuesday night to attend the republican ratification. His wife accompanied him.

H. C. Stuokey of Lexington, came up to jollify with the republicans Tuesday night. Mr. Stuokey was for a long time a resident of Custer county, and six years ago was defeated for treasurer.

D. V. Joyner is said to be booked for deputy treasurer under Walt George. Mr. Joyner was for a time deputy under treasurer Bedwell. His experience, as well as his being an excellent accountant, well qualifies him for the position.

Walt George had his best set of harness stolen off his ranch Tuesday night. A party of movers who camped near the house are suspected of being the guilty parties. Sheriff Armstrong is in pursuit at this writing.

W. L. Rule, who for the past two or three years has been in charge of the Foster & Smith lumber yard at this place has accepted a more lucrative position with the same firm at Lincoln. He went to Lincoln last night to assume his new duties. Mr. Rule has made a host of friends while here who regret very much to see him leave. Mr. Rule is a thorough business man and has had long experience in the lumber business. The Republican wishes him success in his new location. His family will not move for several weeks.

W. E. Swingle and Alvin Daily of Milburn were business callers at this office yesterday. They are the promoters of a telephone line from Milburn to Anselmo. The line is complete to Anselmo and are extending the line from New Helena to Merna. They expect to make other extensions before spring.

The officers of the company are C. A. Snyder, president, W. E. Swingle secretary and Alvin Daily treasurer. The Republican will print their certificates of membership.

Dr. Hanna of Anselby, was among the loyal republicans in attendance at the republican rally.

Dr. Robertson, coroner elect, and Jas. Fairfield of Mason City, were among the rejoicers Tuesday night.

S. L. Cannon and wife, of Westerville, came up to attend the republican jollification meeting Tuesday night.

Mrs. John Campbell and Miss Purdy Allen of Weisert, attended the republican jollification meeting Tuesday night.

W. C. George and wife, Joe Pigman and wife, and H. W. George were up from Georgetown Tuesday to attend the jollification.

Wm. Montgomery, of West Union, was over Tuesday night to attend the republican ratification. His wife accompanied him.

H. C. Stuokey of Lexington, came up to jollify with the republicans Tuesday night. Mr. Stuokey was for a long time a resident of Custer county, and six years ago was defeated for treasurer.

D. V. Joyner is said to be booked for deputy treasurer under Walt George. Mr. Joyner was for a time deputy under treasurer Bedwell. His experience, as well as his being an excellent accountant, well qualifies him for the position.

Walt George had his best set of harness stolen off his ranch Tuesday night. A party of movers who camped near the house are suspected of being the guilty parties. Sheriff Armstrong is in pursuit at this writing.

W. L. Rule, who for the past two or three years has been in charge of the Foster & Smith lumber yard at this place has accepted a more lucrative position with the same firm at Lincoln. He went to Lincoln last night to assume his new duties. Mr. Rule has made a host of friends while here who regret very much to see him leave. Mr. Rule is a thorough business man and has had long experience in the lumber business. The Republican wishes him success in his new location. His family will not move for several weeks.

W. E. Swingle and Alvin Daily of Milburn were business callers at this office yesterday. They are the promoters of a telephone line from Milburn to Anselmo. The line is complete to Anselmo and are extending the line from New Helena to Merna. They expect to make other extensions before spring.

The officers of the company are C. A. Snyder, president, W. E. Swingle secretary and Alvin Daily treasurer. The Republican will print their certificates of membership.

Dr. Hanna of Anselby, was among the loyal republicans in attendance at the republican rally.

Dr. Robertson, coroner elect, and Jas. Fairfield of Mason City, were among the rejoicers Tuesday night.

S. L. Cannon and wife, of Westerville, came up to attend the republican jollification meeting Tuesday night.

Mrs. John Campbell and Miss Purdy Allen of Weisert, attended the republican jollification meeting Tuesday night.

W. C. George and wife, Joe Pigman and wife, and H. W. George were up from Georgetown Tuesday to attend the jollification.

Wm. Montgomery, of West Union, was over Tuesday night to attend the republican ratification. His wife accompanied him.

H. C. Stuokey of Lexington, came up to jollify with the republicans Tuesday night. Mr. Stuokey was for a long time a resident of Custer county, and six years ago was defeated for treasurer.

D. V. Joyner is said to be booked for deputy treasurer under Walt George. Mr. Joyner was for a time deputy under treasurer Bedwell. His experience, as well as his being an excellent accountant, well qualifies him for the position.

Walt George had his best set of harness stolen off his ranch Tuesday night. A party of movers who camped near the house are suspected of being the guilty parties. Sheriff Armstrong is in pursuit at this writing.

W. L. Rule, who for the past two or three years has been in charge of the Foster & Smith lumber yard at this place has accepted a more lucrative position with the same firm at Lincoln. He went to Lincoln last night to assume his new duties. Mr. Rule has made a host of friends while here who regret very much to see him leave. Mr. Rule is a thorough business man and has had long experience in the lumber business. The Republican wishes him success in his new location. His family will not move for several weeks.

Eastman's Kodaks at Ed. McComas's.

WANTED—Improved farms for sale. WILLIS CADWELL.

Room for 3 more college students at Mrs. Eva Martin's one block southeast of public square.

Rev. S. W. Richards has accepted an urgent invitation to deliver the address at Merna on Thanksgiving day.

Dave Sims of Arnold, accompanied by a brother from Iowa, were over last night to visit their brother-in-law, Wm. Herbert, who is very low.

MARRIED—Jonte—Wickham: at the brides home in this city. Mr. George L. Jonte and Miss Myrtle Wickham, November 3 at 2 p. m. Rev. H. E. Myers officiating.

Never try to coax a cold or cough use the remedy that unfailingly conquers both. BALLARD'S HOREHOUND SYRUP the great specific for all throat and lung troubles. Price, 25 and 50 cents. Ed. McComas, Broken Bow and Merna.

The attention of our readers is called to our special offer of the life of William McKinley, by Murat Halsted, and other prominent men, and the REPUBLICAN for $1.50. We furnish both for the retail price of the book. Send in your order at once.

The Mullen Representative is the name of a new paper started at Mullen by Edgar Phillips, who recently sold the Tribune of that place. The Representative is republican in politics, neat and newsworthy and every respect worthy the support of the people of Hooker county.

W. E. Swingle and Alvin Daily of Milburn were business callers at this office yesterday. They are the promoters of a telephone line from Milburn to Anselmo. The line is complete to Anselmo and are extending the line from New Helena to Merna. They expect to make other extensions before spring.

The officers of the company are C. A. Snyder, president, W. E. Swingle secretary and Alvin Daily treasurer. The Republican will print their certificates of membership.

Dr. Hanna of Anselby, was among the loyal republicans in attendance at the republican rally.

Dr. Robertson, coroner elect, and Jas. Fairfield of Mason City, were among the rejoicers Tuesday night.

S. L. Cannon and wife, of Westerville, came up to attend the republican jollification meeting Tuesday night.

Mrs. John Campbell and Miss Purdy Allen of Weisert, attended the republican jollification meeting Tuesday night.

W. C. George and wife, Joe Pigman and wife, and H. W. George were up from Georgetown Tuesday to attend the jollification.

Wm. Montgomery, of West Union, was over Tuesday night to attend the republican ratification. His wife accompanied him.

H. C. Stuokey of Lexington, came up to jollify with the republicans Tuesday night. Mr. Stuokey was for a long time a resident of Custer county, and six years ago was defeated for treasurer.

D. V. Joyner is said to be booked for deputy treasurer under Walt George. Mr. Joyner was for a time deputy under treasurer Bedwell. His experience, as well as his being an excellent accountant, well qualifies him for the position.

Walt George had his best set of harness stolen off his ranch Tuesday night. A party of movers who camped near the house are suspected of being the guilty parties. Sheriff Armstrong is in pursuit at this writing.

W. L. Rule, who for the past two or three years has been in charge of the Foster & Smith lumber yard at this place has accepted a more lucrative position with the same firm at Lincoln. He went to Lincoln last night to assume his new duties. Mr. Rule has made a host of friends while here who regret very much to see him leave. Mr. Rule is a thorough business man and has had long experience in the lumber business. The Republican wishes him success in his new location. His family will not move for several weeks.

W. E. Swingle and Alvin Daily of Milburn were business callers at this office yesterday. They are the promoters of a telephone line from Milburn to Anselmo. The line is complete to Anselmo and are extending the line from New Helena to Merna. They expect to make other extensions before spring.

The officers of the company are C. A. Snyder, president, W. E. Swingle secretary and Alvin Daily treasurer. The Republican will print their certificates of membership.

Dr. Hanna of Anselby, was among the loyal republicans in attendance at the republican rally.

Dr. Robertson, coroner elect, and Jas. Fairfield of Mason City, were among the rejoicers Tuesday night.

S. L. Cannon and wife, of Westerville, came up to attend the republican jollification meeting Tuesday night.

Mrs. John Campbell and Miss Purdy Allen of Weisert, attended the republican jollification meeting Tuesday night.

W. C. George and wife, Joe Pigman and wife, and H. W. George were up from Georgetown Tuesday to attend the jollification.

Wm. Montgomery, of West Union, was over Tuesday night to attend the republican ratification. His wife accompanied him.

H. C. Stuokey of Lexington, came up to jollify with the republicans Tuesday night. Mr. Stuokey was for a long time a resident of Custer county, and six years ago was defeated for treasurer.

D. V. Joyner is said to be booked for deputy treasurer under Walt George. Mr. Joyner was for a time deputy under treasurer Bedwell. His experience, as well as his being an excellent accountant, well qualifies him for the position.

Walt George had his best set of harness stolen off his ranch Tuesday night. A party of movers who camped near the house are suspected of being the guilty parties. Sheriff Armstrong is in pursuit at this writing.

W. L. Rule, who for the past two or three years has been in charge of the Foster & Smith lumber yard at this place has accepted a more lucrative position with the same firm at Lincoln. He went to Lincoln last night to assume his new duties. Mr. Rule has made a host of friends while here who regret very much to see him leave. Mr. Rule is a thorough business man and has had long experience in the lumber business. The Republican wishes him success in his new location. His family will not move for several weeks.

W. E. Swingle and Alvin Daily of Milburn were business callers at this office yesterday. They are the promoters of a telephone line from Milburn to Anselmo. The line is complete to Anselmo and are extending the line from New Helena to Merna. They expect to make other extensions before spring.

The officers of the company are C. A. Snyder, president, W. E. Swingle secretary and Alvin Daily treasurer. The Republican will print their certificates of membership.

Dr. Hanna of Anselby, was among the loyal republicans in attendance at the republican rally.

Dr. Robertson, coroner elect, and Jas. Fairfield of Mason City, were among the rejoicers Tuesday night.

S. L. Cannon and wife, of Westerville, came up to attend the republican jollification meeting Tuesday night.

Mrs. John Campbell and Miss Purdy Allen of Weisert, attended the republican jollification meeting Tuesday night.

W. C. George and wife, Joe Pigman and wife, and H. W. George were up from Georgetown Tuesday to attend the jollification.

Wm. Montgomery, of West Union, was over Tuesday night to attend the republican ratification. His wife accompanied him.

H. C. Stuokey of Lexington, came up to jollify with the republicans Tuesday night. Mr. Stuokey was for a long time a resident of Custer county, and six years ago was defeated for treasurer.

D. V. Joyner is said to be booked for deputy treasurer under Walt George. Mr. Joyner was for a time deputy under treasurer Bedwell. His experience, as well as his being an excellent accountant, well qualifies him for the position.

Walt George had his best set of harness stolen off his ranch Tuesday night. A party of movers who camped near the house are suspected of being the guilty parties. Sheriff Armstrong is in pursuit at this writing.

W. L. Rule, who for the past two or three years has been in charge of the Foster & Smith lumber yard at this place has accepted a more lucrative position with the same firm at Lincoln. He went to Lincoln last night to assume his new duties. Mr. Rule has made a host of friends while here who regret very much to see him leave. Mr. Rule is a thorough business man and has had long experience in the lumber business. The Republican wishes him success in his new location. His family will not move for several weeks.

W. E. Swingle and Alvin Daily of Milburn were business callers at this office yesterday. They are the promoters of a telephone line from Milburn to Anselmo. The line is complete to Anselmo and are extending the line from New Helena to Merna. They expect to make other extensions before spring.

The officers of the company are C. A. Snyder, president, W. E. Swingle secretary and Alvin Daily treasurer. The Republican will print their certificates of membership.

Dr. Hanna of Anselby, was among the loyal republicans in attendance at the republican rally.

Dr. Robertson, coroner elect, and Jas. Fairfield of Mason City, were among the rejoicers Tuesday night.

S. L. Cannon and wife, of Westerville, came up to attend the republican jollification meeting Tuesday night.

Mrs. John Campbell and Miss Purdy Allen of Weisert, attended the republican jollification meeting Tuesday night.

W. C. George and wife, Joe Pigman and wife, and H. W. George were up from Georgetown Tuesday to attend the jollification.

Wm. Montgomery, of West Union, was over Tuesday night to attend the republican ratification. His wife accompanied him.

H. C. Stuokey of Lexington, came up to jollify with the republicans Tuesday night. Mr. Stuokey was for a long time a resident of Custer county, and six years ago was defeated for treasurer.

D. V. Joyner is said to be booked for deputy treasurer under Walt George. Mr. Joyner was for a time deputy under treasurer Bedwell. His experience, as well as his being an excellent accountant, well qualifies him for the position.

Walt George had his best set of harness stolen off his ranch Tuesday night. A party of movers who camped near the house are suspected of being the guilty parties. Sheriff Armstrong is in pursuit at this writing.

W. L. Rule, who for the past two or three years has been in charge of the Foster & Smith lumber yard at this place has accepted a more lucrative position with the same firm at Lincoln. He went to Lincoln last night to assume his new duties. Mr. Rule has made a host of friends while here who regret very much to see him leave. Mr. Rule is a thorough business man and has had long experience in the lumber business. The Republican wishes him success in his new location. His family will not move for several weeks.

Eastman's Kodaks at Ed. McComas's.

WANTED—Improved farms for sale. WILLIS CADWELL.

Room for 3 more college students at Mrs. Eva Martin's one block southeast of public square.

Rev. S. W. Richards has accepted an urgent invitation to deliver the address at Merna on Thanksgiving day.

Dave Sims of Arnold, accompanied by a brother from Iowa, were over last night to visit their brother-in-law, Wm. Herbert, who is very low.

MARRIED—Jonte—Wickham: at the brides home in this city. Mr. George L. Jonte and Miss Myrtle Wickham, November 3 at 2 p. m.