

ECHOES AFTER THE BATTLE.

(Anselty Citizen)
"Dad" Hare feels so jubilant over the election that he proposes to have a barbecue and rally at this place next week.

Our townsman Dr. E. A. Robertson was among the fortunate in securing the necessary votes that entitles him to act in capacity of county coroner for the next 2 years.

M. L. Lamb, also one of our fellow townsman, who was on the popular ticket for county surveyor was also elected.

And still there is another Masonite who was on the county ticket. He is a democrat and was a candidate for register of deeds.

The esteemed Beacon always has a pet candidate and its pet candidate always gets left. In 1897 it bowled itself hoarse for Shinn and Shinn was defeated for county judge by 359 votes while every other pop was elected by a big majority.

the state senate and every pop candidate except Whitney was elected. In 1901 it devoted the largest portion of its editorial space to singing the praises of John Murray, pop candidate for superintendent of schools, and Murray was the worst beaten man on the pop ticket.

It means that a majority of the voters of Custer county believe that the principles of republicanism is right.

It means that the party of Abraham Lincoln, James A. Garfield and William McKinley must not perish from the earth.

It means that prosperity is a good thing and that the farmer appreciates the demand and the high price paid for the fruits of his toil.

Colonel Wm. F. Cody, better known as Buffalo Bill, arrived from New York City to-day, enroute to the Big Horn Basin of Wyoming.

cattle region, where irrigation may be used to the greatest advantage for agricultural purposes. Today, when the Burlington railroad into Cody is barely completed, three trainloads of cattle were shipped out of there, which shows that there is something substantial about the country.

"My purpose in visiting New York was to interest capitalists in an immense irrigational canal to cost nearly $1,000,000 and to water 120,000 acres of land. I am pleased to announce that my mission was successful and that the canal will be completed next year.

"It is true that I have given up my legal residence at North Platte and that I have become a citizen of Wyoming but I have not sold an acre of my Nebraska lands and I do not intend to do so.

Colonel Martin a lifelong friend of Cody's and his constant companion, says that the latter has built a ten-room log cabin at Cody, in which he will live.

A Village Blacksmith His Little Son's Life. Mr. H. H. Black, the well-known village blacksmith, Sullivan Co., N. Y., says: "Our little son, five years old has always been subject to croup and so had the attack been that we have feared many times that he would die."
