The Butte Miner says: "A Honolulu Coon Co. is one of the best and largest organizations that has visited Butte in years." The Deadwood Times says: "The show is strictly up to date and very large. Their performance is new and funny." Mr. McCarver, the manager of the company assures the people that the show will be here as advertised and all wishing to see something new in shows should get their seats early. Prices reduced to 50c, 35c, and 25c. If you don't get your seat early, you will have to "go way back and stand up."

Letting of the Star Mail Routes With Free Box Delivery.

The Post-office Department is now receiving proposals for carrying Mail on Star Routes. Some radical changes have been made in the Methods of conducting this service. The contractor is now required to live on or near his route and will be held immediately responsible. This feature cuts out the professional bidder and pays all the money to the man who does the work. Any one living on or near a route can have their mail delivered free of expense by placing a box so that the carrier will not have to drive out of the way. The time for receiving bids will close December 3rd. The new service will go into effect July 1, 1902 and will continue for a period of four years. Full information can be had at post offices on star routes or by writing to the Second Assistant Post Master General. There are 19 routes in Custer county aggregating 466 miles of several more than any other county in the state. There are 256 routes in the state. Following are the routes of Custer county:

Nebraska Woman Suffrage State Convention.

The 21st. Annual convention of the Nebr. Woman Suffrage Association commenced in the First Baptist church of Lincoln Nov. 13, continuing Nov. 13th, and 14th. The advancement made by the cause thru the state was shown by the fact, that there was a larger number of delegates present than any previous year.

The delegates were welcomed by the mayor, H. J. Winnett, who said the doors of the city were opened to the suffragists, charging them, however, to deal gently with Col. Bixby, his life long friend.

The hospitable homes of Lincoln were opened to entertain the delegates, which fact together with the beautiful weather thruout the convention will leave a lasting impression of pleasure in the hearts of the attendants. The presence of the national president, Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt, was a source of inspiration and education.

A letter of greeting from a former state Pres., Mrs. Clara B. Colby of The Woman's Tribune, full of love and courage was appreciated. Mrs. Clara A. Young, Pres. of the State Association is a woman Nebr. Suffragist may well be proud of. That her last years work in that capacity was valued was shown by the enthusiasm with which she was reinstated for the coming year.

While her co-workers realize her ability in holding this office of responsibility they also appreciate the sacrifice she makes of all a woman holds dear in accepting it.

Let us see to it, suffragists, that we lighten her burden by accepting the motto she has given us in her annual address, "Agitate, educate and organize", and each do his part in the work, which will soon enroll, Nebr. as an equal suffrage state along with Wyoming, Colorado, Utah and Idaho. The Suffragists were afforded the rare treat at this convention of being met in debate by an anti-suffragist, A. L. Bixby, of the State Journal. The Suffrage cause was championed by Miss Laura A. Gregg of Omaha, Governor Savage who presided over the debate said in introducing it, "I have presided over the senate and many political bodies, have umpired base ball games, been referee of wrestling matches, and prize fights, but never before have been referee of a duet on the suffrage question."

Mr. Bixby's address was mostly read and was replied to by Miss Gregg in a manner that left nothing more to be said on the subject.

Bixby's defeat and humiliation was somewhat modified by the ladies presenting him with a monster bouquet as a token of their respect of his courage.

The papers and addresses by members of the convention showed a high intellectual appreciation of the dignity of the Suffrage cause. Altogether the convention was one of harmony and singleness of purpose, which influence must be felt all thru the state.

In closing the convention Mrs. Young solemnly and impressively charged the men and women of Nebr. to work for the enfranchisement of its women, that the bright star of the Republic might not wane, but become another star in the diadem of states of enfranchised womanhood.
