The stock dealers of this city estimate that they have paid out in the past two weeks for hogs, about $10,000 to the farmers of this vicinity. This is a large increase over the business formerly done in that line of the business. The business has been nearly equally divided between the three firms dealing in stock.

Those desiring cheap eating potatoes and at the same time, early Ohio seed, can secure the same by calling at our warehouse lexing. Also have choice turnips which we offer while they last for 15c per bushel. Yours Truly,
MERRITT PRODUCE CO.
11-21-4t Per Adams.

Corn Is King.

The corn trade the past week has assumed unusual proportions, on the Broken Bow market.

The boom was started a week ago by L. P. Southworth of Rayens sending in buyers with the claim that they wanted to buy two ear loads. The local dealers realizing that the supply was limited decided that if they got two cars they would have to pay the farmers well for it.

War was at once declared and the price reached as high as 62 cts a bushel Friday, which was four cents above the Chicago market.

The result has been that instead of Southworth's men buying 2000 bushels they have bought 10,000 bushels and each of the other dealers about the same amount at prices ranging from 55 to 62 cents.

Fortunately for a number of farmers south and west of this city they raised from 20 to 35 bushels to the acre and a large surplus to sell, by disposing of their hogs. Some will realize the price of their farms off of this years crop of corn. It is estimated that fully $17,000 has been realized by the producers for corn alone in the past week.

District Court

The adjourned term of the district court convened in the city Monday, Judge Sullivan on the bench.

The case of Fred Chapel, which was tried once, and the jury disagreed was, the first tried. The charge was attempted rape on the person of Stella Babcock, last March a year. Kirkpatrick and Holcomb prosecuted, while Guttererson and Wall defended.

The Cash Grocery Co.
OSBOURN & MYERS
(Successors to)
The Peale Cash Grocery Co.

The jury, after being out about 30 hours brought in a verdict of not guilty.

Tuesday morning Geo. Stevens, of Miller who exchanged horses with Thos. Whipple of Sargent was brought in. He plead guilty to the charge. The court suspended sentence, subject to good behavior.

Mrs. Anna Emerson was granted a divorce from Edward M. Emerson of Coburg. Mrs. Emestine of Milldale, recently from Germany was granted a divorce. A jury in the case of Horrace Neve vs. Frank Barrett was empanelled. This is a case in which the ownership of seven hogs was the question at issue. The case had been tried at Merna before a justice of the peace and appealed to the district court. The entire day was taken up in hearing the evidence in the case. There were about thirty witnesses. The evidence was very strong on either side. But as an uninterested spectator we were convinced the hogs belonged to Barrett. The jury took a different view of the matter and decided four of them belonged to Neve and three of them to Bartley. To farther clap the climax the jury assessed one cent damage in favor of Neve. The cost will doubtless be more than all the hogs are worth. C. L. Guttererson and J. B. Smith were Neve's attorneys and N. T. Gadd appeared for Barrett.

Most of the day yesterday was taken up with a jury trial of Neils Anderson against P. H. Marley of Mason City. As we go to press the jury had not agreed. Humphrey and Wall are attorneys for Marley and John Toungue and Holcomb for Anderson.

A Village Blacksmith His Little Son's Life.
Mr. H. H. Black, the well-known village Grahamville, Sullivan Co., N. Y., says: "Our little son, five years old has always been subject to croup and so had have the attacks been that we have feared many times that he would die. We have had the doctor and used many medicines, but Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is now our sole reliance. It seems to dissolve the tough mucus and by giving frequent doses when the croupy symptoms appear we have found that the dreaded croup is cured before it gets settled." There is no danger in giving this remedy for it contains no opium or other injurious drug and may be given as confidently to a babe as to an adult. For sale by J. G. Haerberle.
