The following article clipped from the Callaway Courier may prove of some value to some of our readers: The following communication has been received by this paper, and we publish same in full, trusting that experiences of the writer will prove a benefit to those whose stock fall victims to the dreaded cornstalk disease: "Fairbury, Neb., December 19, 1901.—Editor Courier:—In the State Journal of December 15, I noticed an article from Callaway, stating that cattle and horses were dying in that vicinity from the effects of eating cornstalks. I think that if stock poisoned are found in time, there would be no need of any loss of cattle or horses. It is Nitrate of Potash on the corn or cane that causes the poisoning, and vinegar is an antidote. "I will give you our experience: Late in the summer our cows got into the cane, and seven of them were as bad as they could be and live. We had sent to us from the U. S. Department of Agriculture, Farmers' Bulletin, No. 50, "Sorghum as a Forage Crop." On page 17 it speaks of the objections sometimes urge against it, and the injurious effects upon stock. It spoke of Nitrate of Potash. We also have a book giving antidotes for different poisons. I found that vinegar was the antidote for the Nitrate of Potash. We at once gave each cow a half a pint of strong vinegar in a pint of water, giving each cow three doses, making a pint and a half in all. I am sure we would have lost every one of them if we had not given them the vinegar. I should be glad to have someone try this remedy and if they are successful, let others know of it. Very Respt., Mrs. C. E. WELTS.

Republican Officials Occupy. This morning, G. W. Dewey, county clerk elect and his deputies, Joseph Pigman, J. G. W. Lewis, County Supt. elec, F. E. VanAntwerp, surveyor elect and J. A. Armour county judge elect, A. E. coroner elect, assumed the duties of their respective offices. As Judge Armour was re-elected it was only a continuation of his duties. As the bonds of C. O. Lind's register of deeds elect and W. A. George treasurer elect were not filed in time to be approved by the board at their last session they will not be able to take their offices until next week when the new board will meet. As all the incoming officers except the sheriff are republicans it makes quite a change in the political atmosphere about the court house. The only pops left in the courthouse are Sheriff Armstrong and clerk of the court, C. T. Orr, and deputies Leonard Hakes and Mrs. Tooley, who we understand will remain in their respective positions temporarily. The outgoing candidates are J. B. Osborne clerk, M. E. Schneringer treasurer J. J. Tooley, Supt. C. H. Jeffords, register, Dr. Brown, coroner and L. E. Koon Surveyor. They leave their respective offices with the respect of their constituents and have the well wishes of all who know them personally. The Republican extends congratulations to the new officers and speaks for them an honest and economical administration. A. O. U. W. The A. O. U. W. lodge of this city will install their officers for the ensuing year, at their regular meeting next Tuesday night. All members are requested to be present. WANTED—Several persons of character and good reputation in each state (one in this county required) to represent and advertise old established wealthy business house of solid financial standing. Salary 18.00 weekly with expenses additional, all payable in cash each Wednesday direct from head office. Horse and carriage furnished, when necessary. Reference. Enclose self-addressed stamped envelope. Dept. Manager, 314 Caxton Building, Chicago. 11-28 St Horticultural Society Programme. The Burlington Route is organizing a personally conducted excursion to Florida and Cuba, to leave Nebraska points, Wednesday January 29. The route will be via St. Louis, thence to Jacksonville, Fla., through scenes which have been forever made historic by the dramatic events of the civil war. An exceedingly low rate has been made, and several members of the excursion have choice of several attractive trips after they arrive at Jacksonville. This opportunity of escaping the most unpleasant portion of a Nebraska winter and enjoying in its stead, the delights of a semi-tropical country will appeal to everyone who has money and can spare the time to make an extended pleasure trip. A handsome booklet, giving details of the excursion will be ready for distribution about January 1st. Write for a copy. J. FRANCIS, General Passenger Agent, Omaha, Neb. Horticultural Society Meeting. The attention of the readers of the REPUBLICAN is called to the program of the Custer County Horticultural Society, which appears in another column. All those that are interested in growing fruit, flowers, vegetables and tree planting in general are requested to attend the meeting of the society held in this city January 10. Come in and hear the essays and discussion in all the departments of scientific and practical horticulture. A cordial invitation is extended to the public and the ladies are especially invited to attend. R. P. Standford of Merna lost his overcoat while on his way to Broken Bow Tuesday. The finder will confer a favor, by returning it to him at Merna. J. W. Henry Named. The question of C. O. Lind's successor as supervisor of the 4th district was determined today by the appointment J. W. Henry of Elm township to fill the vacancy. Mr. Henry is one of the substantial farmers and highly respected citizens of the south west and will make an efficient officer. His candidacy was supported by a large number of petitioners which had its influence with the appointing power. I. P. Mills of Arnold was also a candidate, but his location in the district was argued against him. Mr. Mills is one of our best citizens and had been selected to fill the vacancy he would have been highly satisfactory. Sheep Items. Fergus county, Colorado, has been wrested from the cattlemen by the sheep raisers and the former have been compelled to close-herd their stock. Fergus county is credited with more sheep than any other county in the state, 650,000 to 700,000 being considered a conservative estimate of their numbers. George Taylor says: "I have found that a little grain of any kind, say a half bushel for twenty-five or thirty sheep, once a day during the winter, is a great help towards making both flesh and fleece and good strong lambs in the spring. Feeding ewes wheat should be avoided after lambing or the lambs will scour. I have found the feeding of oats highly satisfactory at any time. I do not think any domestic animal will respond so readily to a little extra feed and care as sheep." "The Navajo Indians of Arizona are a material factor in the wool market. The tribe is wealthy through its flocks. The tribesmen are believed to own little short of 1,000,000 head, the care of the flocks and the weaving of wool being almost the sole occupation of the 22,000 Indians. Singular to relate, only a small part of the Navajo wool crop is worked up at home into the wonderful blankets that have made the tribal name famous. Only the coarser and cheaper blankets are now made of the native wool.—Ainslie's. A sheep raiser says: "As soon as the lambs are weaned and the ewes are dried the old ewes should be culled out and sent to the shambles as soon as they are ready. When one has his flock well established and he can afford to cull severely, he ought to do so. In such instances there is no gain in keeping grade sheep beyond the age of five years for breeding uses. Beyond that age they are not so well fitted to nourish their young, nor do they fatten as well when they are being prepared for market." American Poland-China Record Company Meeting. The twenty-fourth annual meeting of this company will be held in Cedar Rapids, Iowa, Wednesday, Feb. 13, 1901. The business to be reported will show a great increase over the past few years. This denotes a greatly increased interest in the business and should draw out a large meeting of the members of the company. This is always one of the most interesting swine gatherings of the country. The forenoon will be devoted to transacting the regular record business, and the afternoon and evening to the reading of several papers and discussion thereon. Among those who will read papers will be J. J. Furlong, Austin, Minn.; G. C. Kenyon, Mt. Carroll, Ill.; Carlos Fawcett, Springdale, Ia.; C. F. Hood, Battle Creek, Ia., and H. H. Fay, Coggon, Ia. For program of other particulars, address W. M. McFadden, Sec'y, West Liberty, Ia. The Senate committee on agriculture has reported favorably on the bill prohibiting the coloring of oleomargarine. The minority on the committee has reported a substitute bill, as was done in the House, but it is probable that it will meet with the same fate as did that substitute. The live stock raisers committee appeared before the Senate committee on agriculture and did all in their power to prevent favorable action and they were backed up by a committee from the cotton raisers of the South, who were interested because of the amount of cottonseed oil used in the making of oleomargarine. The report of the majority says that the bill is desired by the farmers of the country and that its passage will not interfere to any considerable extent with the interests of the stock raisers and cotton growers. Mexico is now purchasing cavalry horses by the carload in this country. Another Tourist Excursion to California. To accommodate the increasing travel to California, the Burlington Route has added to its service another weekly excursion, in tourist cars, personally conducted. The

Burlington's through service to California is as follows: STANDARD SLEEPERS—daily, Omaha, Lincoln, Hastings and Oxford to San Francisco, connecting at latter city with fast train for Los Angeles. TOURIST SLEEPERS—personally conducted—every Thursday and Saturday, Omaha, Lincoln, Fairmont, Hastings and Holdrege to San Francisco; every Wednesday and Thursday, Kansas City, St. Joseph, Wymore, Superior, and Oxford to San Francisco, and Los Angeles. All these cars run via Denver and Salt Lake City, passing the grand panorama of the Rockies by day

IN HARBOR. I think it is over, over, I think it is over at last; Voices of foemen and lover, The sweet and the bitter have passed; Life, like a tempest of ocean Hath outblown its ultimate blast. There's but a faint sobbing seaward, While the calm of the tide deepens leeward, And behold! like the welcoming quiver Of heart-pulses throbbled through the river, Those lights in the harbor at last, The heavenly harbor at last. I feel it is over! over! For the winds and the waters surge cease; Ah! few were the days of the rover That smiled in the beauty of peace; And distant and dim was the omen That hinted redress or release! From the ravage of life, and its riot, What marvel I yearn for the quiet Which bids in the harbor at last— For the lights with their welcoming quiver, That throbb through the sanctified river, Which girdle the harbor at last, This heavenly harbor at last! I know it is over, over, I know it is over at last! Down sail! the sheathed anchor uncover, For the stress of the voyage has passed; Life, like a tempest of ocean, Hath outbreathed its ultimate blast. There's but a faint throbbing seaward, While the calm of the tide deepens leeward, And behold! the welcoming quiver Of heart-pulses throbbled through the river, Those lights in the harbor at last, The heavenly harbor at last. —Paul Hamilton Hayne.

JOY IN BELIEVING. Wherever there is living faith there is joy. A Christian may well doubt the reality of his faith if he have not this joy. It may not always be consciously present, but it dwells in the soul and gives character to his life none the less. The deeper and more substantial the joy, the less demonstrative will it be. True Christian joy is more than a passing emotion; it is a condition of soul that grows out of living faith. We first believe and then have joy—Joy in the Holy Ghost. The essential of this joy is peace—that peace which passeth all understanding. It is the highest note in the ascending scale—first, the realizing sense of sin, then faith in Christ, who alone can forgive, then the sense of pardon which flows from pardon, then the joy which flows like living water out of the fountain of peace. It is this joy which begets that holy boldness and confidence which enables us to exclaim with Paul: "Who shall separate us from the love of God?" May this joy be our never failing possession.—Lutheran.
