BROKEN BOW, CUSTER COUNTY, NEBRASKA, THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 27, 1902.--EIGHT PAGES.

NO. 37

Get Married in My Rings.

Wedding rings are lucky rings, and the bride who has one of my rings on her finger, is wedded to a reliable man, because he came to a reliable store, bought a reliable ring at a reliable price—straws which indicate that he will make a reliable husband. Wedding and engagement rings made to order, if you desire something special.

D. T. Mortimer of Walworth was a welcome caller at this office Monday. Mr. Mortimer was formerly of Monroe Iowa, but he has been a resident of Nebraska since 1870, which beats our record three years.

The attention of our readers is called to our special offer of the life of William McKinley, by Murat Halsted, and other prominent men, and the REPUBLICAN for $1.50. We furnish both for the retail price of the book. Send in your order at once.

The casket in which the remains of Mike Shanley were buried, here a couple weeks ago was a metallic casket with heavy plate glass in the cover, net weight 650 pounds. It is said to have been one of the first ever deposited in either of the cemeteries here.

Nervous children are almost always thin children. The "out-door-boy" is seldom nervous. WHITE'S CREAM VERMIFUGE is the best preventive of nervousness. It strengthens the system and assists to that sort of flesh, which creates strength and power of endurance. Price, 25 cents. Ed. McComas, Broken Bow and Merna.

Members of the county board G. H. Thorpe, H. P. Savage, John Conley, Geo. Greenwalt and Alvin Daily went to Fremont Monday night of last week to attend the annual State meeting of Supervisors. They returned Thursday night. They gained some information that will in time, if followed up will be worth dollars to Custer county.

Geo. Schmidt, one of Custer county's prosperous farmers reports that he has a good Durham cow that is worth keeping. She is now thirteen years old and would not bring very much money on the market, but $100 won't buy her. She has raised fifteen calves. In the last three years she has had twins each year, five of which were heifers. The last two, which are heifers and only a few days old look exactly alike.

Every subscriber and purchaser of The Sunday Inter Ocean March 2 will receive a souvenir group of Prince Henry and his entire family. The picture will be a beautiful souvenir of the Prince's tour of the United States, and especially of his visit in Chicago, where elaborate preparations are being made for his reception. The group is artistically finished and is one of the most valuable of the art supplements issued by the Inter Ocean. The edition will be limited, and therefore it behooves newsdealers and all others who wish to secure this picture to order at once.

The Central Telephone Co. of Broken Bow is putting in the Strongburg instrument in the place of the ones now in use. All new phones will be of that class. They are quite an improvement that the customers will appreciate.

There are several citizens of the city that would do well to heed the warning visited on them by the object lesson recently experienced in the city and leave off their frequent tipling. No good can come from the excessive use of intoxicants.

The special meetings in progress at the Baptist church is drawing a full house every night. Evangelist Bentley is an earnest and enthusiastic speaker, a splendid singer and is getting well into the greens of his audiences. A good work is anticipated. Come out and hear him.

Capt Burnham went to Denver, Colorado, Monday to visit his daughters. He writes, Mine Host, C. H. Kennedy of the Commercial that he arrived there on schedule time and that Mrs. King was at the depot to meet him. His many friends here wish the captain a pleasant visit.

Supt. Lewis has been out of town for the past two week visiting schools in the west and southwest part of the county. He will return by the way of Merna Saturday, where he will hold a teachers meeting on that day. The office is being well looked after in his absence by his assistant.

Every business man of Broken Bow who can possibly do so should arrange to attend the Farmers Institute March 5, part of the time at least and manifest his interests in the producers of the county. It will be time well spent even should you have to close your places of business for a time to do it.

Don't let the hand of time paint wrinkles on your face. Keep young, by keeping the blood pure and the digestive organs in a healthful condition. HERBINE will do this. Health is youth, disease and sickness brings old age. Price, 50 cents. Ed. McComas, Broken Bow and Merna.

A Prolific Hog.

H. W. George of Georgetown who about a year ago engaged in the business of raising hogs and poultry, on a ranch he fitted up for that purpose on the Loup has a sow with a good record. He purchased a thoroughbred Duroc Jersey of Mr. Smith of the Adams ranch about June 20, 1901. Some time in January 1901, she had fourteen pigs, again September 1 of the same year she had fourteen more. Again on February 17, 1902 she had 18 more, making forty six pigs in one year and one month. Of the last litter, thirteen are alive at this writing. Mr. George says he realizes that this is a pretty big pig story and he would not venture to tell it had he not a number of witnesses to the fact that will bear him out.

Ferguson Not Guilty.

At the preliminary trial last Thursday of Chris Bishop and Elisha Ferguson who were held on the charge of stealing thirteen hogs from Jas. Byeler of Wayne township, Burhop was bond over for his appearance in the district court and Ferguson was released. There seems to have been quite an expensive blunder upon the part of some one in sending the sheriff out to Kiowa Washington to arrest an innocent man, besides it was a great inconvenience if not expense to Mr. Ferguson.
