The March "American Boy"

The March number of this best of all boys' magazines, The American Boy (Sprague Publishing Co., Detroit, Michigan,) lies before us. The front cover has a full page illustration of a boy spearing fish and it will appeal to all lovers of out-door sports, old and young alike. It has its usual number of interesting stories; the principal ones being: "A School Lookout," by D. B. Robinson, "Cuthbert's Rattler," by Edgar D. Price; "A Night in the North," by Frank Baird; "A Grandmotherly Lark," by Minna Stanwood; "Toby," a story for "Little Boys," by Roberts Silvay. The second installment of "Trooper Stork," by Will Levington Comfort, appears in this number. The true story of "The true story of "Casabianca,' by Louise Jamison; a story of the "Deep Sea," by Collison Fleming.

Other interesting and handsomely illustrated articles are: "The Pioneer American Ostrich Farmer," "A Boy's Relief Society;" "Two Boys at the Passion Play of Oberammergu," by Harry Steele Morrison; "The Boy with an Aim;" The Story of the Smithsonian;" "The Whipping Boy of Olden Time;" A Boy's Visit to an Alligator Farm;" "Familiar Talks with Boys" and many others.

The special departments are as interesting and instructive as ever and cannot fail but strike a boy's hobby. A few of the many departments are "Boys in Games and Sports;" "The Boys Library;" "Boys in the home, Church and School;" "The Boy Stamp and Coin Collector," "Boys and Animals;" "For Boys to Think About;" Boys as Money Makers and Money Savers;" "The Order of The American Boy;" "The Boy Photographer;" "The Boy Candy Maker;" "The Agassiz Association;" "The Boy's Garden." Puzzle Department, etc., etc.

Handsome illustrations adorn every page. The subscription price is $1.00 per annum and is published by THE SPRAGUE PUBLISHING COMPANY, Detroit, Michigan.

To Those Who Suffer With Cancer

(The Bible Advocate.)

DEAR FRIENDS:—It is with gratitude that I recommend to you the old cancer doctor, J. H. Powell, of Bertram, Tex. I noticed his ad in the Advocate, a d determined to write him, which I did at once and received his treatment that cured me of a large troublesome cancer upon my nose of six years standing. Christian friend, if you suffer with cancer I advise you to write him at once. His treatment is no fake, for as it cured me of such a standing, it will certainly cure you without a doubt. I notice also his townsmen recommend him as a scientific cancer doctor and a gentleman in every respect. He cures them all, money or no money. He will not let a poor person suffer. My cancer came out all in a solid lump and left a cavity which soon healed up by the aid of his salve. If any doubt it please write me. Very Respectfully,

MRS. M. A. FULKERSON,
Allerton, Iowa.

In the District Court, Custer County, Nebraska.
John Collier, plaintiff, vs. Daniel Harris, etal, defendants.

To Caroline Haeger, and ——— Haeger, whose first name is unknown, but who is the husband of the said Caroline Haeger, non-resident defendants.

You, and each of you, will take notice that on the 3rd day of February 1902, the plaintiff John Collier filed his petition in the District Court of Custer County, Nebraska against you and each of you, and other defendants, the object and prayer of which are to foreclose two certain mortgages executed by Daniel Harris and Kate M. Harris to the Iowa Mortgage Co., both of which mortgages are now owned and held by said plaintiff, and the first of said mortgages was given by the said Daniel Harris and Kate M. Harris to said Iowa Mortgage Co. upon the N. E. ¼ of Section 18, Township 17, Range 17 in Custer county, Nebraska, to secure the payment of a certain note for the sum of $500.00 dated August 12 1887, due September 1, 1892. There is now due upon said mortgage first mentioned $500.00 with interest thereon at 10 per cent from September 1st, 1892, and said other mortgage mentioned and described in said petition was given to secure the payment of a note of $500.00 dated December 31st, 1889 due January 1, 1895, and said mortgage was given upon the S. W. ¼ of Section 17, Township 17, Range 17 in Custer County, Nebraska, and there is due upon said last mentioned note, the sum of $500.00 together with interest thereon from the first day of January 1893, and for which said sums with interest thereon, plaintiff prays that said mortgages may be foreclosed and the several sums due upon said two notes and mortgages be ascertained and fixed by the Court and decreed to be first mortgage liens upon said several tracts of land and that it be decreed that the defendants be required to pay said several sums, together with interest thereon and the costs of this suit, within twenty days from the date of the entry of the decree in this case, or in default thereof, that said premises may be severally appraised and sold by the sheriff as upon execution to satisfy said several amounts so found due.

You and each of you are required to answer said petition on or before Monday the 24th day of March 1902.

Dated February 3rd 1902.

JOHN COLLIER, Plaintiff
