MR. WINK - MR. BLINK

Blink no more. When your eyes tire and ache, when they become "watery" and smart, when you must "blink" to get clear vision, when you "blink" in a bright light, when you see better with one eye closed, when "Crow's feet" first appear, when nature thus warns—that's the time to take measures to preserve your eyes, and prevent complicated eye troubles. Have them examined at once by a competent optician. My customers are my best advertisements. Will you be one.

A Correction.

In the matter of the T. J. E. etal petition for a bridge across the middle Loup river that came up for consideration at the recent session of the county board the record does not show that the minority report which favored the granting, the petition was seconded by Geo. Greenwalt of that district or that his vote was cast in favor of the bridge. I am officially informed that the record was incomplete in that instance and that Mr. Greenwalt seconded the minority report and voted for it and that it was principally through his personal efforts that the bridge was ordered with the majority report against him.—Ed.

DIED.

This community was shocked yesterday morning to learn of the death of Miss Minnie Kerr, who passed away at her home at 12:15 yesterday morning. Although she had been in very poor health for several years past, and had been a great sufferer, the last change for the worse did not come until Wednesday morning, when she was taken dangerously ill and her life was despaired of. She was conscious until the last, and patient and loving to those about her. She has lived in this community from early childhood and has many friends who sincerely mourn her loss. She was sixteen years of age, lacking six days. The funeral was conducted this afternoon by Rev. Richards of Broken Bow. The bereaved relatives have the sympathy of all in their sad bereavement.—Ansley Chronicle.

The deceased was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Kerr, who were among the early settlers of the Elk Creek country and for several years have resided in Ansley. Mr. and Mrs. Kerr have the sincere sympathy of a host of friends in Custer county.
