NO. 6.

ON HANDS

TEACHERS' WATCHES.

Now in the midst of school duties you must have time, and accurate time, if you would be successful in your calling. It's a duty you owe to your pupils as well as to yourself, to have correct time, to teach the young mind the value of time, and the need of always being on time. Watches of all kinds, designs and prices—to suit your taste and purse.

The Supreme court has issued another decision on the fire and police board case of Omaha in which it reverses its former opinion and orders the Governor to appoint the police board.

L. E. Pickett of Callaway made this office a friendly visit Saturday and had his subscription credited up to 1903. Mr. Pickett for the past two years has been associated with the Callaway flouring mill.

Mrs. L. E. Kirkpatrick returned Sunday from Washington where she has been visiting for several weeks. Miss Holcomb of Indiana who accompanied her returned with her and stopped off to visit relatives in this vicinity.

M. C. Warrington of Mason City was a county seat visitor yesterday. Mr. Warrington reports that the winter wheat and rye crop which is unusually large in his vicinity is all in shock and in fine shape and that oats harvest is under way.

The suit brought against the B. & M. railroad company by Mrs. Ursula Tuttle for the loss of her husband's life in the recent Hyannis wreck has been settled on payment by the company of $3,750. The case was tried in the Omaha courts by mutual agreement of both parties.—The Alliance Herald.

W. H. Osborne Sr. left us a sample of his potatoes Monday that caps anything we have yet seen. They are of the early Ohio variety. From one stalk were five large potatoes that grew under the ground and on the vine which had five prongs, none of which are over twelve inches long are 36 well formed potatoes varying in size from a large pea to a quail's egg.

Prof. Roush has bought the double building, formerly occupied by Wilson & Drake, the drug store building, formerly occupied by Ed. McComas, on the north side, and are having them fitted up for his business college. When complete, they will be convenient and pleasant rooms. The hotel building he used last year he will use for a conservatory.

John Decius has gone to Kansas with the view of finding a location.

Mrs. T. Williams of Ansley came up Tuesday to attend the Teachers Institute.

Mrs. F. D. Gallup and children went to Hot Springs, South Dakota last week on a pleasure trip.

Con. Gibson, who has been sojourning in Texas for several months, returned the latter part of last week.

John Cavene of Georgetown, made this office a friendly call yesterday. He reports crops fine in his locality.

New street crossings, that have long been needed, are being put in on Fourth Avenue and Cedar Street.

L. E. Kirkpatrick, who went to Washington a short time ago, we understand thinks of locating in that state in the near future.

W. C. Luce and wife who have been visiting in Ill., for the past three months, returned home last week. Mr. Luce reports a wet time in the Succor state.
