Local Mention.

Chas. S. Martin went to Omaha Tuesday morning.

Henry Kelley of Anselmo, was a city visitor Friday.

W. H. Comstock of Comstock, was a city visitor Monday.

Mrs. Geo. Purcell left Tuesday morning on a visit at Crete, Neb.

F. M. Rublee was a passenger to Central City Tuesday morning.

J. G. Brenizer sold six farms Saturday—all to Custer county citizens.

Mrs. Hattie Talbot is visiting with her mother at Tekamah, Nebraska.

Chas. Johnson, wife and children, of Chicago, are visiting at Westerville, with relatives.

Phy Wymore of Callaway, was in our city Friday. This office acknowledges a friendly call.

W. P. True of Georgetown, was a city visitor Monday. He reports crops fine in his locality.

Judge Armour and wife went to Grand Island Wednesday morning returning Wednesday night.

Mesdames Molyneux and Peter Dierks left Friday morning for Dome Lake, Wyoming, for a few days outing.

A. F. Ingraham left Monday morning on a business trip to West Virginia. He expects to be gone about four weeks.

Mrs. Xanders, wife of the Episcopal minister of this city, left Tuesday morning on a visit to San Francisco, California.

A fine musicale was given at the opera house last Thursday night in honor of the teachers that were attending the institute.

Misses Lottie and Florence Richards went to Brewster last Friday morning to spend a few days visiting with Mrs. Mary Rankin on the ranch.

The Anselmo Citizen is authority for the statement that J. M. Ausberry, formerly publisher of the Anselmo Advocate, will start a paper at Waco, Nebraska.

Rev. M. G. Bentley, the evangelist, and wife, were the guests of Rev. Richards Monday. They were on their way to Merina to hold a series of tent meetings.

The teachers in attendance at the institute, very happily surprised Supt. Lewis last Thursday, by presenting him with a fine book case, worth about $25.

Peter Barnes of Rose Valley, left at this office Saturday, a bundle of oats from a field of thirty acres that he estimates will make sixty bushels to the acre. They are fine.

S. K. Warrick and wife, who have been west for the past three weeks, returned home last Friday morning. They spent most of their time in Colorado. Mr. Warrick reports a pleasant time.

S. C. Waidron of Over, republican nominee for representative of this district, was in the city Saturday to attend the meeting of the stockmen's association. This office acknowledges a friendly call.

Jas. Largey, who has been at London, Ohio, for several months at the bedside of his mother, returned home last week. He reports that his mother has greatly improved, and that the physician in charge predicts her entire recovery.

Miss Jessie Smith, a graduate of the Callaway high school, has been employed to teach the 7th grade in the Broken Bow schools for the coming year. Miss Jessie has the reputation of being an excellent teacher, and we are glad to hear of her success.—Callaway Courier.

Mrs. Longfellow, an old resident of the county, died Saturday night, July 26, and was buried Sunday afternoon, in the Merina cemetery beside her husband, who had preceded her several years, to the farm from which no traveler returns. She was the mother of John Longfellow, Mrs. Wesley Thomas, and Mrs. Dick Bryan. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. Myers.

Jar rubbers, the best, at J. C. Bowen's.

Jules Haumont of Elton, has bought H. W. Albert's farm near Weissert. Consideration $2,500.

WANTED—College students to board, and rooms to rent. S-11 MRS. EVA MARTIN.

Hod Burnham of Brownlee, came down Tuesday morning to attend the funeral of Mr. Gleim's little boy.

Mrs. Geo. Brown returned to her home in Seward Sunday morning, after visiting friends and relatives for several weeks.

Ras. Anderson sold six farms Monday. At this rate the non-resident land of Custer county will soon be a thing of the past.

Mr. Groat of Broken Bow, has placed an order with the Anselmo Acetylene Gas Co., for a generator with 100 light capacity.—Anselmo Chronicle.

Walt George and wife, and Geo. Dewey and wife, went to Lincoln on 42, Tuesday morning to attend a meeting of the county treasurers and county clerks. They returned Wednesday night.

Mrs. Fred D. Gallup, of Broken Bow, accompanied by her two children, arrived Tuesday, on a visit at the home of Walter Gallup. Before returning home Mrs. Gallup expects to visit Hot Springs.—Chadron Journal.

L. E. Kirkpatrick returned from Washington last Thursday morning. He visited Spokane, Seattle, and other towns while gone. His cousin, O. R. Holcomb, an attorney of Ritzville, Washington, returned with him.

Thos. Harwood of Elk Creek, was a city visitor Saturday. Mr. Harwood is among the unfortunate who lost his small grain July 5, by hail. He thinks his corn will come out from the effects alright, if not overtaken with frost.

Claude Wahl, who went to The Dalles, Washington, with A. A. Collom last spring, arrived home last Thursday night. He came home by the way of Idaho, where D. W. Thompson is located, and went around by the way of St. Louis before returning.

Herbert Cummins of Berwyn, strayed into our office Wednesday. He reports that his neighbor, Mr. Evans, had finished threshing 22 acres of winter that yield 50 bushels per acre. This heavy yield of grain will easily pay for the land on which it was raised. In many places the yield is 40 bushels per acre.—Anselmo Chronicle.

D. H. Bowen of Odgensburg, New York, who has been visiting for several days with his son J. C., met with quite a painful accident last Sunday morning. By a mis-step at the top of the stairway he fell and slid to the bottom of the steps. He was considerably bruised and so crippled that he has not been able to get out. He is able however to move about the house and in a few days hopes to get around as usual.

An advertisement planted in the REPUBLICAN seldom fails to bring good results. An instance that helps to establish this is the pocket book advertised last week by J. W. Clay. Monday Mrs. Jane Taylor near Berwyn returned the pocket book and money which she had found ten days previous. She saw the advertisement in the REPUBLICAN Saturday night and on the Monday following called on Mrs. Clay to describe the pocket book and contents which she did to Mrs. Taylor's satisfaction.

Prof. E. A. Garlich's will give a concert at the opera house, the 12th of August. He has nineteen people in the orchestra, all of whom are fine musicians. Prof. Garlich has been engaged by Prof. Roush as instructor in the musical department of the Broken Bow Business and Normal College. The members of his orchestra are his pupils. The public is especially invited to attend this concert, that they may judge of the musical ability of Prof. Garlich, who is soon to be identified with the educational interests of our city. Tickets are now on sale at the post office and Groat's store. Reserved seats, 50c; general admission, 35c; gallery, 25c.

Paul Haumont of Elton, was a business caller at this office yesterday.

Rev. S. W. Richards will preach his last sermon in the Baptist church next Sunday at 11:00 a. m.

John Lowe, who has been visiting for some time with his daughter Mrs. Fannie Elliott, at Torrington, Wyoming, returned home yesterday morning.

J. M. Kimberling, wife and children and Mrs. Dr. Day left this morning for Des Moines, Iowa. Mr. Kimberling will visit at Knoxville, his old home and other points in the Hawkeye state while gone.

The resignation of Rev. Richards as pastor of the Baptist church was accepted at a regular meeting of the church last night. Rev. Richards and family have made many admiring friends while residents of the city, that regret that he has decided to give up the pastorate. He is an able preacher and a man of culture and a splendid citizen in every sense of the word.

H. H. Hussey, formerly of this city, but now of Standbury, Missouri arrived in the city yesterday morning, and will spend a few days renewing old acquaintances while looking after his interests in this county. We were sorry to learn from Mr. Hussey that his wife is dead, having died last March, with cancer of the breast. She was a most excellent lady and was most highly respected by those who formed her acquaintance during her short residence here.

The Grand Tournament.

Tuesday morning, the members of the Broken Bow Hose and the Hook and Ladder companies accompanied by a number of citizens went to Grand Island to attend the fireman's state tournament. Fruit Day at the County Fair.

E. F. Stevens of the Crete Nurseries has decided to make a display of fruit at the county fair. Thursday will be fruit day and Mr. Stevens intends to make the day one long to be remembered by those in attendance by distributing free to all the best fruit that his nurseries affords at this season of the year.

MARRIED.

KERLIN-ROBERTSON—A very pretty home wedding was solemnized Wednesday at high noon at the home of the brides parents when Miss Katharine Robertson became the bride of Dr. J. D. Kerlin, a prominent citizen of Whiting, Iowa. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Elmer Fife, the bridal party standing under a canopy of white chiffon, white sweet peas and ferns suspended from the ceiling of the bow window by broad bands of white ribbon. The bride was attired in a dainty gown of white tulle and white tulle tulle train. She wore a tulle veil fastened with a diamond brooch, the gift of the bridegroom and carried bride roses and ferns. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Christine Robertson, who wore white chiffon over blue tulle and carried La France roses and ferns. Mr. James Robertson, Jr., acted as best man and little Harold Murray was ring bearer. After the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served in the dining room which was decorated with pink sweet peas and fern, the guests being seated at two long tables. At the bride's table the color scheme was green and white. From the chandelier ferns combined with white sweet peas were carried in graceful festoons to each of the four corners of the table. A low bowl filled with sweet peas formed the center piece. The guests table was in pink and green. About 30 guests were present. Mr. and Mrs. Kerlin left on the afternoon train for Colorado Springs for a month's visit, after which they will be at home in Whiting.

Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Beal entertained informally Tuesday evening in honor of Miss Robertson and Dr. Kerlin.

Mr. and Mrs. Eagleson's beautiful country home at the Foote ranch was thrown open on Monday in honor of Miss Robertson and Dr. Kerlin. A moonlight luncheon was served on the broad veranda; the table decorations being sweet peas. About 30 guests were present.—Daily Statesman, Boise City, Idaho.

DIED.

GLEIM—Saturday night, Aug. 2, at 12 o'clock, Charnal J., the son of Mr. and Mrs. N. Gleim, aged two years and twenty-one days.

The deceased had only been sick for a week and all that human aid could do was of no avail. He was the only child and his loss is very hard for the fond parents to bear. In their great grief they have the sincere sympathy of their many friends and acquaintances. The funeral services were conducted Tuesday afternoon from the residence, Rev. S. W. Richards conducting the services.

CARD OF THANKS.

We hereby extend our thanks to all our neighbors and friends, who so kindly helped us during the sickness and death of our dear mother.

MR. & MRS. J. R. LONGFELLOW, MR. & MRS. WESLEY THOMAS, MR. & MRS. R. S. BRYAN.

CARD OF THANKS.

We hereby extend our sincere and heart-felt thanks to the citizens of Broken Bow for their kind assistance and sympathy during the sickness, death and burial of our darling baby.

MR. AND MRS. N. GLEIM.
