Local Mention.

A. R. Humphrey was a Lincoln visitor yesterday.

W. P. and Chas. Day of Oconto were city visitors Tuesday.

Rev. Henry Kelley and wife are holding tent meetings this week in Custer Center.

J. W. White returned the first of the week from a visit of three weeks at Schuyler, this state.

Mrs. F. D. Gallup and two children spent Sunday and Monday visiting friends at Seneca.

Mr. Sherr of St. Louis, brother-in-law of W. G. Purcell is visiting in the city. He arrived Tuesday morning.

L. E. Cole left Friday for Boise City, Idaho to visit his parents and other relatives there. He may conclude to remain.

Mrs. M. M. Parkhurst has decided to return to Oklahoma with her son Thomas, where her daughter, Mrs. Herring also lives. She will rent her property here.

C. S. Osborne, who holds the position of foreman on the Grand Island Press, came up Saturday night, accompanied by his wife and daughter to visit relatives. They returned home Monday.

The greatest sensation of the year in the circus line is John O'Brien's horse ballet, the latest spectacular feature of Ringling Brothers' World's Greatest Shows. This is the most magnificent horse display ever conceived.

Miss Bertha and Ruby McCoy of Crawford, are visiting with Mrs. F. D. Gallup for a couple of weeks, when they will return. Mrs. Gallup will accompany them as far as Hyannis, where they will take in two days of the Cow Boy Carnival at that place.

Simpson & Drapers merry-go-round was hauled to Broken Bow yesterday. They will remain at the county seat two weeks, then go to Hyannis, to be at the cowboy carnival, which commences on the 11th of September. They will then go to Alliance for the big races October 6 to 9.—Anselv Chronicle.

J. G. Brenizer went to Lincoln today to the state fair.

The state fair is in session this week. It is reported as being one of the best ever held.

Mrs. M. Kelsey who was reported seriously ill last week is very much improved.

Mrs. Ed. McComas who has been quite sick several days, we are pleased to report is convalescent.

C. W. Young of Maine, is visiting in the city with his cousin, F. H. Young. Mr. Young has large property interests in the county.

Mrs. J. J. Snyder returned home Friday night from her old home in Pennsylvania, where she has been on a visit for the last two months.

Prof. Bruner of the state University is to be one of the speakers at the old settlers picnic to be held at Westerville in Welsh's grove Saturday September 13.

Claude and Cam Wahl have leased the Schroder laundry building with the view of putting in a steam laundry. The carpenters went to work on the building yesterday morning to repair and fit it up for use.

G. Hiser of Mason City was nominated for supervisor in district No. 7. Mr. Hiser has filled the position ably the past two years and is better qualified by his experience for the next term. The selection was the right thing.

A popular feature of Ringling Brothers' circus is the preliminary concert given by Ganweiler's military band, in the great hippodrome pavilion, during the hour preceding the performance. There are forty members of this band, and each one is a soloist.

The Business college was opened last Monday. Prof. Roush informs us that the enrollment is in excess of 80, which is a good showing for the first week. He has more instructors and pays them better wages than any other schools of the kind in the state.

A. E. Anderson has moved to the Haerberle building two doors east of the Custer National Bank with his jewelry store. He has his room nicely fitted up and fine stock of goods where he invites his old customers as well as new ones to visit him.

Thirty great principal and menagerie riders are with Ringling Bros. circus, which shortly exhibits in this city. Among the most famous are the Davenport, the Hobsons, Frederick and Augusta Schadel, Julia Lowande, John and Michael Rooney, Rhoda Royal, Madame Royal, Charles Carroll and the famous prince of horsemen, John O'Brien.

Ringling Bros., aquarium, which is one of many features in the zoological display of the World's Greatest Shows, comprise a wonderfully complete collection of hippopotami, sea lions, seals, Polar bears and other water-frequenting animals, together with a superb display of water-fowl, including scores of pelicans, storks, flamingoes and wild game.

Judge Reese, of Broken Bow, while attending the reunion in Anselv last week, lost a valuable G. A. R. badge, which was presented to him a year ago by the national commander of the G. A. R. For 25 cents he had an advertisement published in The Chronicle, and Wednesday it was returned to him, Horace Welch having found it. More evidence that advertising pays.—Anselv Chronicle.

W. T. Auld of Lincoln was a city visitor Tuesday. Recognizing the sir name as being familiar, we inquired of the gentleman if he knew Tom Auld of Knoxville. To our surprise he informed us that he was the man. We were well acquainted with him and his people when we were boys. Thirty years had intervened since we last met and neither of us knew the other. Mr. Auld is now President of the City National Bank of Lincoln and also has a bank in Red Cloud. The City National of Lincoln in its July statement showed a capital stock of $100,000, a surplus and undivided profit of $31,189.25, with deposits to the amount of $737,335.30. His brother J. H. is Cashier of their bank in Lincoln.

Austin Daniels and Miss Kate Baker were married at Anselv last Thursday.

Almer young and Mrs. Flora E. Ford of Gates, were granted license to wed last Tuesday by Judge Armour.

The Woman's Suffrage association will serve lunch, show day, Sept. 9, in the room first door north of REPUBLICAN office.

LOST—A coat between the depot and my house. The finder will confer a favor by returning it. E. WEISSENREDER.

For lack of space the proceedings of Socialist convention and school officers meeting Saturday will not appear until next week.

Prof. and Mrs. Macy are the proud parents of a boy that arrived at their home yesterday. Mother and child getting along nicely.

Fred Coon and wife, of Manly are in the city. They were called here last week by the serious illness of Mrs. Coon's mother, Mrs. Kelsey.

Rev. W. L. Markland of Anselv, and J. A. and Bert Hall of Mason City, made this office a friendly call Monday. They were on their way home from Arnold, where they attended the Custer Baptist Association.

MARRIED—Tuesday September 2, D. Vinsant of Callaway and Mrs. Gladys Walton of this city, Judge Armour officiating. The REPUBLICAN extends congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Vinsant and wish them happiness and prosperity.

Thos. Parkhurst arrived Tuesday morning to see his father, whom he just received word by mail last Sunday morning was sick. The telegrams sent of the death of his father last week never reached him and he was not apprised of his father's death until he arrived in the city.

J. C. Predmore of Walworth, left with us last Thursday samples of winter wheat he raised on his farm this season. One variety is the "Superlative" a large red head, big berry and is said to yield under ordinary circumstances from 45 to 50 bushels to the acre. The other variety is the "frost proof" a large white head well filled and ripens early. It is also said to be prolific in yield.

The Custer Baptist Association was held at Arnold last Friday, Saturday and Sunday. It was well attended and the sessions were unusually interesting. Twelve of the thirteen churches of the Association were represented. The Association next year will be held at Lodi. The Officers elected for the ensuing year are D. M. Amsberry, moderator, Mrs. J. H. Kerr, Clerk and J. A. Hall, treasurer.

The funeral of M. M. Parkhurst was not held until last Saturday afternoon. His remains were held until that date that some of the children might arrive. But in that they were disappointed. Mrs. Parkhurst received a letter from John and Joe who were driving the team through that their father left and they were than at Crawford. The older son in Montana telegraphed Friday evening he could not come.

J. W. Brewer of Callaway, formerly of this city, died Tuesday. His remains were brought here for burial yesterday. The funeral services were held yesterday afternoon in the M. E. church, Rev. Trites officiating. He was buried with military honors by the G. A. R. of this post. Soldiers of the Spanish war served as guards of honor. The deceased was among the early settlers of West Table and had the high esteem of all who knew him.

Prof. E. A. Garlich, who is engaged by the Broken Bow Normal, is here, and ready to give instructions on Piano, Viola, Mandolin and Guitar and vocal. Private instructions to all. For terms apply at Music Room opposite the Normal School. He solicits your patronage and feels assured he will give entire satisfaction to all. A few more private pupils are desired to occupy his time. Special attention given to advanced pupils as beginners.

BROKEN BOW NORMAL COLLEGE.

School Enrollment.

The following is the enrollment of the pupils in the Broken Bow schools, Sept. 2, 1902:

No pupils will be permitted to enter the first grade after the second week of school, except those who are able to enter classes already formed.

Old Settlers Meeting.
An old settlers picnic will be held in Hall's Grove, at Mason City, Thursday, September 11. A program has been arranged for the occasion and a pleasant time is in store for all who attend. The vicinity of Mason was one of the first settlements in the county, and a number of the pioneers are still there to recount the events of early days.

A correction.
Last week our locals gave L. E. Cole credit with painting the Bank of Commerce building. It was a mistake. Ray Gadd is the artist that is entitled to the credit. He is this week painting the Rublee residence.

Church Services.
BAPTIST CHURCH.
Sunday school at 10 a. m. Preaching at 11 a. m. and 8 p. m. by Rev. Richards. Junior B. Y. P. U. at 3 p. m. The public is cordially invited.

M. E. CHURCH.
The M. E. church observes next Sunday as "Veteran Preachers Day." We are fortunate in having with us on that occasion one of them in Rev. J. Buckley who will assist in the service and preach in the evening. The pastor will preach in the morning on "Our Retired Soldiers." Text: 1 Tim. 5:8. All are invited.

W. P. CHURCH.
Whether as result of providence or chance, we were very fortunate last Lord's day in the enjoyment of a beautiful day for our open air services. The program was rendered interesting and helpful from first to last, and in addition to gratitude for the faithful efforts of our local members, those who enjoyed the day are especially grateful to the visiting brethren: Eubank, Hilton and McDonald as well as the members of the Mandolyn Orchestra for their kindly assistance in making the day an enjoyable one. Nor were the brethren our only benefactors; for when we listened to Mrs. Eubank's paper on the pioneer work in the County we were made ashamed of ever being discouraged by present obstacles, as well as being spurred to more unselfish service by Mrs. McDonald's paper on "What Shall Offer to the Lord?"

The usual indoor services will be resumed next Lord's day. A cordial invitation to all. C. V. ALLISON, Minister.

U. B. CHURCH.
Sunday school to a. m. Subject, "Deliverance from Temptation." Y. P. C. U. 7:30. Leader, Miss Madge Hersh. Preaching 8 p. m. Educational topic. All are invited.

CARD OF THANKS.
We desire to thank the kind friends and neighbors and also Mrs. Luce for their kindness they showed us through the sickness and burial of our dear beloved husband and father.

MRS. R. A. PARKHURST, AND CHILDREN.

Raised From the Dead.
C. W. Landis, "Porter" for the Oriental Hotel, Chanute, Kan., says: "I know what it was to suffer with neuralgia, deed I did, and I got a bottle of Ballard's Snow Liniment and I was 'raised from the dead.' I tried to get some, but before I had 'deposited' my bottle, I was cured entirely. I am tellin' de truth too." 25c, 50c and $1.00 at Ed. McComas' Broken Bow and Merna.
