Ben Greible of Walworth was in the city Saturday and remained over Sunday.

Chas. Hammond shipped a car of cattle to the South Omaha market Tuesday.

The C. W. B. M. Auxiliary will meet with Mrs. C. A. Chapin Tuesday October 2.

Mrs. Mabel Manuel of West Union, is visiting with her sister Mrs. Reynolds, this week.

John Pernie, Supt., of the county farm was transacting business with the county board Tuesday.

Jas. Fairfield of Mason City came up Monday night to assume his duties as marshal of the county fair.

The late rains has put the ground in excellent condition for fall plowing and many will improve the opportunity.

John Robinson of Fleming Valley bought another car of cattle Tuesday to feed. He is now feeding two car loads.

C. C. Connelly of Gandy is in the city visiting with his sisters Mrs. C. S. Martin, Mrs. S. Caywood and Mrs. McClain who was here from Iowa on a visit.

The rail road rain gauge shows two and three fourths inches of rail fall during the last rain. Haying is temporarily suspended, but fall plowing is being pushed.

B. O. Sweezy arrived in the city Monday to look after business affairs. He is now located at Omaha and is engaged in the hotel business in the Capital hotel.

Rev. J. R. Woods and daughter of Mason City were friendly callers at this office yesterday. They were on their way home from the Holcomb settlement where they had been for the past week.

If you are interested in the grain market and will send us your name we will send you our Market letter and the Chicago Daily Post free of charge. Updike Commission Company, Omaha, Nebr.

E. K. Litchenburger, the horse fancier, has his pacer on the grounds at Broken Bow and expects to bring home a little more cash as a result of the fair races, than he will spend taking in the same.—Callaway Queen.

Rev. C. W. Bohart of Hoosier was a friendly caller at this office Tuesday. He was on his way to Gibbon to attend the U. B. conference. Owing to the roads being so muddy he left his team and went on the train the rest of the distance.

I. F. Miller residing a few miles west of town has just finished threshing 4,285 bushels of rye, 631 bushels of wheat and 590 bushels of barley which took a steam threshing crew a solid week to grind out. The total amount of grain was raised on two hundred acres of ground, and at present prices would almost pay for the land. "Stand up for Nebraska."—Callaway Queen.

Jas. Dare of Lillian was among the city visitors yesterday.

W. P. True of Georgetown is in the city attending the fair.

Mrs. Diah Woodruff of Georgetown is visiting in the city this week.

FOR SALE—Residence property with 3 rooms and large hall, good well, barn and 4 lots. Call at this office.

M. J. Amsberry of Milo, H. A. Amsberry of Durham and Frank Crouch of Knoxville, Iowa arrived in this city yesterday on a visit. They are among the prosperous farmers of the Hawkeye state. The two former are uncles of ours.

H. McBurnie has accepted the position as foreman on Reneau's ranch on the Middle Loup. He was in yesterday after a new mower and a hand. He says Mr. Reneau has five hundred head of fine cattle on the ranch of which 250 head are 3 and 4 years old steers.

R. P. Standford of Merna was in the city yesterday closing up a deal for another quarter of Custer county land. At the rate our own citizen are buying up the vacant land this season it will not be long until there will be no snags left for the new comer. It shows a healthy condition of affairs.

Mrs. Harry Day of Broken Bow came over on Tuesday's stage and took the train for Kearney. After leaving the train in that city she missed her purse, containing $16 in cash, two rings and her trunk check, and at last accounts had not succeeded in finding it.—Callaway Courier.

J. G. Leming came down from Deadwood Sunday morning to visit a short time with his family. He says that it has been unusually wet there and the work of sinking the shaft in his mine has been retarded, but work on it will be resumed in the near future. Mr. Leming expresses great confidence in his property proving alright when developed.

Last Sunday evening while Mr. and Mrs. Purcell of Kilmer settlement, west of Tallin Table, were on their way home from Joe Richardson's the wheel struck some obstruction and threw them out on the ground. Their two-year-old boy baby was so badly injured that it died before Dr. Robinson of Arnold, could reach their home.—Callaway Courier.

MARRIED.—Sept. 17th, Otis Shores Maud Loyd at the bride's home in the presence of 30 invited guests the bride is the oldest daughter of Jas. and Julia Loyd also are of the best workers in Bethel Union Baptist church. The groom is one of Snake Run's best enterprising young men. After the ceremony which was performed by J. R. Woods the guests were invited out to a beautiful supper. After spending the evening in pleasant conversation we all took our departure wishing bride and groom a long and happy life. Bride and groom received quite a number of valuable presents.—X.

While threshing at the home of his father, C. R. Krenz, near Dale, last Monday, Jos. Krenz lost two fingers, and had his hand badly mashed. He was tending separator when his glove caught in a chain on the grain elevator pulling his hand around the sprocket wheel. His cry for help caused the engine to be stopped but before the machine could be stopped his hand was badly mangled. He was brought to town at once and Drs. Morrow and Downing made an examination and amputated the third and fourth fingers; his hand was badly mashed across the palm, but the doctors hope to be able to avoid any further amputation and at the present writing the wounded member is healing nicely. Jos. has a host of friends who sadly regret his unfortunate accident and who one and all stand ready to assist him in every possible manner.—The Merna Round Up.

The agricultural display on the fair grounds from present indications will be the best for years. The fruit exhibit is first class. At this writing Wednesday evening the outlook is most favorable for a great fair. Owing to the rain the first of the week the fair will be continued over Saturday.

S. C. Waldron, the republican candidate for the legislature, came in from Over yesterday evening. Mr. Waldron is not only one of the substantial farmers of the southwest part of the county, but is worthy of the high position to which he aspires. His majority will be counted by the hundreds.

A. H. Copey, republican candidate for the next legislature yesterday afternoon to attend the County Fair. Mr. Copey is one of Custer county's most progressive farmers and his election to the legislature will be in the interest of the farmer as well as other matters of public interest.

The Nye Co. is holding dawn the boards at the opera house this week and giving the best of satisfaction. The illustrated songs and specialties are making a big hit. "To-night the moving pictures of "Cinderella and the Glass Slipper" as taken from the play in Drury Theater in London will be shown. Also several others.

Judge Kinkaid the republican nominee for congress is in the city. The judge is exceptionally well qualified for the position and is very popular where best known. His election is practically conceded. Those that want to make the acquaintance of the next congressman from the sixth district should see him while he is in the city.

This office acknowledges the receipt of Vol. 1 No. 9 of the Waco Guide, published by J. M. Amsberry formerly of Mason City and later of Ansley. We were not able to discover anything that indicated that the Guide is the advocate of any political party. We are led to infer that the Guide is neutral in politics which is an improvement over the Advocate of which J. M. was formerly publisher. The REPUBLICAN extends to the Guide and its publisher its best wishes for success. The Guide is a five column quarto and has a liberal advertising patronage.

MARRIED.—SHEPARD-CARR.—At the M. E. parsonage, Sunday September 21, Alfred Shepard and May Carr. Rev. Geo. P. Trites officiating. The bride wore a light gray dress trimmed with white silk and applica. The flowers were white coronations. The groom wore a suit of conventional black. Bridesmaid Emma Carr, Bridgroom, Mike O'Brien, wearing pink coronation. After the ceremony they drove back to the home of the brides mother, Mrs. Carr where a bountiful supper was served to 25 or 30 relatives and friends. The high contracting parties were the recipients of a number of valuable and useful presents. The groom had a house already furnished and they went to house keeping at once. The REPUBLICAN extends congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Shepard and wish them a long, happy and prosperous life.

M. L. Fries, the republican nominee for the state Senate arrived in the city last night from Arcadia to attend the Fair and make the acquaintance of the voters. Mr. Fries is a man exceptionally well qualified for the position and in ever respect worthy the support of the public. He should have 500 majority.

BUSINESS COLLEGE NEWS.

Miss Inez Sharp visited school last Friday afternoon.

Roy and Clifford Marquiss, both of Broken Bow, entered school last week.

School will be dismissed on Thursday, Friday and Saturday afternoons on account of the fair.

The social given to the college students by the Y. P. S. C. E. in the Opera House, Friday evening was a great success. The programme was particularly enjoyable.

Rev. Shetlar in company with Dr. Campbell of Iowa, called at the college Wednesday forenoon. Dr. Campbell expressed surprise at the size of the institution.

Great interest is shown and many entries are being made in various contests in fair exhibits for which Fries. Roush offers prizes aggregating sixty dollars in value. More than ten have entered into the penmanship contest.

Rev. Rending, the evangelist from the Presbyterian church, gave a short address to the students at the opening of school on last Monday afternoon. His earnestness and evident conviction gave great force to his remarks. His principal theme was student ideals.

DIED.

Howland, Saturday morning at the residence of his daughter Mrs. Pummell of this city, J. H. Howland.

The deceased was a resident of Oklahoma. He had been visiting here with his daughter for several months and had arranged to have started home some ten days or two weeks and was taken sick. During his visit here he made many admiring friends. He served four years in the union army. He was a member of the I. O. O. F. and his funeral was conducted in charge of that order Tuesday morning from the residence of his daughter. Another daughter of Oklahoma arrived Monday night from Oklahoma in time to attend the funeral.

HOGABOOM—At her home six miles west of the city, Wednesday Sept. 24th, 1902 at 5 p. m. Mrs. Annie, the wife of E. E. Hogaboom, age 36 The deceased had only been sick a short time and her friends of the city had not learned of her sickness until her death yesterday evening. She leaves a husband and several children to mourn her death. The funeral will be held at Custer Center at 3 o'clock this afternoon under the auspices of the M. E. A. Lodge of which she was a member in good standing and carried an insurance of $2000, in favor of her husband Rev. S. W. Richards will preach the sermon. The REPUBLICAN extends the sincere sympathy of the vicinity to the relatives in their great bereavement.

Westerville M. E. Circuit.

Sunday Sept. 28th will be a great day on Westerville circuit. A number of preachers on their way to the annual conference at Ord are expected to spend Sunday in the bounds of the circuit. An all day meeting will be held in the church at Westerville under charge of the pastor assisted by Revs. L. L. Thomas, C. C. McCaslin, J. Buckley and others. At Wesley Chapel, Rev. P. M. Case will be in charge, assisted by Rev. W. H. Hornaday, J. G. Hurlbut and others. Basket dinner at both places at noon, collections morning and evening. A financial statement will be made at both places at the evening service which will show not less than $1200 raised on the circuit for church purposes during the year. W. E. MATTHEWS, Pastor.
