on Sunday evening in place of W. C.
Miller, Pastor.

We learn that J. P. Staats of California, has sold his tree claim; who the purchaser was we did not hear.

Mattie Fodge went to the south east corner of the county last Thursday ready to begin her school this week.

Well after a long spell of Missouri weather, we have got back to our own Nebraska fall weather; and oh how glad!

The chicken season was ushered in, on Wednesday morning by the pop, pop, pop, of shot guns, reminding one of the Fourth of July.

Messrs. Kearney and J. A. Kellenbarger the Bow Thursday on a short visit here, having been away all summer sightseeing and visiting with relations and friends in Maine and other eastern points.

—Callaway Tribune.

Our citizens that attended the fair at Broken Bow are unanimous in the report that it was a very successful affair. Wm. Cramer had his running horses there, and they made an excellent showing.
—Arcadia Champion.

Roy Daniels of Westbro, Mo., has purchased the Howard Decious restaurant on the north side. We understand that Mr.
Decious has purchased a restaurant at Ravenna, which he will take charge of at once.

Lynn J. Butcher the 19 year old son of S. D. Butcher is a hustler in his business with no experience as a canvasser, he took orders last week for 18 farm views in 4 1/2 days and sold 21 Pioneer Histories.—The Citizen.

There will be a meeting of the Broken Bow Political Equality Club at the home of Mrs. C. H.
Jeffords on Friday evening Oct.
10th, for the purpose of electing officers for the ensuing year.
All members are requested to be present. JULIA WILLIS, Sec'y.

Those needing, glasses, or those having eye, ear, nose or throat trouble, should not fail to call on Dr. Seymour and his assistant at the Grand Central Hotel, October 25. The high terms in which his work is spoke of by his many patients and friends in this city, is sufficient guarantee of his ability to do all that he undertakes.

M. L. Fries was remembered in a very nice manner last week by the Jacob North Printing Company of Lincoln. Having a large plate of him they printed 300 zinc etchings and presented them to him. It is a splendid picture of Mr. Fries, having a fac-simile of his autograph below his picture.
Most of our business houses are adorned with one of these pictures and it is a beautiful example of loyalty to our home candidate.—

The Western Light & Fuel Co. received a complete outfit of plumbers tools and pipe yesterday, and are now ready to plumb and attach gas anywhere desired.

Jim Thompson was home from Broken Bow over last Sunday, and he certainly does tell some wonderful tales about the agricultural exhibit at the fair up there, not the least of which was a head of cabbage on which 7 men could stand at once.—Arcadia Champion.

Wahl Bros., who have been at work repairing and fitting up the Schroder building for their Steam Laundry, say that they will be in operation and ready to give prompt attention to the laundry business next Monday morning. They have put in the latest and best machinery obtainable to handle the work with, and expect to draw trade from up and down the line. The boys are well and favorably known to the citizens of Broken Bow, and merit the patronage of the general public.

MARRIED—A very pretty wedding was witnessed by the several relatives of the happy couple at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. Bert Lamphear, Westerville, Nebr., at high noon on Thursday, Oct. 2, 1902. The groom, Mr.
Oscar Goar of Lodi, Nebr., has honored the teaching profession in our county for several years.
Besides having been an educator, he has also increased his interests on his farm near Lodi, Nebr., where Mr. and Mrs. Goar will make their home, until now he can leave a school of many for that of one. The bride, Miss Grace Lamphear of Westerville, Nebr., has also done much credit to our public schools, having for several years been one of Custer county's most proficient teachers.
The bride is a refined lady of many charms, and her presence will be greatly missed in the above community. She was neatly clad in a Nile Green Silk trimmed in white, while the groom made a very favorable impression dressed in a black sack. At the appointed time Jesse R. Teagarden of Broken Bow together with the good couple marched to the well rendered music, which is a characteristic of the Miss Elsie Saville's manner. This happy couple will be instrumental in any community for good and culture and the best wishes of their many friends will ever be their helpful stay and pleasant memory.

BUSINESS COLLEGE NEWS.

The total enrollment now numbers 135.

There are now seven instructors in the college.

Pres. Roush made two drives to West Table last week.

The college uses 12,480 sq. ft. of floor space, or almost an acre.

Four students last week bade goodbye to school and entered actual work in business.

One hundred new and up-to-date Maxwell's Advanced English Grammars were placed in service last week.

Several students will finish the course in stenography soon. Pres.
Roush says he has positions in view for all of them.

Pres. Roush now has a hand-somerly furnished office with an all glass partition looking into the typewriting room.

Howard Hall from the shorthand department who went to Omaha last week has secured a position where he is indirect line for promotion.

Prof. Garlich's of the Music department will give a course of free singing lessons to students, meetings two evening in the week at the college.

Mr. Farritor of New Helena, who has a son, Frank, in college, was a visitor last Monday. He says he will soon have another student to send.

The following students entered last week: Chas. Morrow, Arnold; William Russon, Broken Bow; Elmer Jensen, Westerville; Katie and Earl Boots, Broken Bow; and Harry Willis, Camerson, Nebr.

Pres. Roush has had lately four times as many applications for students to take business positions as there are graduates of the school to fill. The Remington Typewriter Co. wrote from Omaha last week asking for more young men.

During the past week a large number of new students have entered the Music department. The names are Lena Shultz, John Dalton, Earl Molyneux, Miss Mathews, Chas. Richardson, Clarence and Hugh Ormsby, Misses. Minnie and Effie Shinn and Sadie Whitehead. The department now occupies nearly half the downstairs space in the old college building.

District Court.

The case of the State against J. A. Harris, cashier of the Farmers Bank occupied the time of the court from Thursday until Saturday evening when it was given to the jury about 5 o'clock.
The case was stubbornly fought by both sides until the close.
The jury remained until 7 o'clock Sunday morning when it brought in a verdict of guilty. This is one of the cases that grew out of the failure of the bank a year ago where the cashier was charged with falsifying the records in his report to the state Banking Board.
At this writing the court has not passed sentence. We are informed that the defendant will appeal the case. Mr. Harris has many friends here who had hoped that the verdict would have been different.

Custer County Man Buys Big Ranch.

Col. Josh Wood passed through Kearney Tuesday morning from Sumner to Omaha with stock and he stopped to tell us that he had just completed the purchase of the old Streater ranch and the Tillson ranch. The old "home ranch," as he calls it, contains 5,630 acres; and takes in seven miles of the banks of Wood River, 400 acres in cultivation, 50 acres of alfalfa and he will plant 100 acres more in the spring; all fenced with cedar posts, while Tillson ranch contains 1,370 acres, all fenced, has 1,200 acres of fine meadow land. He paid $40,000 for the whole. This is the ranch that Josh has leased for a great many years and now he becomes its owner, and The Democrat congratulates him, for he has bought a big bargain.—Kearney Democrat.

OBITUARY.

Died in Broken Bow, Saturday, October 4, 1902, Louis J., eldest son of Aaron and Sarah Pool, of Anselmo, Nebraska.

The deceased was born in Putman county, Illinois, December 26, 1873. He came in childhood with his parents to Nebraska, where he grew up to be a strong and active man. He taught school a little, but preferred an outdoor life. He went to Montana last April, and while there was injured at his work, which, together with a cold, led to his death. At last he was taken to Broken Bow, that he might be constantly under the doctors care.
But it was too late. He was too weak to rally, and died in less than twenty five hours after reaching there.

He was a bright and good young man of a social disposition, and was not known to have an enemy.

He leaves a sorrowing father, mother, sister and four brothers as well as a large number of loving friends to mourn his early death.

The funeral was held in Broken Bow, at the Catholic church, Rev. Father Flanagan officiating, and the remains were laid to rest in the Catholic cemetery at that place.

CARD OF THANKS.

We wish to express our heartfelt thanks to the friends, both old and new, who so kindly assisted us through our late trouble, the sickness and death of our beloved son and brother.
AARON POOL,
AND FAMILY.

In Memory of Luie Pool

Dearest Luie thou has left us, Left us in this world of pain,
To our hearts comes a yearning, Yearning for thy love again.

Often for thy cheering presence, Will we long and wish in vain,
But we fell today, Dear Luie, Our great loss is but your gain.

In a world of light and glory;
In a world where comes no night,
He is free from care of earth's tide,
With the shining angels white.

When our work on earth is ended, When we cross o'er death's dark sea,
Will you in that land of sunshine, Dearest Luie welcome us to thee?

For the night is closing round us, We have wept through all the cares, Loose these bonds! Give freedom!
Oh, break down these walls of clay.

Oh! dear Luie God does know best,
He has taken you home to rest, Why should we weep? Why thus complain?
When our loss is your eternal gain.

—A FRIEND.

RYNO.

Mrs. J. W. Holderman filled her husband's pulpit at Custer last Sunday.

Weather fine for haying and threshing.
Mr. Scott is now in the vicinity threshing.
Small grain a good average crop.

After spending the summer with her mother, Mrs. P. J. Province, Mrs. M. A.
Boice of West Fork, West Virginia, started enroute for home Monday.

Stant Myers has again moved to the Smith ranch from whence he had moved to Gothenburg some four or five years since.

Born—To Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Foxworthy Oct. 1st, 1902, twins daughters weighing 4 1/2 and 5 lbs. respectively. Mother and babies doing well and John is convalescent.

A trio of cowboys passed Ryno yesterday in care of two hundred and fifty-six cattle belonging to Diah Woodruff of Georgetown, Nebr. They were grazed in Cherry county, Nebr. and are in fine condition.

John Morford of Merna, Nebr., informs us that a great deal of the corn is badly injured by frost but there is much good ripe corn. He also informs us that his son in the Bow, H. B. Carrel who got tired of Custer three years ago and went to Colorado trying to find the Poncape tree is now in Indian Territory working on the section at $1.25 per day.
Could have done as well in Nebraska.
