MARRIED—At the home of the bride's parents in Berwyn, Wednesday evening, December 31, 1902, at 8 p. m., in the presence of the family and relatives and a few friends, by Rev. R. Bellis, Frank Huff of Edgemont, S. D., and Miss Maggie Rapp of Berwyn. The bride is the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Rapp of Berwyn. She has a large circle of friends in her home community whose hearty good wishes will follow her to Edgemont, S. D., her future home.

On Christmas day at noon at the home of the brides mother, Mrs. Thornton, Ralph Cannon and Miss Daisy Thornton were united in marriage. The bride, a beautiful young lady, with many graces of mind as well as person, was one of our popular and successful teachers, as well as the prime favorite of large circle of friends. The following is the list of Custer county teachers enrolled at the meeting of the State Teachers Association held at Lincoln last week, by the Lincoln Daily Star: Nellie Downey, Broken Bow; Sadie Whitehead, Broken Bow; Madge Kay, Broken Bow; Mrs. Emma E. McCray, Sargent; John G. W. Lewis, Broken Bow; Lilly M. Henne, Merna; Nettie D. Hannawald Merna.

We are informed by Agent Ormsby that we were misinformed about the telephone being ordered out of the depot. The facts are, as he states them, that the office was rushed with business during the holidays, and that some people had become very persistent in telephoning the depot every few minutes, making inquiry about the trains, so that they could not attend to the telegraph business and telephone. He requested the manager of the telephone company to disconnect the depot telephone until the rush was over. It was a necessity to stop the abuse and not the use of the telephone privileges that caused Mr. Ormsby to suspend the phone temporarily. It was the understanding when the phone was put in the depot that central would answer all calls in reference to trains. If the customers would adhere strictly to that rule the other business over the phone can be attended to without great inconvenience. Mr. Ormsby expresses his willingness to accommodate the public to the extent of his ability and time, but their hundreds of other duties each demand their proportionate share.

BUSINESS COLLEGE NEWS

Our night school opened Monday eve and is running nicely.

Miss Amret Hart is at her home at Virdon, Neb. on account of sickness.

Ray McCall, who has been absent for some weeks past, has returned to take up his work in the commercial department.

Our rapidly increasing attendance may necessitate the building of more rooms to accommodate the students. However we can seat two hundred students and have enough room at present to accommodate several more students.

Howard Hall since graduating has held a responsible position with Schmoeller and Muller who are wholesale dealers in pianos at Omaha. Howard states that he has just received another raise of salary. Although only fifteen years of age, he commands a mans salary.

Frank Ruble one of our former students who has a first class position with the Nebraska Plumbing Company at Omaha was at home for a few days vacation during the holidays. Frank is one of the young men of the age who is making the most of his opportunities.

A Good Comedy Coming.

Theatre goers would do well to bear in mind that Dainty May Sargent, one of the most charming comedienne on the American stage and without question the most superbly gowned, is coming here on Saturday Jan. 24, in her famous comedy success, "Other People's Money." It is the one comedy above all that every one has expressed a desire to see. Miss Sargent has retained nearly all of last season's company. The ladies of this city, always noted for their attention to Fashion's dictates, will no doubt be interested in viewing the elaborate creations worn by Miss Sargent.

Harris Withdraws His Appeal.

The Honorable Bee stated Tuesday that J. A. Harris had withdrawn his appeal to the Supreme court and would serve his sentence for a year in the penitentiary. It is currently predicted that he will not, but that Governor Savage will pardon him out just before his term expires today.

Later.—This morning's Bee states that: "The governor commuted the sentence to one day's imprisonment, which operated the same as a full pardon, all by pre-arrangement."

RULES ON ATTENDANCE.

Adopted by the Board of Education of Broken Bow School District, December 1, 1902.

2—NOTICE TO PARENTS: In all cases of suspension or expulsion from the school, the parent or guardian shall be immediately notified by the teacher, personally or by written note, of such suspension or expulsion, and the cause of the same.

3—ABSENCES: Any pupil in any department, except the High Schools, who shall be absent four half days within four consecutive weeks, or any pupils in the High School who shall be absent three half days within four consecutive weeks, without excuse satisfactory to the teacher from the parent or guardian, given either in person or by written note, shall forfeit his seat in school. Pupils thus suspended shall not be restored to the school until the parent or guardian shall satisfy the superintendent that said pupils will be punctual in the future, and obtain from him written permission for their return.

4—Pupils will be marked as absent who do not enter their rooms before time for recess, morning and afternoon, and will be marked tardy when not in their respective seats before the last bell ceases to ring. Two times tardy shall be considered equivalent to one-half day's absence.

5—WARNING NOTICE: When the absences of any pupil have so accumulated that two additional half days shall exclude him from the school, the teacher shall notify parent or guardian of this fact, either in person or by a written note, taken by some other pupil, requesting an acknowledgment of its receipt.

6—CHARACTER OF EXCUSE: No mere statement that the parent has kept the pupil at home shall be accepted by the teachers as an excuse for tardiness or absence, and unless it shall appear that sickness or some other urgent reason, rendering attendance impossible or extremely inconvenient, has detained the pupil, the excuse shall not be deemed satisfactory.

A. R. Humphrey returned this morning from Lincoln.

A heavy wind prevailed Tuesday night and yesterday making it very disagreeable for our door work.

G. W. Apple and C. S. Martin went to Omaha the first of the week to attend the meeting of the retail hardware dealers.
