EVERY MAN TO HIS OWN TRADE

Did you ever see a novice try to hold a watchmaker's glass in his eye? He makes bad out of it, which only serves to exemplify the old adage—"every man to his own trade." One important branch of my business is watch making, watch repairing and kindred work. I make a specialty of it and do it well because I do. I charge more for watch work than some—I charge less than others. I charge what first-class watch work is worth—you can't afford to pay more, or less.

The Chicago health department has made the discovery that the addition of a small quantity of grape juice to drinking water kills the germs of typhoid fever and other serious disorders.

The "Other People's Money" drew a large crowd at the opera house Saturday night. The opera chairs and seats back of them were all taken. Those in attendance report the play above the average.

The populist state central committee has decided that it will have no more to do with fusion with the democrats but will conduct its campaigns independent and alone. This is another instance of locking the barn door after the horse has been stolen.

A. E. Danly, the American Sunday School Missionary called last Friday. He reports a series of meetings held in December, at Milldale, and also a very good series just closed eight miles southwest of Oconto, at the Johnson school house. He, with W. H. Kimberly, the state superintendent, went to New Helena on Saturday.

Chester A. Long of Kansas, who is now serving his third term in congress and who became noted for twice defeating Jerry Simpson, (Socksless Jerry,) for congress was honored last week by being elected to the United States Senate from Kansas. As he has a sister living here, Mrs. D. R. White, and several other relatives, his success was watched with interest in this vicinity. He is yet comparatively a young man, having been born in 1860.

There are large numbers of farmers who still believe the cornstalk trouble is the result of over-eating, and sudden change of feed. It would cost very little to sow 50 cents worth of turnip seed mixed with rape seed about the time of laying the corn by and these will make green feed among the stalks till late in the winter, and prevent, no doubt, most, if not all, the cornstalk trouble. A corn field sown with these will produce nearly double the feed, and it also will enrich the ground rather than injure it. Many farmers whose cattle have had access to such things, have not been troubled with the cornstalk disease, and it would be a very simple and profitable experiment to make, where cornstalks form such a profitable part of winter feed.—Sargent Leader.

Neils Simonson of Lomax, was a city visitor Tuesday.

Otto Wittuhn of Etna, was a friendly caller at this office Saturday.

Hogs have been selling at $6.10 and $6.15 on the Broken Bow market this week.

The Custer County Horticultural Society will hold a district meeting at Ansley, February 18, afternoon and evening. Program will appear next week.—WILLIS CADWELL, Sec.

A farwell reception was given L. E. Kirkpatrick at the M. E. church Monday night under the auspices of the Epworth League and the program carried out as published last week in the REPUBLICAN.

G. O. Wendell, formerly of this city, now of Elgin, Illinois, has been visiting in the city the past week with relatives and renewing old acquaintances. Mr. Wendell has a host of friends in this vicinity. It is his first visit here in twelve years.

Rev. Geo. P. Trites spent Tuesday and Wednesday at Kearney in attendance at the Kearney District Epworth League Assembly Board of Control. He informs us that the Assembly will be held this year at Callaway, June 4 to 14.

Adren C. Bass of Anselmo, was a city visitor Monday and made this office a friendly call. While in the city he secured the necessary papers from Judge Armour to unite in marriage with Bessie Taylor of Anselmo. The best wishes of the REPUBLICAN are extended to Mr. Bass and his intended bride.

It is reported that the Burlington will build a new line from Lincoln to Tamora. This line will be built to do away with the two heavy hills between Lincoln and Seward. The line contemplated will run three miles south of Seward and will cause that town to be off the line of the Burlington road.—Alliance Grip.

There is an effort being made to incorporate the Broken Bow Business College. In case the plan works the business management will be in the hands of a board of trustees. The proposition is to capitalize it for $10,000 in shares of $50 each. The plan is a good one and should succeed if the purchase price is reasonable.

A public meeting was held in Alliance Tuesday of last week, to organize for the purpose of securing a state normal school for that city. Fourteen counties were represented at the meeting. A committee was elected to go to Lincoln to secure the school, consisting of Prof. W. H. Bartz, G. W. Clark, C. C. Smith, F. M. Dornington, A. S. Reed and T. J. O'Keef. We notice of the number of county superintendents present at the meeting was Miss Alice Wilkinson of Kimball county, who was formerly of Broken Bow. Superintendents of six other counties were present.

The chicken show at Lincoln last week was not the least of the least of the number attractions held there. The auditorium was completely filled with coops of the finest fowls the state affords. It was our privilege, in company with Walt George, I. A. Reneau, G. W. Apple and E. R. Purcell of this city, to see this grand exhibit. How we wished that Geo. Waters, Geo. Papineau, Allen Reyner or Mrs. France Moore, or some of the other many chicken fanciers of the county could have witnessed the show. It included every domestic fowl from the Mammoth Brons turkey to the fan tail pigeon.

I am requested to announce that a Farmers Institute will be held in Broken Bow, February 25 and 26. Professors from the experiment station at Lincoln will be in attendance. If farmers and stockmen will write me suggesting topics for discussion, I will submit them to the speakers from Lincoln, who will prepare speeches accordingly. And let me suggest that we farmers and stockmen know less about our business than any other business men do about theirs. If you can disprove it, try it at the above institute.—WILLIS CADWELL.

A gang of Q telegraph linemen have commenced stringing a copper wire between Lincoln and Alliance says the State Journal. The work is very rapid and the men can put up twenty-five miles of wire every day. They have one of the best outfits for that work in use on any railroad, and the line placing is done rapidly. This gang of seventeen men travel in a special train of their own, made up of four cars. One is a sleeper fifty feet in length well furnished and kept clean as a palace car. Another is a diner where good food is put up by a cook taken from a regular dining car. Then there is a lavatory and wardrobe car and a tool car. B. & M. men who have inspected the cars say it is the finest working outfit they have ever seen out for workmen.—Alliance Grip.

The reception tendered to D. E. Thompson at the State Capitol last Thursday night was attended by fully 12,000 people. The attendance was from every part of the state. The capitol building was artistically decorated for the occasion. The exterior was strung with electric globes of light from the cornice to the tower presenting a grand illumination. The interior of the building, especially the senate and representative halls and rotunda were most artistically decorated with incandescent strings of lights, flags, bunting, ferns and flowers. In both the east and west wings of the capitol was a large design of clasped hands above which was inscribed the United States of America and below Brazil. The receiving party, Mr. and Mrs. Thompson with their assistance Gov. Mickey and wife, Ex-Governor Savage and wife and others were stationed in the rotunda on the second floor where they greeted their guests with a hearty hand shake as they passed by. The press became so great between 8 and 10 o'clock that once one entered the throng there was no turning back. In the main it was a good humored crowd, but a few became very impatient, but their only alternative was to be carried along with the surging mass and denounce themselves for being such fools. Miss in both wings of the capital was provided where the giddy passed their time in waltz. It was midnight before the entire crowd had left the building. Those in attendance from the county that we saw were: F. H. Young and wife, J. A. Armour and wife, W. A. George and wife, I. A. Reneau and wife, Joe Molyneux and wife, Alvin Daily and wife, Mrs. Alpha Morgan, Misses Pearl Jewett, Maude Farrell, Messrs S. L. Cannon, A. H. Copey, G. W. Apple, E. R. Purcell, Jess Wilson, F. L. Manning and Alvin Burk.

OBITUARY.

Died, on the evening of Jan. 22, 1903, Hazel, little daughter of John and Sarilda Dodd, aged 8 years 5 months and 22 days. She was taken some two months ago with rheumatism and during all those weary weeks her suffering was too great to allow her to lay down in bed, she just slept and rested sitting up in a rocking chair. At the time of her death her father was sick in bed too and Dr. Pennington was attending them both. He was there in the morning, and in the evening she had eaten quite a supper of beef tea and crackers, as the Dr. had told her she must get well. A few moments later her mother noticed something unusual. In lifting her in her arms said, "Hazel, Darling what ails you." "I hurt so here mamma" she said lifting her little white hand to her heart. Those were her last words, she never breathed again; rheumatism of the heart never claimed a fairer flower or one better loved. She leaves parents 4 brothers and 5 sisters and a host of friends to mourn her loss. Her remains were laid tenderly away in the Kopp Cemetery.

A precious one from us has gone,
A voice we loved is stilled;
A place is vacant in our home,
Which never can be filled.
God in His wisdom has re-called,
The one His love has given;
And though the body slumbers now,
The soul is safe in heaven.
—MRS. R. A. GREEN.
