If you want to save the city of Broken Bow $1,000 a year for the next thirteen years, vote to buy the water works plant.

Vote for the water bond proposition and leave the matter of purchasing the plant on the best terms possible with the city council.

Representative A. H. Copsy has introduced a bill in the legislature No. 295, which provides for compelling railroads to grant elevator privileges to any one for the purpose of shipping grain.

The new revenue bill in all probabilities will become a law. Its provisions will raise the valuation of the property of Broken Bow for assessment purposes, from $140,000 the present assessed valuation to $200,000 to $300,000.

Mart Stupplebeen, one of our up-river readers was a caller Wednesday, and reported stock wintering well in his vicinity, with a good supply of feed yet on hand.

Geo. B. Mair announces himself in the Callaway Courier a candidate for Clerk of the District court of Custer county subject to the will of the republican party.

The joint resolution calling for a constitutional convention has passed the senate by a unanimous vote, and is now in the hands of the House committee.

In this issue of the REPUBLICAN appears the announcements of Geo. B. Mair, candidate for Clerk of the District Court and of J. M. Savidge of Callaway as candidate for sheriff, subject to the action of the republican county convention.

The country is hearing with more or less regularity now that Colonel Bryan intends to rebuke the gold democrats in case they nominate Judge Parker for the presidency by himself taking the stump for Theodore Roosevelt.

The fuel famine has not vexed Nebraska notwithstanding she has no coal mines and but little natural timber. Why is it? In the first place there has been an education in the economy of fuel that has been beneficial—every stick counts.

The dairy business in Nebraska is making rapid headway, increasing 33 1/3 in 1902 over 1901, and at the present rate of increase in five years Nebraska will lead in this product.

As indicative of the rise in farm lands in Nebraska, there have been two land sales recently at a high figure. One farm of 160 acres in Richardson county was sold for $16,000.

I desire to announce that I expect to come before the next republican county convention as a candidate for nomination for the office of clerk of the district court, subject to the will of the republicans of Custer county.

candidate for nomination for the office of clerk of the district court, subject to the will of the republicans of Custer county. For fifteen years I have to the best of my ability upheld the standard of the republican party in this county, through times when it would have been to my financial advantage to do otherwise, giving my services, such as they were, without money and without price, supporting its candidates through victory and through defeat.

Respectfully, GEO. B. MAIR.

ANNOUNCEMENT

EDITOR REPUBLICAN:—Several of my friends have been insisting on my coming out for sheriff, and after looking over the field I have concluded to announce myself a candidate for the nomination for sheriff of Custer county, on the republican ticket, subject to the will of the people.

REAL ESTATE NEWS.

The fuel famine has not vexed Nebraska notwithstanding she has no coal mines and but little natural timber. Why is it? In the first place there has been an education in the economy of fuel that has been beneficial—every stick counts.

A Nemaha county renter recently sold 2490 bushels of corn for $771.90, which represented his net profits for the year, his rent having been paid and he holds enough corn in reserve to feed his stock and seed.

As indicative of the class of citizens living in Nebraska, a saloon in Johnson county closed its doors for lack of patronage, after struggling for seven months to make expenses.

LEGISLATIVE NEWS.

(Special Correspondence.) Lincoln, Neb., Feb. 24, 1903.

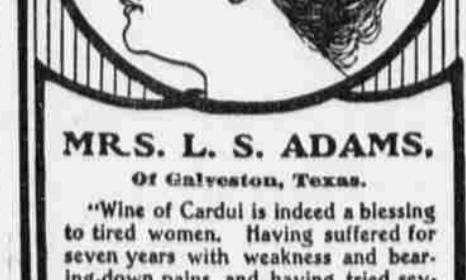

The revenue bill is still the prevailing topic of conversation at the capital. The bill is to be presented to the House this week, and no doubt will be discussed to the exclusion of other bills. The new bill was agreed upon in detail by the joint committee a week ago, and a sub-committee has been at work carefully revising it and correcting the clerical errors in the typewritten copies.

Among the standing committees during the past week the principal interest has centered around the proposed elevator bills and the investigation of telephone rates. After several hearings, the Ramsey elevator bill, House Roll 70, has been recommended for passage, with some slight amendments.

The joint resolution calling for a constitutional convention has passed the senate by a unanimous vote, and is now in the hands of the House committee. It is said that it will receive considerable opposition in the House, and may not pass.
