kindred crops, easily cared for, is not a tax on the soil but a fertilizer. As a stock food it has no superior. It satisfies any man who experiments with it and the interest in its propagation is growing into an enthusiasm.

When the value of the crop becomes more widely known, the land in the belt in which it thrives best will sell on a basis of its earning power, and will then be the highest-prices agricultural land in the country.—Twentieth Century Farmer.

Kindly Remembered

The two basket ball teams of the city High School showed their appreciation of the services of Rev. S. P. Morris rendered them in the preparation for their matched game by presenting him last Saturday with an elegant carved oak rocker with embossed leather seat. As Rev. Morris' work had been wholly gratuitous he was not only surprised but highly gratified at the evidence of appreciation shown him in their splendid gift. He speaks very highly of the members of the teams of their decorum while under his tuition. A perusal of the score as appears in the REPUBLICAN in this issue will give you the names of the members of the teams and the donors.

Cemetery Association Meeting.

Opportunities in the South

No portion of the United States has made greater progress in the last year or two than the South. Northern and foreign capital is rapidly invading that section, finding profitable investment in the various industries and factories that are being rapidly developed and built. The great influx of settlers is creating an increased demand for lands of all kinds and prices are gradually advancing, as they will for years to come. Work is plentiful and poverty practically unknown. Alabama is supplying coal and iron to all the world. More money can be made and with less labor in the raising of small fruits and berries and in truck patching on the Gulf Coast than in any other state in the Union. Strawberries from Alabama reach northern markets before those from the states in the southeast. Cattle can be raised with great profit, there being millions of acres of cheap range lands. If you are interested in the south and its resources and desire information on any subject, address

LEGISLATIVE NEWS.

(Special Correspondence)

Lincoln, Neb., March 9, 1902.
The appropriation bills have at last come into the House, and will be the subject of discussion in committee of the whole immediately after the disposal of the revenue bill. As usual the amounts asked for in the appropriation bill are very large, and will be trimmed down somewhat by the House. The disposition towards liberality will be more pronounced if adequate provision is made for raising the money to pay the bills.

The revenue bill has been reported to the House by the standing committee with a number of amendments, the most important of which is the change in the time of the assessment from the 1st of February back to the present date. There is some disposition, however, to compromise on March 1st. The bill has been printed and placed in general circulation, and an agreement has been reached to hold night sessions in the House until it is disposed of. In the meantime the same bill has been introduced in the senate, and will be held in abeyance pending action in the House.

A number of new bills have been introduced calling for amendments to the constitution, and it is possible that some of them may pass, and give the people another chance to vote upon them. Heretofore the trouble in elections has been that more than one-half of the voters neglected to vote on the amendments, and they have always failed to carry. A move will no doubt be made to have the propositions placed at the head of the ballots instead of at the bottom, as an experiment to see if the voters will not take more interest.

On Friday a decided flurry was caused by the report handed to the Senate by the committee on accounts and expenditures, severely criticizing the secretary of state because of the purchase of legislative supplies without authority, and the including of carpets, furniture, and a number of other items not ordered or used by the legislature. The bills in the hands of the committee show many overcharges and other discrepancies, and reflect much discredit on one of the employes, and decided embarrassment to the secretary of state. The committee declined to audit and pay the bills, and a full investigation is to be made. In taking hold of the matter in a fearless manner the legislature is showing a strong contrast to the fusionists when they were in power and when they condoned rather than criticized the illegal or dishonest acts of their officials. It is quite probable that this session will pass a law which will prevent extravagance and speculation of public funds in this manner in the near future.

The agitation over the Omaha plan to tax terminals practically subsided last week when the House by a decisive vote indefinitely postponed H. R. 330. There is some talk that a similar measure in the Senate will be revived, but the evident hopelessness of the movement will detract from its interest.

In case the session holds six days in the week from now on the sixtieth day will come on the 30th of March. It has been usual, however, that the sessions hold more than sixty days, and the opinion is quite general that the end will not come before the 4th or 5th of April.

ANSELMO.

Miss Jennie Andrews is on the sick list.

Prin. Johnson visited Mason City last Saturday.

Rev. Hanev visited Broken Bow last Saturday.

Miss Cristina Springer of Broken Bow is visiting at the Bowman House.

Miss Hannawald, our primary teacher visited her mother at Merma Saturday and Sunday.

The "New Woman" won a decided victory last Friday evening in the debate given by our Literary Society.

Mr. Jaquot of Merma spent several days in Anselmo last week looking after the elevator owned by him.

F. C. Wilson has been on the sick list for some few days. He is now able to be out and around, though he is far from being himself.

Mrs. C. Newton submitted to a successful operation last Thursday at the Bowman House. Dr. Pennington, assisted by Mrs. F. C. Wilson did the work. The patient is doing nicely.

Several of our citizens have needed a boat for the past few days, the water around their residences being so high. Several cellars were filled to overflowing causing carpets to be temporarily lifted.

Rev. Knight preached here last Thursday evening, the occasion being the second quarterly conference. The sermon was exceedingly impressive and highly appreciated by the large number in attendance.

"Heroes of History" in twenty-five volumes was added to our school library last Monday. They are a fine set of biographies and well worth the money they cost. We expect to add "Wood's Natural History" in five volumes, in a few days. The school will give an entertainment on Saturday evening, March 28th to raise funds to pay for both sets. This will make 53 volumes that have been added to our school library so far this year.

ORTELO.

J. M. Fodge made a trip to the Bow last week.

J. R. Baker cries a sale east of Anselmo to-day, the tenth.

Uncle Tom Hill is anxious to get to sowing wheat at once.

Al Brown came into the valley this Monday with his corn sheffer.

One by one the neighbours are finishing corn picking. F. L. Beals being the last to date.

The beautiful snow has been going for the past three days, and now ours is a country of lakes.

Our mail carrier is getting to be quite a horse trader, and we fear for his morals if he does not quit it.

A. D. Hunt and wife made a visit at Mr. Larabee's and Ed. Day in the Sand Hills last Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. Chas. Saunders has completed his deal for the G. F. Deal farm and has put Geo. Davis on it, who will work for him.

Rev. Miller visited home on Saturday and Sunday, returning in time for service Sunday evening. The meeting will continue at least this week. Owing to the bad roads the attendance is not as large as it should be. With those that attend there is some interest, yet no decisive steps have been taken by the unsaved.

will be the means of helping some slave who desires to be freed from the use of the noxious weed: PRESCRIPTION.

Chloride of Soda, Powdered Gentian, Wild Cherry Bark and Licorice Root, of each 2 ounces; Bi-Carbonate Soda, 8 ounces; Powdered Lobelia, 30 grains; Oxide of Gold, 20 grains; Powdered Nux Vomica and Aloes of each 1/2 ounce. Mix all together.

DIRECTIONS.

If desired to be given secretly and without the knowledge of the patient, give one-fourth of a rounding teaspoonful of the powder dissolved in tea, coffee or any other food at each meal, continue until the patient has stopped the use of tobacco.

If the patient desires to take the medicine himself, let him use it the same as tobacco, that is, every time he wants a chew of tobacco, instead of tobacco let him take a pinch of the medicine the size of a pea, keeping it in the mouth and swallow all the saliva or juice. Keeping this up until there is no desire for tobacco.

A Serious Collision.
There was a collision between passenger trains 41 and 42 near Hyannis last Saturday morning, that caused a delay of the east bound train of several hours. Both 42 and 44 arrived here together about 3 o'clock in the afternoon. One man, said to be a bum, was quite badly hurt. He was brought here and placed in the Broken Bow hospital in charge of Dr. Mullins. The man is in a critical condition and it is a question whether he will be able to get over it. One of his limbs was crushed below the knee, which made amputation necessary.
