

POLITICAL ANNOUNCEMENTS.

Sometime ago I have announced myself a candidate for sheriff of Custer county to the central committee, and I will come before the republican county convention for the nomination subject to the will of the republicans of Custer county. I have worked for the success of the republican party 23 years in Custer county and have always taken pleasure in doing so, knowing I have been in the right. I have been a central committee man some 16 years, and never before have I come before a county convention asking for anything, and I hope you can give me the nomination and I will be elected your next sheriff of Custer county. Very respectfully yours, J. O. TAYLOR.

Editor Republican:—Several of my friends have been insisting on my coming out for sheriff, and after looking over the field I have concluded to announce myself a candidate for the nomination for sheriff of Custer county, on the republican ticket, subject to the will of the people. While I feel my incompetency, I will try to make a good sheriff and do my whole duty as my conscience dictates. Respectfully, J. M. SAVIDGE.

I desire to announce that I expect to come before the next republican county convention as a candidate for nomination for the office of clerk of the district court subject to the will of the republicans of Custer county. For fifteen years I have to the best of my ability, upheld the standard of the republican party in this county, through times when it would have been to my financial advantage to otherwise, giving my services, such as they were, without money and without price, supporting its candidates through victory and through defeat. During these years I have never been a candidate for any office, and trusting I am not now presumptuous in asking favorable consideration of my claim. Very respectfully, GEO. B. MAIR.

Jim Hill has another scheme, and this one is not so bad. It is to divert the grain trade of this section from Kansas City and the south to Duluth and the north. If this means a competing market Nebraska people will all say amen.—Kearney Hub.

The Democrat and Hub of Kearney are united in urging Judge Gutterson to call a special session of the Grand Jury in Buffalo county to investigate the charges of the use of "boodle and booze" in the recent city election in Kearney. If there is any probability of establishing the charges the Grand Jury should have the opportunity to expose the guilty but if it is only a matter of political buncombe no good can come of it.

The Commoner urges the speedy organization of democratic clubs all over the country. As the Callaway Tribune is the only simon pure democrat paper, in Custer county, since the demise of the Mason City Transcript a few weeks ago, the Tribune will have a big job on its hands to get all the democrats in the several communities of Custer county organized before the fall campaign. But we venture that Bro. Conley will be able to colonize as many of them as the next fellow.

The Cosmopolitan for May is fully up to the standard. It contains nineteen stories and articles and one hundred twelve illustrations. Among them is "Election by Jury," "The Kitchen as a Laboratory," "George Gould's Start in Business," "Napoleon Among Animals," "Corn Breeding," "The College President," "Looking Into the Future," "Teaching—Its Hardships," "The Power and Beauty of Women's Eyes," "A Method of Equal Taxation," and among other things "Romances of the World's Greatest Mines" by Samuel Moffett.

The Pennsylvania railway has recently promulgating an order forbidding card playing and liquor drinking on its trains. It is said that other roads are likely to follow this example. As might have been expected, part of the secular press has made fun of this innovation, but the sober sense of the traveling public and the financial interest of the road will be on the side of approval. This is only one more evidence that morality is a fine business investment and is close alongside high skill in securing good returns. There has never been any reason why a palace car should be a saloon or gambling den on wheels.—Baptist Record.

The government crop reporter estimates that 2.4 per cent of the cattle in the country died from exposure during the year ending March 13, 1903. Nebraska's losses were 3.3 per cent, nearly 50 per cent above the average. The loss of cattle through the country from disease was also 2.4 per cent, while in Nebraska the percentage from this cause was 3.6, an excess of more than 50 per cent above the average. Nebraska's losses from exposure are exceeded by Georgia, Louisiana, Texas, Arkansas, Wyoming, Colorado, Arizona, Nevada, Oregon, Oklahoma and Indian Territory. The number of southern states in this list is rather notable.—State Journal.

Wonder if the people of Arcadia will turn out and welcome the home coming of our state senator?—Custer County Beacon.

Yes sir, they do! They welcome him because he has made a faithful and efficient member of a faithful and efficient legislature. A legislature that framed a new revenue law, which the Custer County Beacon said it would not dare. But it did. A legislature that passed a law compelling recognition to farmers elevators which no populist legislature ever dared do. A legislature which paid the past due debts of the state, and receives the slurs of such political howlers as the Beacon, because they were not repudiated. All this Senator Fries took a prominent part in, and much more, every item of which is to his credit. Can the senseless howler of the Beacon show anything in the legislature that its editor was a member of, which compares in worth to these few acts.—Arcadia Champion.

Oil Inspectors Appointed. Gov. Mickey announced the oil inspector appointees Tuesday and left immediately for St. Louis. He appointed Ed. A. Church of Lincoln, chief, in the place of J. E. Hays, the present incumbent; W. G. Templeton of Omaha, was appointed deputy from the second district; D. W. Hoyt for the fourth district; S. J. Johnson of Minden, for the fifth district, and Howard J. Hull of Kearney, for the sixth district. Fred Sonnenschen of West Point, for the third district was not reappointed, but was allowed to hold over indefinitely. The chief being appointed from the first district, no one else was appointed from that district. The only deputies displaced are Huston in the second and Hamilton in the sixth. As the governor included no editors in his appointments he evidently was not as solicitous of their support as he was that of the politicians. On his trip to St. Louis he was accompanied by the members of his staff. In the party were Gov. Mickey, Auditor Weston, Treasurer Mortensen, Secretary of State Marsh, Attorney General Prout, State Superintendent Fowler, Land Commissioner Follmer, and Congressman Burkett, together with the following members of the governor's staff: Adjutant General J. W. Culver, Col. G. E. Jenkins, quartermaster general; Colonel Evans, surgeon general; Col. C. J. Bill, inspector general; and the following aides de camp: Col. C. E. Adams, Superior; Col. C. J. Miles, Hastings; Col. J. S. Dew, Tecumseh; Col. S. M. Melick, Lincoln; Col. J. W. Thomas, Omaha; Col. H. P. Shumway, Wakefield; Col. C. W. Kaley, Red Cloud; Captain George Lyon, Nelson. The party will participate in three days' of festivity in St. Louis, returning individually to Nebraska.

Strike While The Iron Is Hot. The Great Northern Railroad is now planning to extend its line from O'Neill to Denver. If Broken Bow wants to be included on this line, prompt and effective work is imperative. A friend writes us from O'Neill, that last Saturday, week, the right of way man of the Great Northern was there accompanied by some prominent business men of Sioux City, Iowa, with the view of extending the route from Sioux City to Denver. They stated that within the next 30 days the surveyors would start to survey a line to Denver by the way of Dunning. The contemplated route goes through a country of sand hills practically all the way and but little local traffic could ever be secured along the route. A line run thirty miles south of the one contemplated would be a direct line from Sioux City to Denver and would include Wayne, Bartlett, Ord, Broken Bow, Callaway and North Platt together with and of the best farming communities in the North Platte country. It would not only be a paying project for the promoters of the road from the local traffic but it would build up the jobbing interest in Sioux City and put the farmers in direct connection with the grain market of Duluth. Much of the cattle territory north of the line would be tributary to this line the same as if it was run direct through it. This is a matter that the Business Men's Association would do well to look into at once and enlist the co-operation of the communities that would be directly benefited in securing this road. A committee of business men who do business with the Sioux City Jobbers should be sent at once to Sioux City to secure their influence in diverting this proposed survey through a country in which all will reap greater benefits.

President Roosevelt in Nebraska. President Theodore Roosevelt has won the distinction of being the first President that has toured Nebraska. President McKinley visited the state, but it was the privilege of the present strenuous Executive to traverse the state from the north west to the south east and entertain our citizens along the route at a number of stations. His first stop in the state after his sojourn in the National Park for two weeks was at Alliance. Here he received a loyal welcome by an enthusiastic crowd that had gathered from the surrounding country. A number from Broken Bow were there to assist their neighbors of the north west in greeting the president. As his train did not pass through Broken Bow until about 2 o'clock a.

m. it made no halt until reaching Grand Island about 5 a. m. There he spent Sunday. In the morning the President attended services at the Episcopal church, on the request of the chairman of the committee on entertainment, Dr. C. H. Miller. The other members attended the churches of their choice. He dined at noon on his train. At 6 p. m. he took a horse back ride out to the farm of Wm. Stolley, one of the pioneers of that locality and who has one of the best improved farms in the county. From there he went to the Taylor Sheep ranch eight miles west of Grand Island where the party took supper. On Monday morning a formal reception was extended to the President at Grand Island before he left for Hastings. Hastings and several of the towns between there and Lincoln were favored with visits by the president. At Lincoln it is estimated that fifty thousand people were assembled in the vicinity of the capital building to greet the president. Lincoln was attired in holiday attire and the enthusiasm was at its highest pitch. Fremont and Omaha were visited in the afternoon where large crowds greeted him. The President expressed very high appreciation of the reception extended to him by the Nebraskans.

Broken Bow Leads. For several months there has been an effort of several towns in the state to get ahead of Broken Bow in membership in the M. B. A. lodge. Broken Bow has been the banner lodge for membership for a year or more.

Grand Island is now our closest competitor but she is still behind Broken Bow. Last month Grand Island was only one behind us. But we notice from the official paper for April that Broken Bow holds the edge on Grand Island by four. The Broken Bow lodge has made no special effort to increase its membership. Our lead over all others in the state is due to loyal membership, together with the admiral plan upon which the order is founded. The plan is graded assessment and admits men and women on the same basis. This latter feature guarantees a good attendance at the lodge meetings and a good social time is enjoyed. At the regular meeting last week three recruits were initiated and a strawberry, cream and cake feast was enjoyed at the close. At the previous meeting four new members were added and there are several applicants that have been elected but not initiated. Parties wanting life and accident insurance in one of the best orders of the state and a good social time with the best class of citizens in Broken Bow and vicinity will not make a mistake by joining the M. B. A. Death and accident losses are paid promptly. The order has a large and increasing reserve fund invested in first class farm mortgages in Iowa to guarantee that the annual assessments shall not exceed twelve. The age limit is from 18 to 50 years and the amount that can be carried by one person is from $500 to $3000. The minimum rate of assessment is thirty cents and the maximum $1.60 according to age and amount of policy. The growth of the order has been phenomenal. At the close of the sixth year which dates with this month it has 1150 lodges, with a membership of 36,712, a reserve fund of $127,000 and with an insurance in force of $51,395,000. In that time it has paid in death and accident losses $715,000. If you want good insurance and further particulars, address the Secretary of the M. B. A. lodge of Broken Bow.

District Court in Session. Judge Gutterson came over from Broken Bow Friday evening and convened district court Saturday morning for a brief session. The case of Hamilton against Jones & Royle, was dismissed at cost of Plaintiff, as was the case of Hamilton against Jones & Troup. The remainder of the day was occupied in hearing the case of Stover against Funk as sheriff. Judge Gutterson goes home Saturday evening and will convene again April 27, when the jury will be on hand.—Kearney Hub.

MRS. L. S. ADAMS.

Of Galveston, Texas.

"Wine of Cardui is indeed a blessing to tired women. Having suffered for seven years with weakness and bearing-down pains, and having tried several doctors and different remedies with no success, your Wine of Cardui was the only thing which helped me, and eventually cured me. It seemed to build up the weak parts, strengthen the system and correct irregularities."

By "tired women" Mrs. Adams means nervous women who have disordered menses, falling of the womb, ovarian troubles or any of these ailments that women have. You can cure yourself at home with this great women's remedy, Wine of Cardui. Wine of Cardui has cured thousands of cases which doctors have failed to benefit. Why not begin to get well today? All druggists have $1.00 bottles. For any stomach, liver or bowel disorder "Bradford's Black-Draught" should be used.
