Culprits and Not Guilty.

The jury in the case of the state against Levi and Glen Spacht of Sargent, brought in a verdict Tuesday evening finding Levi guilty and Glen not guilty of the charge of assault.

The case was one in which M. F. Brown of Sargent, had the boys arrested on the charge of assaulting Mrs. Francis Brown, his wife on June 24. The trial developed that trouble between the parties was of long standing, especially between Mrs. Brown and Glen Spacht, a young man seventeen or eighteen years old. On the morning of the culmination of the differences that resulted in the arrest, Glen in passing the barn where Mrs. Brown was milking her cow threw a block against the barn. She carried the block of wood to the house with her and preserved it and had it on exhibition in court. Shortly after the throwing of the block Glen was passing in front of Mrs. Brown's residence when she availed herself of the opportunity to use a raw hide whip on him, inflicting twelve or fifteen strokes with vigor from her door. The affair was witnessed by a number of Sargent citizens who chanced to be in sight at the time. That little affair would doubtless have passed into history with notice to the general public had it not been for Levi, an older brother, who heard the fracas rushed out of the store to advise his brother in the premises not to stand and take the whipping. For his interference Levi was made to feel the weight of the raw hide across his hand. This he resisted and in his attempt to wrest the weapon from his assailant they both tumbled over the threshold or chair onto the floor in the room where he held her until assistants came to the rescue. The court fined the defendant, the jury found guilty, ten dollars and cost.

The defendants filed complaint of assault on Glen Spacht against Mrs. Brown, Wednesday morning. The attorney agreed to submit it to Judge Armour to decide on the evidence introduced in the former case. The Judge fined her $10 and cost which she paid. The attorneys in the first case were A. R. Humphrey, H. J. Shinn and C. W. Beal for the state and Judge Sullivan for the defendants.

The Baraca Young Men's Lyceum.

The rooms of the Young Men's Lyceum have more than met with the appreciation that was hoped for by the inaugurators, as will be seen from the appended statement of the President and Secretary of the Baracas. Number of visitors to the rooms during the month ending June 22, 642. Number of Books taken for home reading during the month, 71. There has been received from the sale of membership tickets $126.25. There still remains about $70.00 to be paid for the building rental, balance on equipment, and small items, over against this outstanding indebtedness there is about the same amount of money due from tickets that have been asked for, but as yet unpaid. The rooms will be gradually made more attractive and the fall season will find the Lyceum amply able to meet all demands made upon it.

The Farmers Bank Case in Court.

At the session of court just held by Judge Grimes, one of the most important actions was in connection with the affairs of the defunct Farmers Bank; the Receiver C. H. Holcomb, and the stockholders, led by Harve Andrews and Tierney estate, through their attorney, Judge Sullivan, sought to have the receiver discharged, and the court to order that the stockholders be not required to pay what they owed the bank.

N. T. Gadd for Creditor Stockham filed objections, and insisted that the stockholders were liable at least to the amount of the stock held by them, and that they must pay into the hands of the receiver the amount.

Judge Sullivan and the receiver maintained that as the bank owed Mr. Andrews as a creditor about $600, Andrews could off set the amount due on his stock which is $500.00, and thereby avoid the payment of the $500.00. This proposition was opposed by Mr. Gadd, who insisted that Andrews must pay in the $500.00, and then receive his prorata share as a creditor of whatever dividend there might be, and Grimes held with Mr. Gadd.

There was about $1600.00 stock good, but the report stated "that these stockholders would not pay without long lawsuit, etc." This Mr. Stockham's attorney declared was no excuse, and that there was no evidence as to the financial standing of any of the other stockholders, aside from one or two.

The result was Judge Grimes sustained the contention of Mr. Gadd and ordered the Receiver to proceed to collect from the stockholders the amount of their stock, and instructed him to not pay any dividends to any stockholder who was also a creditor, but to hold the money and apply it on the stock. This last will apply to Mr. Andrews, and the court ordered the receiver to pay a dividend of 12 per cent at once.

Money paid and ticket delivered when you enter the grounds with exhibit. You can also enter each article separately and the collection as a whole, and receive whatever premiums they take above this amount. Here is what you must bring:

3 varieties of corn in ear, 3 ears each.
3 varieties of corn on stalk, 3 stalks each.
4 varieties of seed field grains, one quart each.
4 varieties of seed field grains, one quart each.
2 varieties of tame or wild grass, in sheaf, one sheaf each.

Sunday School Excursion-Picnic.

The Sunday Schools of Broken Bow District are arranging for an excursion and picnic at Ravenna Wednesday July 22nd. A committee consisting of delegates from the several schools of the district met at the Bank of Commerce yesterday evening to hear the report F. M. Rublee, committee on transportation. S. K. Warrick was elected chairman of the meeting and Mrs. J. G. Brenizer, secretary. Mr. Rublee reported that a train of six coaches and a baggage car could be had for $350. The terms were accepted, on condition the grounds at Ravenna were found to be in good condition for the picnic, and A. R. Humphrey was appointed a committee to visit the grounds Friday. The plan is to furnish free transportation for all Sunday school pupils under fifteen years old in the district and give everybody whether they belong to a Sunday school or not an opportunity to join in the excursion and have a day of outing that care to go. The finance committee will make the price of tickets for adults, $1.00 each. A special train will be provided and will leave Broken Bow at 9 o'clock sharp and return from Ravenna at 7 p. m. S. K. Warrick was appointed to have charge of the train with authority to appoint two assistants for each coach. Two years ago a large crowd went to Ravenna on a similar occasion and through the special caution not a single accident to mar the pleasure of the occasion was had. As great or even greater precaution will be observed on this occasion. The following committees were appointed: Committee on Finance, F. M. Rublee, chairman, and the superintendents from each of the Sunday schools. Committee on program and amusements, the pastors of the several churches. Committee on lemonade, ice, etc. H. A. Watts, J. C. Bowen, P. H. Munk. Committee on grounds, D. M. Amsberry. Committee in charge of baggage car, J. R. Dean. S. K. Warrick was authorized to look after band music. On motion the several superintendents were to be furnished tags to provide families to lable all lunch baskets.

Attorney Smith Given a Reception.

The members of the bar of this city met at the office of Judge Sullivan on the evening of July 7, on call of the chairman, Alpha Morpan for the purpose of extending good wishes and success to J. B. Smith, and family, one of their number who removed from us on the 8th July. There was a full attendance of the bar of the city and all expressed their regrets at the loss of "Brother Smith and family" and cordially extended him their good wishes in his new field. A committee was appointed to draft resolutions to be sent him at his new home. The lawyers as a class are a generous and sociable set of men and although, in the heat of forensic strife, may fight hard for clients' interests, yet when the smoke of battle is lifted they are brothers just the same. The meeting was a nice thing to witness, and the words said, were meant, and elo-quently spoken. Mr. Smith although overcome, by the unexpected compliment, in response in a feeling manner expressed his high appreciation of the compliments of his associates. Judge Shinn presided at the meeting.

Peter Beck of Georgetown, was a friendly caller at this office to day. Mrs. Glass and daughter who have been visiting in the vicinity of Georgetown, returned with him.
