men of Custer county be required to bear the risk on an official bond in which every other taxpayer of the county is equally interested?

In a case of a personal bond, should the principal default those ten men would be required to make good the defalcation, as a matter of accommodation, without a cent compensation.

In a surety company bond each tax payer of the county bears the burden in proportion to his financial ability. In case of default the company that has to pay the deficit has received pay for taking the risk.

The fact that republicans were the first incumbents of office after the law was passed does not detract from the justness of the law, nor does it follow that had they been pop officials, the law would not have been applied in the same way.

The rot about republican "Greedy gluttoness," "Bartlyism," "Steuferism," Savagery," "Millardism," "railroad Thompson" and the republicans "want rascals for rulers" is to ridicilous to notice, but it serves to show the law and disreputable methods to which the leaders of the party are compelled to resort in their attempt to maintain an issue that has no standing of its own.

"The worst thing about this whole thing" says Mr. Taylor "is the precedent." Did not the legislature of which you was a member provide for the precedent?

Was the law only intended to apply to pop officials? If so, you should have had it amended before it became a law. Had Steuffar and George been pops are we to infer they could have established the precedent without prejudice?

Such reasoning may have fooled the public a few years ago, but by sad experience they have been led to look upon such demagoguery in its true light and only a comparative few will be caught by it. The insignificence of the expense of a surety bond for the treasurer of Custer county to each taxpayer makes the issue one beneath their contention, when they understand the situation. The expense of $285 a year would not cost the average taxpayer over a five cents a year or six cents at most.

What taxpayer would prefer to be one of ten or one of one hundred to sign a personal bond for any man in order to save a tax of five cents or even ten cents a year. Would you Mr. Taylor?

Try for Health

222 South Peoria St.,
CHICAGO, ILL., Oct. 7, 1902.

Eight months ago I was so ill that I was compelled to lie or sit down nearly all the time. My stomach was so weak and upset that I could keep nothing on it and I vomited frequently. I could not urinate without great pain and I coughed so much that my throat and lungs were raw and sore. The doctors pronounced it Bright's disease and others said it was consumption. It mattered little to me what they called it and I had no desire to live. A sister visited me from St. Louis and asked me if I had ever tried Wine of Cardui. I told her I had not and she bought a bottle. I believe that it saved my life. I believe many women could save much suffering if they but knew of its value.

Georgia Dunbar

Don't you want freedom from pain? Take Wine of Cardui and make one supreme effort to be well. You do not need to be a weak, helpless sufferer. You can have a woman's health and do a woman's work in life. Why not secure a bottle of Wine of Cardui from your druggist today?
