Heard on every side on Monday say: "How do you like your teacher." William Carrel and son H. B. and his son-in-law Crandall Sampson are going to Lincoln county to homestead land. Olive Griffith and Nellie Empfield has entered the Broken Bow College and Jessie Smith will teach at Broken Bow and Nola Smith has entered as a pupil. Mrs. J. F. Foxworthy brought a fair sized ear of corn in good roasting ear today, was planted very late, was six inches high when it was hit by the hail and will be ripe in two weeks if old Jack keeps away. ROUND VALLEY N. A. Hall has built a new barn. Will Ellingson has bought a new mower. Andrew Weinman is taking home treatment for skin cancer in his face. Bert Engelsjerd is busy hauling grain to the market to get room to store the new crop. Johnson boy's are now threshing in the valley. The oats go around 50 bushels to the acre. Joe Haumont and Will Sargent have bought a new threshing outfit, and will thresh in the western part of the valley in the near future. A 10 pound girl arrived last week at Osmund Larson's place. Mother and child are doing well, and the father is passing the cigars freely. Parties that went to market yesterday with hogs, got $5.10, and the republican prosperity lasts, contrary to Bryan and all his follower's prediction.

Wille Uhlman has now moved the old frame buildings from their former homestead to their tree claim; look out, you may one day see Wille has set his table there. Henry Helgerson was thrown off a mower by a runaway team last week while mowing for Fred Weinman, and now rheumatism has set in so he is now going around with a fork handle for a cane. The young folks of this valley, after they had attended Sunday school in the forenoon, assembled in the afternoon at one of the families, where they got dinner and spent the remainder of the day with songs and instrumental music. This keeps them from loafing around and learning mischief. Broken Bow, Neb., August 29, 1903. Christian of Broken Bow, Neb., James Stogger, Neb. 9-14-03 JAMES WHITEHEAD, Register. ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE In the District Court of Custer County, Nebraska. Rebecca Hanbury an administratrix of the estate of Joseph Hanbury, deceased. Plaintiff vs. Frederick Hanbury, Frank Hanbury, Fannie Hanbury, Paul Hanbury and Paul Hanbury, heirs of Joseph Hanbury, deceased. Defendants. Now on this 13th day of August, 1903, this cause came on to be heard on the petition of Rebecca Hanbury, administratrix of the estate of Joseph Hanbury, deceased, setting forth that said Joseph Hanbury in his life time had executed and delivered a bond for a deed for the sale of the northeast quarter of section one (1) in township thirteen (13) north in range twenty-one (21) west in Custer County, Nebraska, and thereafter died intestate, that the purchase price said in said bond for a deed has been fully paid by the assignees thereof, Roy F. Stuckey and George E. Stuckey, and that they are entitled to a deed for the said premises, that the heirs at law and all persons interested in said estate are as follows: Rebecca Hanbury, your petitioner, widow of deceased Joseph Hanbury, son of deceased, aged 20 years, Polk County, Iowa. Frank Hanbury, son of deceased, aged 18 years, Polk County, Iowa. Fannie Hanbury, daughter of deceased, aged 16 years, Polk County, Iowa. Ralph Hanbury, son of deceased, aged 14 years, Polk County, Iowa. Paul Hanbury, son of deceased, aged 9 years, Polk County, Iowa. And praying she may be ordered to execute and deliver a deed of said premises to the said Roy F. Stuckey and George E. Stuckey in accordance with the terms of said bond for a deed. It is, therefore, ordered that said petition be set for hearing at the District Court Room in Broken Bow, in Custer County, Nebraska, on the 19th day of September, 1903, at the hour of ten o'clock a. m., or as soon thereafter as the same can be heard, at which time and place all persons interested in said estate are ordered to appear and show cause, if any there be, why the prayer of said petition should not be granted, and that a copy of this order be published for six consecutive weeks in the Custer County Republican, a weekly newspaper published at Broken Bow, Nebraska. Witness my hand this 13th day of August, 1903. CHARLES L. GIFFERS, Judge of the Twelfth Judicial District of Nebraska, in and for Custer County. J. G. BRENZER, Breeder of Pure Scotch and Scotch Topped short Horn Cattle. My herd numbers 40 cows. My experience has taught me that to give good satisfaction, breeding cattle must be raised on this altitude. I expect to raise them here the equal of anything raised in the U. S. I have 25 bulls suitable for this and next year's service. My cows weigh from 1400 to 3000 pounds. Come and see them.
