Rev. S. P. Morris, Mrs. Dr. Day, Mrs. Willis Cadwell, Mrs. Amsberry and D. M. Amsberry left Monday morning to attend the Baptist state convention at Beatrice this week.

Warren Lang came in Friday morning from a visit at Lenox, Iowa. He says they have no corn there owing to hail that struck that part of the country earlier in the season.

R. A. Moore is constructing a granary with the material taken out of the old store room he tore down at the rear of the old hardware building. It is located on the bank of the creek east of the Shupp property.—Loup Valley Queen.

Daniel Barrett of the West Table has bought the F. R. Huxtable property in the north west part of the city. Consideration $900. He also has bought the east half of the same block of the Child's Saving Institute of Omaha which gives him the entire block at a cost of $1000. We understand that Mr. Barrett expects to move to the city in the near future.

We have been informed that the Farmers, Grain Live Stock and Co-operative Mercantile Association, at Solomon City, Kas., of which John Johnk is manager, and which started in two years ago to eliminate the country grain buyers and line elevator concerns, by furnishing the means for the farmer to market his own product, has called on its stockholders for an assessment of 100 per cent. Evidently the business has not proved as profitable as expected.

H. E. Bangs was an Omaha passenger Monday.

E. R. Purcell made a trip to Omaha Wednesday.

E. N. Bishop of Gates, was in the city Saturday looking for a room for his daughter and three other girls, who are planning to come to the city to school.

U. L. Ward and wife of Sargent, were city visitors Saturday. Mrs. Ward informs us that they expect to move back to Broken Bow as soon as they can get a house.

Joe Doman had the misfortune to have his separator burned while threshing on the farm of Will Klatts four miles northwest of Anselmo. A frame barn and a stack of hay near were burned.

A card from Jas. Cosner states that they made the trip from Broken Bow to Aitkin, Minn., by team in thirty days. He requests the address of his paper changed from Aitkin to Waldeck, Minn.

C. W. Gibbs made this office a pleasant call Tuesday. He had Mrs. E. Webb's name of Paona, Colorado, added to our list in return for a box of fine Colorado peaches which he received from her the first of the week.

Mrs. Geo. Sigler and daughter returned from the eastern part of the state Tuesday morning, where they have been visiting for the past month. They will spend some time here before returning to the Black Hills.

Last Thursday was a harvest day for every man that had a bird dog and a gun. It was the beginning of the prairie chicken season. There were several hundred less chickens in number Thursday night in Custer County than there were in the morning.

We note in the Baptist Record of Pella, Iowa, that Rev. J. W. Meagon of Compete Church, passed through Pella last week on his way to Brayton to assist Rev. Chas. Sloan in a series of special meetings. Rev. Meagon was formerly pastor of the Broken Bow church.

Fred Vollenweider of Callaway, made the REPUBLICAN office a friendly call Friday. Mr. Vollenweider is a printer by trade and worked eight or nine years in the Courier office and afterward seven years in a New York office. At present he is running a racket store in Callaway.

Mrs. A. C. Baird, formerly a nurse in the Broken Bow Hospital and Dr. Job, a lady physician have bought Dr. C. L. Mullin's interest in the Broken Bow Hospital and will conduct it in the interest of the general public. The several physicians of the city will have equal rights as any one from any part of the country who need the special care that can be provided at a hospital that cannot be had at home. Mrs. Baird has been employed as nurse in Omaha since she left here which gives her an extensive experience. Her many friends in Broken Bow are pleased to know that she has returned with the intention of remaining permanently.

Heating Stoves

—AND—RANGES

This fall we will have a good supply of Retort Oaks.

This is the stove we had such a great demand for last winter and could not get enough of them. This stove will burn slack coal and hold fire the same as a hard coal burner. Call and see them before they are all gone. Don't be put off by a stove called just as good as the retort. We also have a number of other makes of Heaters which we sell as cheap as the cheapest. We have the reliable Quick Meal Steel Range; also the Malleable Steel Range, the most durable range made.
