

Women who work, whether in the house, store, office or factory, very rarely have the ability to stand the strain. The case of Miss Frankie Orser, of Boston, Mass., is interesting to all women, and adds further proof that woman's great friend in need is Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I suffered misery for several years. My back ached and I had bearing down pains, and frequent headaches. I would often wake from a restless sleep in such pain and misery that it would be hours before I could close my eyes again. I dreaded the long nights and weary days. I could do no work. I consulted different physicians hoping to get relief, but finding that their medicines did not cure me, I tried Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, as it was highly recommended to me. I am glad that I did so, for I soon found that it was the medicine for my case. Very soon I was rid of every ache and pain and restored to perfect health. I feel splendid, have a fine appetite, and have gained in weight a lot."—Miss FRANKIE ORSER, 14 Warrenton St., Boston, Mass.

Surely you cannot wish to remain weak, sick and discouraged, and exhausted with each day's work. Some derangement of the feminine organs is responsible for this exhaustion, following any kind of work or effort. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will help you just as it has thousands of other women.

The case of Mrs. Lennox, which follows, proves this.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—Last winter I broke down suddenly and had to seek the advice of a doctor. I felt sore all over, with a pounding in my head, and a dizziness which I had never experienced before. I had a miserable appetite, nothing tasted good, and gradually my health broke down completely. The doctor said I had female weakness, but, although I took his medicine faithfully, I found no relief.

"After two months I decided to try what a change would do for me, and as Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound was strongly recommended to me I decided to try it. Within three days I felt better, my appetite returned, and I could sleep. In another week I was able to sit up part of the day, and in ten days more I was well. My strength had returned, I gained fourteen pounds, and felt better and stronger than I had for years. I gratefully acknowledge its merits. Very sincerely yours, Mrs. BERT E. LENNOX, 120 East 4th St., Dixon, Ill."

Had to Believe His Wife. Judge Parry of the English judiciary tells of a feeble-looking man, who was rebuked for supporting a ridiculous claim made by his wife. "I tell you candidly I don't believe a word of your wife's story," said Judge Parry. "Yer may do as yer like," replied the man, mournfully, "but I've got to."

THE KINKAID BILL.

Meets With Opposition in the Interior Department.

WASHINGTON.—Judge Kinkaid's bill permitting settlement of 640 acres of land by homesteaders in the northwest section of Nebraska it is confidently believed will be signed by the president before the dissolution of the present session. The bill went to the White House Wednesday afternoon and was at once referred to the secretary of the interior for a report. Anticipating this action, Senator Dietrich and Judge Kinkaid called upon the president and commissioner of the general land office in behalf of the measure. The president, who has been in favor of the measure, naturally refers matters dealing with land problems to the interior department, and here the greatest opposition to the bill has been found.

After the visit of Senator Dietrich and Judge Kinkaid to the president, where they had a satisfactory conference, they had an interview with Commissioner Richards. The commissioner has been opposed to the proposition of increasing the number of acres that may be entered upon by an intending homesteader, even though the experiment was to be confined to the sand hill section of Nebraska. Both gentlemen from Nebraska took a hand in showing Commissioner Richards the reason that prompted the bill and while they refused to give out any definite information as to the result of their conference with the head of the land department they contented themselves with the prediction that the bill would be signed. While everything has seemingly been clear sailing for this measure, it is not out of place now to state that a very hostile feeling prevailed against the bill, not only in the public lands committee of the house, but also in the interior department, from whence the president receives advice regarding land matters, and the passage of this bill in the face of this quiet but determined opposition makes its passage even more noteworthy than would ordinarily be the case.

Judge Kinkaid has worn grooves in the stone pavement between the house of representatives and the rooms of the enrolling and engrossing committees. He has been a shadow upon the heels of the bill, and it is to his dogged determination as well as to the efforts of Senator Dietrich that the bill is now in the hands of the president for signature, and everything points to the bill becoming a law.

JAPS MAY HAVE SET TRAP.

Strong Squadron of Armored Cruisers on the Move

CHICAGO—A special cable to the Daily News from Kobe says:

Under full steam a strong squadron of Japanese armored cruisers was observed this morning making its way northward in the Japan sea. It is believed that the vessels are on their way to attempt to cut off the Russian squadron that appeared at Won San, on the east coast of Korea, yesterday. It is feared, however, that as the czar's cruisers are superior in speed to those of the mikado, they may escape in safety to the shelter of Vladivostok.

It is also stated that the Japanese have succeeded in luring the Russians from protection of the Vladivostok guns and that there is another Japanese squadron between them and their retreat, but these are mere rumors.

To regulate the disposal of public lands released and excluded from public forest reservations.

To establish a life saving station at or near the entrance to Tillamook bay, Oregon.

Ratifying and confirming the present right of way of the Oahu Railway & Land company through the military reservation of Kahauk, Hawaii.

Mr. Hemenway called up the conference report on the general deficiency bill. The report was unanimously adopted and the house then proceeded to the consideration of the conference report on the sundry civil appropriation bill.

Brave Man Surrenders to Cupid.

CHICAGO.—In recognition of his heroic conduct at the time of the explosion on the battleship Missouri, Chief Engineer Studdard of that vessel was given a furlough of several months. He came to this city to visit his brother, Gus Studdard, and at once fell in love with Miss Catherine Hurley, the sister of his brother's wife. He procured a marriage license and tomorrow the wedding will take place. Engineer Studdard will leave with his wife for a visit to his former home in Ireland.

Christianity in Japan. Many of the prominent men of Japan are Christians. To this creed belong one member of the imperial cabinet, two judges of the supreme court, two presidents of the lower house of parliament, three vice ministers of state—not to mention a host of officials in the lower ranks. In the present parliament the president and thirteen members in a total membership of 300 are Christians. In the army there are 155 Christian officers, or 3 per cent of all, and the two largest battleships are commanded by Christians. In Tokio three of the great daily papers have Christian editors.

Growth of City Clubs. The growth of city clubs of high class has given cause to open eyed amazement in this generation. In this metropolis there are two such organizations, each of which has more than three thousand members and each of which owns real estate valued at many hundreds of thousands of dollars. Most of the well known clubs in this capital are flourishing, and show in every way that they are managed with striking ability. Club life in the principal communities of this country has made giant strides in a third of a century.

Latest Society Craze. According to the English papers, the latest society craze seems to be the game of magic crosses. Three crosses, of small size, and in a number of various colors, are laid on a table in a straight line, and the person holds a magnet, which he moves slowly down the line of crosses. One by one, but not in rotation, the crosses are attached to the magnet, and when they are at last all arranged in order the expert can gain an insight into the character and fate of the experimenter. Even cabinet ministers have consulted the magic crosses.

A Hurry-Up Call. Cyrus Townsend Brady, the author, had occasion to consult his physician for a slight ailment on an extremely cold day. He was busily engaged in his literary work on the doctor's arrival. Hurrying into the reception hall from his library, he said: "Doctor, I wish you to get through with me as speedily as possible. I left the hero and heroine by the side of a little babbling brook, and I'm afraid they will freeze to death if I don't get back soon."

So sacred is the person of the Emperor of Korea that to touch his body with a weapon of iron constitutes high treason. Rather than violate this tradition, Tieng-song-tal-ong allowed an abcess to put an end to his life in 1800, believing it would be wrong for him to submit to the surgeon's lancet.

MARCH, APRIL, MAY. Weak Nerves, Poor Digestion, Impure Blood, Depressed Spirits.

The sun has just crossed the equator on its yearly trip north. The real equator is shifted toward the north nearly eighteen miles every day. With the return of the sun comes the bodily ills peculiar to spring. With one person the nerves are weak; another person, digestion poor; with others the blood is out of order; and still others have depressed spirits and tired feeling. All these things are especially true of those who have been suffering with catarrh in any form or in grippé. A course of Peruna is sure to correct all these conditions. It is an ideal spring medicine. Peruna does not irritate—it invigorates. It does not temporarily stimulate—it strengthens. It equalizes the circulation of the blood, tranquilizes the nervous system and regulates the bodily functions. Peruna, unlike so many spring medicines is not simply a physic or stimulant or nerve. It is a natural tonic and invigorator. If you do not receive prompt and satisfactory results from the use of Peruna, write at once to Dr. Hartman, giving a full statement of your case, and he will be pleased to give you his valuable advice gratis.
