Lucy Wymore of Callaway, came up Friday on the stage, to visit with friends at Arnold for a few days. She is a guest of Mattie Needham.

Sunday was a cold and wet day, from early morn to late at night. Rain, sleet and snow fell. No services in either church or Sunday School.

R. E. Allen returned Friday by stage from Callaway from his trip to Omaha with cattle. He reports good prices and is well pleased with his sales.

It is reported that Jas. Miller has gone to Omaha and perhaps farther east in the interest of our railroad. It is hoped that he will meet with success in that line.

Mr. Potter, our genial blacksmith is the busiest man in town, he has no time to swap yarns, or whittle dry goods boxes. His work gives good satisfaction and he has all he can do.

Fine growing weather, small grain doing nicely since the rain and warm sunny days. A few fields of oats and barley badly injured by the wind and dust storms. The farmers are more hopeful since the rain and are busy planting corn.

High School Field Day.

The Second Annual meeting of the Custer County High School Athlets and Orational contest was held in this city Saturday afternoun and evening.

The schools participating in the contests were Ansley, Sargent, Callaway and Broken Bow.

The contests, both in the afternoon and evening were witnessed by a large number of people.

In the sports, Sargent, Ansley and Broken Bow had contestants, who won high honors, but Broken Bow won the most points.

The declamatory contest was participated in by Misses Eva Cassidy, Margret Davis and Harold Perin of Sargent, Leta Wimberly of Ansley, and Lulu Lowe of Brokeu Bow.

The judges in the Declamatory contest were Mesdames Hunter, Humphrey, Revs. Teagarden and Morris and Mr. Bruner.

Each of the contestants did splendidly and the only pity was that the judges could not have made more first and second places. Miss Davis of Sargent, was considered a very close second and is entitled to special mention for the admirable manner she recited. Horald Perin did splendidly as did also Miss Cassidy. But taking all the points into account made by each, the judges found that Miss Wimberly of Ansley, was entitled to first place and Miss Lulu Lowe of Broken Bow, second.

The Association will provide medals for those taking first and second place.

A large number of young people of the city were among the number present.

Why Should a Woman Wish to Vote?

(Communicated.)

Most every household contains a husband, a father or a brother and who could better represent the family. What effects them effects him. He could not, if he would, vote against their interests and for his own interest at the same time. There are no communities composed entirely of women, if there were, men could lay unjust taxes on their property but as it is he could not without laying the same tax on his own. And besides would it seem reasonable for a woman to consider some man good enough for her husband and still could not trust him to do the voting?

The Creator placed men and women in the world and meant that each should fill their own sphere in life and not that either should be expected to perform the duties of both, for that would make life too burdonsome.

Woman's realm is the home and if she fills that properly she has care and responsibilities enough without looking after the man's part, such as politics. Man was meant to face the public and run the government, woman to lead a sheltered life, shielded from the world, not that a woman's place is by any means insignifican—not that all—but she is a far grander being in her home, where God meant her to be protected, than she could possibly be as a politician. True, any woman of integrity is able to go amongst the public and fight her own battles but to a refined and sensitive woman, a public position is very unpleasant.

Woman Suffrage might have a purifying effect on politics for a short time but in the long run it would degrade the nation.

Politics is being corrupted by men who are seeking office but would not women soon seek office too and are they not just as human as men and no more infalible? Let the men be manly and conduct their part in life and not look to the women to do so, for to cast all the burden on women would be to become like Indians and would be a sure sign that the nation is deteriorating. Voting is not so much a privilege for a woman as it is a responsibility. A wrong vote does harm.

Woman Suffrage would create a wrong condition since in some cases both parents would be out lectioneering for office at the same time and what would become of the home?

And why should men be puppets under woman's command?

When war was declared men would be expected to do the fighting—women would do the voting and hold the offices. If women want to run the government they ought to be compelled to defend it in war. LEILA.

IRRIGATION,

BIG HORN BASIN.

Your spare time will be spent well if you will use it in making a trip to this new irrigated country. The United States will not be long now in getting under irrigation all the land that is subject to this class of farming, as it is becoming the most popular way to farm for sure results. This country is yet in its infancy, and homeseekers should avail themselves of this opportunity to get a farm in the Big Horn Basin. Just now you can get the choice of this land at a very low price, and you will be surprised what a delay of a few days will do for you in the price of this land.

Post yourself on this country by writing for booklet descriptive of the Big Horn Basin and any other information you may desire.

We will make very low round trip rates to this country the first and third Tuesdays in May. J. FRANCIS,

The New Man.

He trips along the sidewalk,
With white silk vest and fan,
He's a dainty little fellow,
The New Man.

He primps before the mirror,
And smooths his little tie,
Then goes to see his sweet heart,
O my!

He never earns his living,
And I doubt it if he can,
A dependent little creature,
The New Man.

Still his sweet heart will receive,
And endure him if she can,
But she never does admire,
The New Man.
