All the questions asked by Leila in the REPUBLICAN of May 5th, have been irrefutably answered long ago, but as one wakes to consciousness of the question, he needs must ask them for himself, and over and over again they must be patiently answered. Suffrage is a chestnut, but an un- sign that the nation is deterioratdone chestnut."

Leila betrays her lack of know- then, that a nation may deteriorledge on the subject of Woman Suffrage in her concluding remark, "If women want to run the government they should be compelled to defend it in war." Women does not want to "run the government," neither is she willing that man should "run it" exclusively, and as for defending her government, women have been known to enter active service, as they are in the Japanese army, but barring that, will any one deny the part played by such as Clara Barton in defending one's country? Yet amid the

Attention Farmers____

Why remain in the North and stay in doors six months in the year consuming what you raise during the other six months? Go South where you can work out doors every month in the year, and where you are prosomething the year round. If you are a stock raiser you know your stock are now "eating their heads off" and, besides, have to be protected from the rigors of winter by expensive shelter. Economical stock feeding re quires the combination of both flesh-forming and fat-forming foods in certain proportions Alabama and Florida produce in abundance the velvet bean and cassava, the first a flesh producer, and the latter a fat producer, and they are the cheapest and best fattening materials known to the world.

More money can be made and with less labor, in general farming, fruit and berry growing and truck gardening along our road in the South than in any other section of the Union. If you are interested and desire further information on the subject, address

"Why Should a Woman Wish to Vote!" present warfare and strife comes a sweet dream that such will pass away as civilization advances to a higher view of life, and, if what all the "antis" say about women is true she is a lover of peace and will help to forward the banishing of war. She says to cast all the burdens on women would be to become like As Mrs. Catt says, "Yes Woman the Indians and would be a sure ing." She surely will not deny

She says "Voting is not so much of a privilege for a woman as a responsibility." This is just what we Suffragists are contending. It would stop the buying and selling of votes and also call forth votes from that class of citizens, who, disgusted with the 'rings and bosses," have withsays, "in the long run Woman Suffrage would degrade the nation" she does so in the face of established facts. Read the accumulation of testimony from Colorado, Wyoming, Idaha, Utah and New Zealand, and many and cutting winds, sudden other countries that are ahead of changes of temperature, scanty the United States, whose women clothing, undue exposure of the have proportionally more rights, where Woman Suffrage is a fact > and not a theory. "Women Suffrage would create a wrong condition since in some cases both parents would be out lectioneering for office at the same time, and what would become of the home." Is it supposed that under equal suffrage people are going to loose their fine sense of what is right and fitting; would a convention force nomination on a candidate who through circumstances was ineligible to office? She speakes of that mythical place "a woman's sphere." Now if some one would clearly define the limits of a man's sphere and a woman's sphere and draw a line between them, one might be excused for designating to the sexes their separate duties and qualifications, but as it is, the line is ever wavering and vanishing. What was strictly excluded from woman's sphere 20 years ago, today is considered right and fitting for her. The lines drawn around her sphere today will be but a matter of history 20 years from now. When we prate of man's sphere, of woman's sphere, as God intended them let us see that we eliminate from our thoughts, custom and "fetch thine eye up to the style and manners of the sky.

In my mind's eye I see Leila in her "sphere"-the idol of her husband's heart, the queen of the home, a happy contented wife and mother, and as such she looks out upon the world as she would have it. Granted that women under such circumstauces would gain nothing by the ballot there is another class, whose name is legion; the widow, the spinster, the vast army of women wage earners, all of whom are sadly hampered by that "Thou art a women." Why deny her the right to speak for herself and her needs in that simple and direct way-the ballot.

Then there are the political issues pertaining to the home, you cannot keep politics out of the home, who better than woman know the needs of the home.

Why should a woman wish to vote? Because of her sacred responsibility as guardian of her children. Because she is a taxpayer, and would have a voice in the use of public money. Because of the shame of being classed with the Indian, the idiot and the impecile. Because she would ask for womanhood, the crown of progress and not the chains of custom. Because she aspires to be equal with the man "whom she considers good enough to be her husband." Because she is a woman with woman's needs which a man, be he ever so willing, can not voice. NELLIE E. TAYLOR.
