J. G. Haeberle's:

Central Nebraska Stock Growers Association Meeting.

The annual meeting of the Central Nebraska Stock Growers Association will be held in Broken Bow, Saturday at 10 o'clock a. m. July 10th. Election of officers. State Veterinary and a representative of Brand Inspectors will be present. The public invited to attend.

W. A. GEORGE, Pres.,
I. A. RENEAU, Sec'y.

Mrs. Fred Fields of Dunning, was a city visitor Tuesday, the guest of Miss Ama Amsberry.

Brutally Tortured

A case came to light that for persistent and unmerciful torture has perhaps never been equaled. Joe Golobick of Colusa, Calif., writes: "For 15 years I endured insufferable pain from Rheumatism and nothing relieved me though I tried everything known. I came across Electric Bitters and it's the greatest medicine on earth for that trouble. A few bottles of it completely relieved and cured me." "Just as good for Liver and Kidney troubles and general debility. Only 50c. Satisfaction guaranteed by Lee Bros., Druggist.

LOCAL MENTION.

Mrs. Annie Walton left Wednesday morning for Deadwood, S. D., where she will spend three or four months visiting relatives.

T. B. James and Miss Sallie Holland of Mullen, were married at the Commercial Hotel yesterday afternoon. Rev. A. W. Yale officiating.

Bert Kaupp of Bertrand was in the city the first of the week the guest of Helen Leming. He came to spend the Fourth in Broken Bow.

In the Sunday School contest for the largest delegation on the Fourth, the O. K. Sunday school took first prize and Custer Center second.

J. D. Troyer of Callaway, was a city visitor yesterday. He was looking around with the view of buying acre property near the city for a home.

Judge Armour went to St. Louis the first of the week. He expects to be gone until the 16th. He will visit his parents in Illinois before returning.

Ray Armour returned last Saturday from Ann Arbor, Mich., where he has been attending law school the past year. He came by the way of St. Louis.

J. H. Chapman of Kearney, came up Sunday to spend the Fourth in Broken Bow, with his wife, who has been visiting here for several days with her sister, Mrs. Rublee.

The library and goods of Rev. S. P. Morris, who left here some three weeks ago under questionable circumstances for parts unknown, have been attached by his creditors.

W. D. Hall of Sargent, was in the city several days the latter part of last week attending court. He informed us that his daughter, Mable, has returned from Chicago, where she has been attending Ladies Baptist Training school the past year.

Rev. F. E. Hudson, the financial agent of the Grand Island College spent the Fourth in Broken Bow. He expressed his gratification of seeing so large and orderly crowd assembled here to celebrate. Not a case of drunkenness among the thousands of people present.

Misses Marian and Nettie Holcomb of Lincoln, arrived in the city Friday morning, the guests of J. C. Moore's family and other friends and relatives. They are the daughters of Chief Justice Holcomb and were formerly neighbors of Mr. Moore when they lived in this city.

MARRIED—Burt Robinson of New Helena and Miss Roslen Leah Poch of New Helena, at residence of J. R. Teagarden of this city, Thursday June 30, Rev. J. R. Teagarden, officiating. The bride has been one of the successful teachers of Custer county. The groom is a young farmer and is to be congratulated on his excellent choice.

S. F. Clayton has accepted a position as clerk in H. B. Drake's dry goods and clothing store.

W. H. Cox has shipped his goods to Idaho and expects to leave for that place in a few days where he will engage in fruit farming.

Misses Berth and Cora Foote were in the city Tuesday to enter three quarters more land each, near Dunning on which they had preferential rights.

E. P. Campbell and wife of California, are visiting in the city and community with former friends and neighbors. Mr. Campbell is a brother of P. F. Campbell of Georgetown.

Curtis Douglas, who, for the past year has held down a case in the Beacon office has accepted a position with B. O. Hutton in the barber shop, with the view of becoming a tonsorial artist.

Silas Thompson of Upton, started up to Newport, Rock county, this morning, where he and his sons John and Arthur have 1,300 acres of hay to cut. They will bale it for the market.

Wilbur T. Hicks, Staff correspondent of the Lincoln Daily Star, is in the city with the view of writing up the town and county for his paper. The REPUBLICAN acknowledges a friendly call.

Attorney Walter C. Crow, an experienced U. S. land lawyer, formerly of Oklahoma bar, is now associated with Ross G. Moore, making a specialty of all matters pertaining to U. S. land office.

Mrs. G. H. Thorpe has been confined to her bed for several days from an injury received in one of her feet last Thursday. She was standing on two chairs in the act of hanging a picture frame on the wall when they fell with her.

Attorney A. J. Lunt of Racine, Wis., is in the city with the view of closing up the telephone deal between L. E. and A. F. Norton and J. E. Adamson. The books are being checked up and in all probability the deal will be consummated in a day or two.

Custer county did its share of celebrating this year. Celebrations were held at Mason City, Sargent, Walworth, Merna, Callaway, Arnold, Weissert and Broken Bow. The day was fine for the occasion and as far as we have been able to learn there were no casualties.

The recent rains came in good time for the alfalfa fields that had so recently been shorn of their luxuriant crop of hay. The second growth is starting out again with vigor and the present prospects would indicate the second crop will rival the first which was immense.

Instead of the regular afternoon meeting Tuesday, July 12, of the O. E. F. Kensington, Miss Groat will entertain at a lawn social at the residence of S. P. Groat at 7:30 p. m., to which the gentlemen of the order are also cordially invited.

E. A. JOYNER, Sec.

MARRIED—U. D. P. H. Kermonde and Miss Bessie A. Jackson of Broken Bow last Thursday at the home of the brides parents in this city, Rev. J. R. Teagarden, officiating. Neither the bride or groom had attained legal age, but had the consent of their parents. They have the best wishes of their friends in their matrimonial venture.

Gone to Rest.

Ferdinand and Anna Conrad of Humbolt, Nebraska, passed away within three days of each other. They were the father and mother of O. H. Conrad of this city.

The father died Monday evening, June 27, and the mother July 1st. Mr. Conrad was 82 years old. In 1850 he was married to Miss Anna Bermowitz. To them were born five children, one daughter and four sons, two of whom died in infancy. He with his wife came to America in 1855 and they had been residents of Nebraska since 1873.

Mrs. Conrad was in her 64th year. She was a true companion a good mother and faithful to the duties of life.

They were both members of the Lutheran church and were faithful and consistent to their church with which they had been connected for fifty years. They leave to mourn them, two sons, O. H. of Broken Bow, and Richard of Bern, Kansas, and one daughter. The REPUBLICAN extends the sympathy of the community to the bereaved.

ORTELLO.

Nellie Hill returned from Maple Grove Sunday.

F. C. Embree was a Broken Bow visitor Saturday.

Practically every family in Ortello celebrated at Merna.

Ethel Ashbaugh spent Saturday at Mrs. Sanders near Anselmo.

Rev. Miller will fill his appointment here at 7 o'clock next Sunday afternoon.

Miss Hebble from Cliff, was visiting her sister, Mrs. Wilson, the first of the week.

The Misses Hunt spent part of last week at the home of their sister, Mrs. Ed. Day.

Mrs. Hunt and J. F. Baker represented Ortello at the M. P. conference at Merna last Saturday.

The rainfall the evening of July 4th, amounted to 1.37 inches and stopped corn plowing for a day.

The local ball nine played a match game with a Merna team July 4th, and the result was a score of 19 to 16 in favor of our boys. They were delighted with the victory for they had only practiced three times, so were hardly well organized.

The rush, when Mr. Hill announced that his cherry orchard was ready for pickers, was somewhat similar to the land rush at Broken Bow last week, with this exception—Mr. Hill did not become so excited as our brave county sheriff, and think it necessary to call the militia. Perhaps this was due to the fact that there were not so many "cowboys" and "desperadoes" among the cherry pickers.

MARRIED.

DODDS—CAYWOOD—Tuesday, July 5th, at 8 p. m. at the home of the brides parents of this city, John O. Dodds of Arlington, S. D. and Miss Eva Caywood of this city, Rev. J. R. Teagarden, officiating.

Miss Maude Connelly was the brides maid and Eddy Caywood, groomsmen. The wedding march was played by Mrs. Willis Cadwell.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Caywood, she is a lady of refinement and enjoys the friendship of a large circle of friends. For the last year or more she has been in the employ of Central Nebraska Telephone Co., of this city.

The groom is a stranger to us and we know nothing of him except the good judgement he has exercised in securing a life partner.

The bride and groom left on the east bound train at 10:20 yesterday morning for Arlington where they will reside in the future.

The best wishes of the REPUBLICAN goes with them.

Those present at the wedding were:

Mr. and Mrs. Chas Martin, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Willis, Grandma Connelly, Mrs. Nine McComas, Mrs. W. M. Barrett, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Caywood, Mr. and Mrs. W. Cadwell, Mr. and Mrs. W. Loyd, Mr. and Mrs. Teagarden, Miss Nannie Barrett, Miss Nellie Rector, Miss Maud Connelly, Eddie Caywood, Miss Pearl Loyd, Mrs. Rogers.
