The VanEtton and Echols dramatic company drew good crowds at the opera house for three nights this week. Those attending speak well of the company, and especially of the last evening's performance, which was very entertaining.

Mrs. Sadie Holmes of Ottawa, Kan., formerly Miss Sadie Mahaffy, who was employed as a teacher in our public schools about ten years ago, died recently of cancer of the stomach, a fact which her friends will be grieved to hear.

The meeting of the woman suffragists at the court house Monday night was only fairly well attended. Miss Gail Laughlin, the speaker of the occasion, gave a very logical address and was worthy of a better house. The session was closed with a song by Mesdames Stuckey, Guttererson, Adamson and Taylor.

S. K. Cooper, wife and children of Mont Rose, Colorado, passed through the city Saturday morning on their way to Mason City to visit Mrs. S. C. Rumery, Mr. Cooper's sister. Mr. Cooper informs us that he will remain in the county until after the county fair, which will give him a chance to see many of his former acquaintances. He was one of the pioneer settlers of Ortello Valley.

The protracted meeting, which has been in progress in the tent by the Christian church, closed Sunday evening. Elder Putman and Miss Egbert were clever people and leave with their acquaintances as friends. Regular services will be held in the church Sunday, Aug. 21st.

Mrs. Lue Holcomb, who has been visiting here with relatives the past two months, left Monday for Seattle, Wash., where she is now making her home with her daughter, Mrs. L. E. Kirkpatrick. Her grand-daughter, Helen, Joe's little girl accompanied her and will remain indefinitely.

No matter how great a crowd attends the Walter L. Main Circus there should be no trouble in one's purchasing tickets. The show provides two ticket wagons on the grounds, open at 1 and at 7 p. m., also has seats on sale down town from 9 a. m. day of exhibition, both general admission and reserved. Frequently those attending a circus, especially where they have ladies in company, experience many difficulties in securing tickets, owing to the usual crowd and jam around the ticket wagon. Main's is the first of the big shows providing a solution of this difficulty, and it is an innovation which all other tented amusements will do well to emulate. They will exhibit at Broken Bow, Tuesday, August 23.

The contest for free transportation to the World's Fair at Ryerson-George Co. store for several weeks past closed last Monday night. The competition for several weeks had been very close between Misses Mary Maylon and Hannah Edmunds, two very highly respected laddis of our city. First one then the other were in the lead, which helped to intensify the interest of friends for each. On the last day both held back votes feeling confident they had enough to surprise the other at the last minute. But Miss Maylon had out done her fair competitor and came in at the close with 1,617 ahead. But through the generosity of Messrs. Ryerson & George, Miss Edmunds will also be favored with transportation at their expense. The number of votes cast for the two were 50,032.

The Lincoln Daily Star's Write Up.

The Lincoln Daily Star gave an extensive and highly complimentary write up of Broken Bow and Custer county, including the other towns of the county in its issue of August 6. It not only contains reliable historic facts of the early settlement of the county but gives a fair statement of the county's resources and its development. The business men of Broken Bow and the other towns of the county receive personal mention. The remarkable increase of deposits in the Broken Bow banks, speaks volumes for the prosperity of the people of the vicinity. Those interested in the county and the several towns would do well to secure a copy of the paper of August 6, for future reference, and send a copy to each of their friends.

End of Bitter Fight.

"Two physicians had a long and stubborn fight with an abscess on my right lung" writes J. F. Hughes of DuPont, Ga., "and gave me up. Everybody thought my time had come. It conquers all coughs, colds and throat and lung troubles. Guaranteed by Lee Bros., drug store. Price, 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.
