

Church Council.

Last Tuesday morning a council of ministers and delegates from the several Baptist churches of the Custer Association met in pursuance to call issued by the Broken Bow church to consider the Christian character of Rev. S. P. Morris, late pastor of the Broken Bow church. In addition to the ministers of Custer Association were invited to sit with the council Rev. C. W. Brinstead, general missionary, and Rev. Geo. Sutherland, D. D., president of the Grand Island College. The council was organized by electing C. W. Brinstead, moderator; and Rev. J. R. Woods of Mason City, clerk. Dr. Sutherland was elected to conduct the examination and Rev. Brinstead to represent Rev. Morris, who had submitted his defense in writing to Rev. Brinstead. Rev. A. W. Yale was called to the chair. The charges in substance accused Rev. Morris of deserting his wife and seeking a divorce from her on unscriptural grounds and making no provisions for the support of her or his children. For alienating the affections of Mrs. Day from her husband and absconding with her. For contracting debts, which he left without making any honorable provisions to pay. The entire day was taken up in substantiation of the charges and in hearing his defense. The investigation was thorough and the defense was ably represented. After the examination was concluded a committee of three, consisting of Rev. Geo. Sutherland, Rev. S. C. Cadwell and Rev. J. R. Woods to formulate a finding. The committee's report in substance was that the charges were sustained and recommended that Rev. Morris' ministerial ordination be revoked and that he be excluded from the Baptist church. The report was unanimously adopted. On motion it was ordered that the action of the council be published in the denominational papers. The council was composed of Rev. Geo. Sutherland, D. D., of Grand Island; Rev. C. W. Brinstead, general missionary, Omaha; Rev. J. R. Woods, E. H. Burrows, H. E. Hall of Mason City; Rev. S. C. Cadwell, B. W. Lowe, L. F. Huffman of Lodi; Rev. F. F. DeLong, Wm. Cosner, C.H. Cass of Merna; Rev. T. W. Powers, James and Austin Loyd of Bethel Union; John A. Hall and N. Amsberry of Ansley; Rev. A. W. Yale, Willis Cadwell and D. M. Amsberry of Broken Bow. Rev. Barrett, pastor of Ansley church was prevented from attending by a funeral which he was called upon to conduct.

The Peale-Sheppard Co. will add at once to this large line of dry goods and will put in a full line of furnishing goods, hats, caps, shoes, trunks, jumpers, etc., to meet the demand of their customers. The REPUBLICAN is pleased to note this evidence of prosperity.
