A. E. Anderson
JEWELER & OPTICIAN

P. P. Stanford of Merna, was among the sight seers in the city last Tuesday.

Dr. J. E. Paul of Columbus, Nebraska, was in the city last Sunday as a guest of Dr. Leach.

Will Davis is building a fine cottage in the east part of town on the Hunter addition. Grant Drake is doing the work.

H. Lomax's fine residence in the northwest part of the city is fast reaching completion. Tipton, Wahl & Osborne are doing the work.

R. E. Glass is enjoying a visit from his brother of Lincoln this week. He is an engineer on the B. & M. between Lincoln and Columbus.

J. H. Cross of Ansley, kindly remembered this office with a social call Tuesday. He reports the best crop of corn he ever had in Nebraska.

Elijah Crawford of Corydon, Iowa, arrived in the city last Friday morning. He is visiting with the family of his daughter, Mrs. G. T. Robinson of Fleming Valley.

Miss Henne, who has been visiting with her brother, Walter T., in Springfield, Illinois, for several weeks, returned home last week. She reports having enjoyed the visit very much.

A. R. Humphrey and family went down to their ranch on the Loup Friday of last week for a few days outing. They were equipped with tents, a boat and other paraphernalia for a good time.

Wilmon W. Blackmar of Boston, was elected Commander in Chief of the National G. A. R. The session closed last Friday. Denver, Colorado, was selected as the place for the National Encampment 1905.

J. D. Harrison, an old time Nebraskan, press agent of the Walter L. Main Show, was a welcome caller at this office Tuesday. Mr. Harrison was an employee on the Omaha Bee twenty years ago.

W. P. Rogers, wife and boy left Tuesday morning on a visit Salide, Cripple Creek and Pueblo, Colorado. Mr. Rogers has a brother at Solida he has not seen for 19 years. They expect to be gone until the 15th of Sept.

F. A. Amsberry has sold the Mason City Star to Wm. Anderson. Mr. Anderson is a practical printer and has grown up in that vicinity. We welcome Mr. Anderson back to the newspaper fraternity and wish him success in his new venture.

The absence of people from a distance at the circus last Tuesday is a guarantee that they are waiting for the fair. A strong bunch of horses are in training on the Broken Bow track. The 20 big racing events for the fair will bring more horses here than were ever seen on the track before.

J. G. Brenizer, whose ranch is three miles south of town, says his winter wheat is threshing 30 bushels to the acre and that he is selling it for 88 cents a bushel. Doc bought that land three or four years ago for about $6.00 an acre. There is yet plenty of such land in the county that can be bought for $20 to $25 an acre.

Philip Johnson of Ortello, called Monday and had his subscription advanced several notches. He informs us that his son, Mark, raised 5,000 bushels of wheat on his place this season. The winter wheat went between 30 and 40 bushels to the acre. They now have over eight hundred acres of land all paid for and are planning to build new house and barn this fall.

End of Bitter Fight.

"Two physicians had a long and stubborn fight with an abscess on my right lung" writes J. F. Hughes of DuPont, Ga., "and gave me up. Everybody thought my time had come. As a last resort I tried Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption. The benefit I received was striking and I was on my feet in a few days. Now I've entirely regained my health." It conquers all coughs, colds and throat and lung troubles. Guaranteed by Lee Bros., drug store. Price, 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

The Custer County Fair occurs week after next. Get ready for it. It will be a hot one.

Dr. Job and her father returned last Thursday from their outing in the Mountains of Colorado.

F. H. Young is at home again after spending several weeks in Colorado looking after his stock ranch. He had several hundred acres of his ranch put in alfalfa this season.

The Custer Baptist Association will convene at Ansley tomorrow afternoon for a three days' session. A number of the Broken Bow church people are planning to attend.

Hazel Jewett brought to this office a few days ago a sample of very fine plumbs, raised by D. W. Thompson in Idaho, on three year old trees. In the box of plumbs received from Mr. Thompson, Mrs. Jewett, Misses Pearl and Hazel Jewett were remembered.

The populist congressional convention of the Sixth District was held at Kearney Wednesday of last week. The only delegates present were five of Buffalo county and one from Dawson. A. A. Worsley of Butte, Boyd county, received the entire six votes and was declared unanimously nominated.

The following good word for the Arrington's is taken from the Nashville Democrat:

"Walter Arrington's Troupe appeared at the Nashville Opera House last Thursday, Friday and Saturday evenings, and made a decided hit. The house was crowded each night and the people went away delighted with the performances.

"His repertoire in this city consisted of 'The Black Flag,' 'In Old Kentucky' and 'East Lynne,' and were played in the order named. Saturday afternoon a matinee was given, and the company presented 'The Little Torment' to the utmost delight of a large gathering of children for whom the play had been especially arranged. Ogarita, the Indian actress, appeared as the star on Thursday and Saturday nights and her acting was high class. In her Mr. Arrington has succeeded in securing one of the best actresses ever making her appearance in this city. Mrs. Arrington, who appeared as the central figure 'In Old Kentucky' likewise proved herself an actress of no mean ability, and both ladies came in for much complimentary mention on all sides for their clever work. C. D. Hatfield, the husband of Ogarita, proved himself a versatile performer and one appearing to fine advantage. His work during the three nights' stand was par excellence. The remaining members of the company likewise did some noteworthy work and will aid in making the productions favorites with the theater going public. The company was organized here and marked the opening of the opera season in this city. They had previously appeared at Okawville and Marissa and gave the best of satisfaction at these places."

LOCAL MENTION.

J. K. Cooper and wife of Montrose, Colorado are visiting in the city with old acquaintances.

W. H. and J. E. Dorgan of Lincoln were in the city several days this week, the guests of C. F. Tierney. They made the trip in an automobile.

Prof. Geo. Boggs of Hastings was a friendly caller this a. m. He was on his way to Elton to visit his parents a few days before his college re-opens.

The Broken Bow schools will not open until after the fair so as to give the children a chance to attend. This plan is also adopted by a very large number of districts over the county.

Zin Grant left a sample, Friday of blue stem grass she got off of her father's section homestead in the north west part of the county that measures six feet in length. Land that will grow such grass as that will raise corn, wheat, oats, potatoes or alfalfa.

Prof. Zahn has resigned the position of superintendent of the Broken Bow Business & Normal College. The board has another man in view that will take his place. At a public meeting last Friday night the citizens decided to uphold and help make the school a success.

John S. Smith, who lives just west of Callaway informs us that he had thirty two acres of winter wheat that averaged 38 bushels to the acre and tested 61 pounds. He threshed 2,000 bushels from 40 acres of oats. His barley went 40 bushels to the acre and his macaroni wheat 25 bushels to the acre.

A. G. Hoffman of Arnold, was in the city Monday and ordered his address changed to Forest Grove, Oregon. He and his family left Wednesday over the U. P. railroad for their new home on the coast. It is with regret we see Mr. Hoffman and his estimable family leave Custer County.

Mr. Simmons a civil engineer of Central City, arrived in the city Monday over the B. & M. railroad and went out with A. G. Hoffman to Arnold Tuesday to do engineering work on the proposed dam on the South Loup below Arnold for the electric railway that is proposed from Broken Bow by the way of Arnold to Gandy.

We are in receipt of a large poster, printed in red, advertising the town of Kinkaid, laid out July 4. It is located on the Calamus River Valley, in the center of Loup county, at the junction of the proposed lines of the Sioux City, O'Neil, North Platte and Denver and the extension of the B. & M. from Barwell. The promoters of the new town is the Central Exchange Co., Council Bluffs. The poster tells of the advantages offered to become millionaires by taking 640 acres homestead in the vicinity. Great excitement prevails in the north part of the state over the proposed roads and town.
