A number of the citizens of Broken Bow went to Lincoln this week to attend the State Fair.

R. A. Hunter sold a very fine farm of 320 acres last week to Wm. Rust of Havelock. He also sold the Lee McCracken farm in Custer Center to G. R. Russom.

Mrs. F. M. Rublee gave a house and lawn party Tuesday night of last week, in honor of her nieces, Misses Millie and Amiee Griffin of Chicago, who had been visiting with her several weeks. A very pleasant and enjoyable time was reported.

What is Life.

In the last analysis nobody knows, but we do know that it is under strict law. Abuse that law even slightly, pain results. Irregular living means derangement of the organs, resulting in Constipation, Headache or Liver trouble. Dr. King's New Life Pills quickly re-adjusts this. It's gentle, yet thorough. Only 25c at Lee Bros. Drug Store.

The following good word for the Arrington's is taken from the Nashville Democrat:

"Walter Arrington's Troupe appeared at the Nashville Opera House last Thursday, Friday and Saturday evenings, and made a decided hit. The house was crowded each night and the people went away delighted with the performances.

"His repertoire in this city consisted of 'The Black Flag,' 'In Old Kentucky' and 'East Lynne,' and were played in the order named. Saturday afternoon a matinee was given, and the company presented 'The Little Torment' to the utmost delight of a large gathering of children for whom the play had been especially arranged. Ogarita, the Indian actress, appeared as the star on Thursday and Saturday nights and her acting was high class. In her Mr. Arrington has succeeded in securing one of the best actresses ever making her appearance in this city. Mrs. Arrington, who appeared as the central figure 'In Old Kentucky' likewise proved herself an actress of no mean ability, and both ladies came in for much complimentary mention on all sides for their clever work. C. D. Hatfield, the husband of Ogarita, proved himself a versatile performer and one appearing to fine advantage. His work during the three nights' stand was par excellence. The remaining members of the company likewise did some noteworthy work and will aid in making the productions favorites with the theater going public. The company was organized here and marked the opening of the opera season in this city. They had previously appeared at Okawville and Marissa and gave the best of satisfaction at these places."
