H. J. Edington returned Friday morning from Colorado, where he has spent the summer with his wife. He reports that Mrs. Edington is very much improved in health, but he did not think it best for her to come back here. He will make a sale of stock and farm machinery with the view of remaining in Colorado for the benefit of her health.

Dr. G. W. Bartholomew has decided to leave this part of Custer county and locate in Broken Bow. The Doctor has built up a very fine practice in and around Constock, and it will be with sincere regret that his friends see him depart. We believe however that there is a place at Broken Bow for another first class Doctor, such as Dr. Bartholomew, and personally we are glad to see Dr. Bartholomew seeking a field of wider opportunity as he merits. —Sargant Leader.

The Best Doctor.

Rev. B. C. Horton, Sulphur Springs, Texas, writes, July 19th, 1899: "I have in my family Ballard's Snow Liniment and Horehound Syrup, and they have proved certainly satisfactory. The liniment is the best we have ever used for headache and pains. The cough syrup has been our doctor for the last eight years." 25c, 50, $1.00. Sold by Ed. McComas, Broken Bow and Merna.

MARRIED—At their new home, Merin T. Cannon and Miss Olive Yotter, Friday, September 30th. Miss Yotter was a resident of Achilles, Kansas, while Mr. Cannon is a carpenter working with Mr. Norcutt.

Robt French, grand lecturer of the Masonic fraternity spent several days in the city last week conducting a school of instruction. The session closed Saturday night with a stereopticon session. The throughout were very interesting and highly appreciated by those in attendance.

H. J. Edington of East Custer has planned to sell his cattle, about one hundred head, several horses, hogs and shoats and farm machinery at public sale in two or three weeks. Parties desirous of buying cattle horses, hogs or farm machinery will do well to watch for the date which will be announced in the REPUBLICAN.

The annual Demonstration for Peace, appointed for each 18th of May, was this year postponed until Oct. 8. A letter has been issued by Mrs. May Wright Sewall, chairman of the Peace and Arbitration Committee for the National Council of Women, in regard to preparations for this demonstration. It is very much to be hoped that the friends of peace and arbitration will arrange for a celebration in every community.

Rev. A. W. Yale, closed his work here as temporary pastor of the Baptist church last Sunday night. He was greeted by a large audience Sunday evening. He left Monday for Fremont to attend the Baptist State convention. Immediately following state convention week he has planned to hold a series of meetings at Burwell. As he expects to hold several meetings in Custer association this fall and winter he will continue to make Broken Bow his headquarters for a time yet and in case a permanent pastor cannot be secured before December he will continue to occupy the pulpit as frequently as he can arrange. Rev. Yale is an able and efficient minister of the gospel and a man of high ideals, a consistent christian and highly esteemed by the church and community.

A Love Letter.

Would not interest you if you're looking for a guaranteed Salve for Sores, Burns or Piles. Otto Dodd of Ponder, Mo., writes: "I suffered with an ugly sore for a year, but a box of Bucklen's Arnica Salve cured me. It's the best Salve on earth. 25c at Lee Bros. Drug Store.

The Broken Bow Band left Tuesday morning for Omaha to take part in the Ak-Sar-Ben Festivities.

"Comrades" will not only appeal to every Grand Army man, but to the general public as well. It is a story dealing with two heroes of the civil war, who came together after a long separation; but owing to the animosity of the household, one of the old comrades is turned adrift, during the absence of his friend and protector. The funny situations which follow, and the dramatic climax which brings father and daughter face to face, classes this among the best comedy-dramas of the day. Friday evening, Oct. 21st, is the date set for its production by the Custer Dramatic Stock Company.
