Resolutions of Condolence.

WHEREAS, It has pleased an all wise Father to call to Himself and to her eternal home our beloved sister, Gertrude Towsley. Therefor be it,

RESOLVED, By Broken Bow Rebekah Lodge No. 110, That while we feel deeply grieved and shall miss our dear sister more than pen can tell, yet we submit to the will of our Father, knowing that all things work together for good to those who love the Lord. Be it further,

RESOLVED, That, we extend to the bereaved ones our deepest sympathy in this their hour of sorrow. Be it also,

RESOLVED, That our charter be draped for a period of thirty days. That a copy of these resolutions be given to the bereaved family, and also printed in each of our home papers, and spread on the minutes of our

Broken Bow Rebekah Lodge No. 110, I. O. O. F. MATILDA OSBOURN, ANNA SHINN, HATTIE PIGMAN. Our dear sister has been called, From loved ones so dear; A place is left vacant, There are lone hearts to cheer; Oh let us remember, We can ne'er meet her here;

Where there's nothing to fear. Let us follow her example, Be always in our chair; Except in times of sickness, She was always there; Many a time did she linger, With her foot upon the stair; Tired and weary, then go onward, To be present in her chair.

But we may meet yonder,

Oh how we miss our sister, But the Father's will be done; We know that she is happy, Her eternal life begun; Her work on earth is ended, Her life's race is run; And for her faithful service, A home in Heaven has won.

was fully three hundred.

The hall was cleared of chairs the arrangement being very convenient and pleasant for an informal reception.

The aged bride and groom, stationed at the front end of the hall, next to the stage, assisted by their son, W. G. Purcell and wife and Mrs. Root, Mrs. Purcells sister, extended a hearty hand shake to all who extended congratulations. Two punch bowls conveniently located and each presided over by young ladies were liberally patronized during the reception.

On entering the hall Alpha Morgan, Mesdames Morgan, Ed. guests and directed them to the cloak room in the back of the hall which had been partitioned off by curtains for the occasion.

Eor an hour or more a genial and social time was enjoyed, all enjoying the happy event only as a jolly Nebraska crowd can.

The informal reception having ended chairs were brought in and to witness the program prepared for the occasion.

> While some fires are the result of accident, too often they are through carelessness. Frequently parties riding along the road will throw down a burning match or stub of a cigar from which the grass is ignited.

Tuesday a fire was started near the Steadry School house south west of town on the Callaway road which doubtless was the result of carelessness. Fortunately tant attorney general and Miss parties were near plowing fire guards and saw it in time to prevent its spreading to any great extent. But about 100 acres of pasture was burned over that officers during the day and none might have been quite valuable before spring to the owner.

Some three fires were started last fall in the vicinity of Frank Weissenreders pasture and west the new department forces before of there that evidently originated from some one's carelessness. One of them not only burned over a large territory but burned a large quantity of hay.
